

The Trinity 3 in 1 or 1 in 3 Part 3 Genesis 1:26

As most of you already know we've been studying the false doctrine of the Roman Catholic created Trinity and the underpinnings of it's pagan origins over the past few Sabbaths. And the more we study it.. the more questions that seem to arise, and so we're now in the process of creating a "Trinity" page for the website at HolyImpactMinistries.com. And we'll be posting all of our studies on the Trinity there on our "Trinity" page as we continue our journey in exposing the false doctrine of a philosophical pagan Gnostic... three in one god, and so with that being said... before we get into our study on Genesis chapter 1 verse 26... I think it's important to once again turn back to the Shema which tells us very clearly in Deuteronomy chapter 6 verses 4 through 9.. that there is indeed...only one God:

E1

Deu 6:4 "Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

Deu 6:5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Deu 6:6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.

Deu 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

Deu 6:8 You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deu 6:9 You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

And just as we've already seen in our previous studies on this topic... our Messiah makes it very clear that this is the most important commandment to understand in Mark chapter 12 verses 28 through 30:

E2

Mar 12:28 And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, "Which commandment is the most important of all?"

Mar 12:29 Jesus answered, "The most important is, 'Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.

Mar 12:30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.'

Mar 12:31 The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Mar 12:32 And the scribe said to him, "You are right, Teacher. You have truly said that he is one, and there is no other besides him."

Mar 12:33 And to love him with all the heart and with all the understanding and with all the strength, and to love one's neighbor as oneself, is much more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

Mar 12:34 And when Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And after that no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Our Messiah Yahshua Jesus tells the Scribes and the Pharisees that the most important commandment of all... is to know that Yahovah our God is one God, and even more importantly is that the Scribes agree with the Messiah in verse 32. So let there be no confusion about a philosophical... gnostical... pagan three in one deity, or three gods in one being. Clearly according to both Yahovah God the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob.. and his Son Yahshua our Messiah... and the Scribes of Yahshua's time... there is only "ONE GOD".

We already know through the scriptures that Yahshua Jesus was "begotten" (Maganas) by God... and that Yahshua Jesus the man was created by God the Father for the Fathers purpose. We know that God promised David in 2nd Samuel chapter 7 verses 12 through 17.. that Yahshua Jesus would come from the body of David as stated in 2nd Samuel 7:12... and we already know that Yahshua Jesus... with his own tongue, and his own breath, and with his own red letter words has already told us in John 14:28 that his Father is "Greater" (meizōn) than he is.

We also know that the Son can do nothing without the Father just as the Son himself tells us in John 5:30... Lets go back and read John 5:26 and read through verse 30:

E3

Joh 5:26 For as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted the Son also to have life in himself.

Joh 5:27 And he has given him authority to execute judgment, because he is the Son of Man.

Joh 5:28 Do not marvel at this, for an hour is coming when all who are in the tombs will hear his voice

Joh 5:29 and come out, those who have done good to the resurrection of life, and those who have done evil to the resurrection of judgment.

Joh 5:30 "I can do nothing on my own. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is just, because I seek not my own will but the will of him who sent me.

So over and over and over again we have evidence provided to us through the scriptures that Yahshua Jesus the man was indeed a begotten (Maganas) created being who came from the house of David and the tribe of Judah who was a man put here on Earth by his Father the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob... and so there should be no debate about such things according to the scriptures... and yet the debate continues to rage on because of the programming of those who preach the deity of a pagan triune god that they nor their fathers have not ever known.

Man is always tripping over himself because he does not study to show himself approved rightly dividing the truth of Gods Word. Man would rather listen to the wisdom of men than the wisdom of God... and man will always believe in the wisdom of men over the wisdom of God as long as he continues to read the writings of men... and not read the writings of God.

We've received several questions about Genesis chapter one verse 26... and so today we will be looking at Genesis chapter 1 verse 26 to see... if our Trinitarian brethren do indeed have a stake in this scripture... that proves their so called "Trinitarian" doctrine... I would submit to you my friends... that they do not. Lets us read Genesis chapter 1 verse 26 together:

E4

Gen 1:26 Then God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness. And let them have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over the livestock and over all the earth and over every creeping thing that creeps on the earth."

Now... according to our misguided "Trinitarian" brethren... when God said "Let us make man in our image"... he was talking to himself. They will teach you and your children that God was speaking to his... other... schizophrenic ulterior by polar self also known as their version of "Jesus". And this is the black oil of Gnosticism and paganism that they will spill from their pulpits into the ears of Gods people because that's what their denominational charter of men has taught them. This is what their so called "Early Church Fathers" believed, and this is what their prestigious Bible commentators spew all over their all to housecleanlisteners.

Once again denying the truth of Gods Word... and turning to the teachings of men.

But what does the Bible say? Does the scripture tell us that God is speaking to his only permanent... only begotten Son... that has not even been begotten yet? No! It does not! The scripture never tells us such a thing...nor does it even allude to such a pagan myth.

But what do we believe? We believe what we're told by men... and why? Because we do not read the book for ourselves. And when we do read the book... we only read the back half of it because we've been conveniently programmed not to read the book from the beginning because it's all been nailed to some tree somewhere.

We say that we know him... we say that we have a relationship with him... we say that we even love and obey him... and yet... most of us don't even really know who he is. Is it any wonder why he tells us in Matthew 7:23 that not everyone who calls on him will enter the kingdom of Heaven... and that he will tell many of them... that he never even knew them? Is it any wonder why in Matthew 15:8 and 9 he says “This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.”?

To say that God was talking to his schizophrenic, by polar self in Genesis 1:26... is to say that we have not read the Bible at all, and that we are ignorant of the truth that it speaks. To say that God was speaking to his schizophrenic, by polar self in Genesis 1:26 is to ignorantly say that no one else could have possibly been in Heaven with God when he spoke these words. To say that God was talking to his schizophrenic by polar self in Genesis 1:26 is to say that the Sons of God in Job 38 do not exist.. and that God is a liar!

To say that God was speaking to his schizophrenic by polar self in Genesis 1:26 is to say that the “Watchers” in Gods divine council found in Daniel chapter 4 do not exist, and that court of God found in Daniel chapter 7 does not exist. To say that God was talking to his schizophrenic by polar self if Genesis 1:26 is to say that the whole truth of the Bible amounts to nothing, and is a lie.

But this... is what they teach. And so... just so that we may be clear here today about the oneness of the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob... we will talk about the “Divine Council Of God” here this morning... so that we will no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, and by craftiness in deceitful schemes.

My friends...nothing could be farther from the truth. Genesis 1:26 has nothing to do with the per-existance of our Messiah who was once again... A MAN WHO CAME FROM THE BODY OF DAVID... WHO WAS BEGOTTEN (MAGANAS) OF GOD THE FATHER. Our Messiah was a Jew who came from the house of David and the tribe of Judah. His Father was greater than he... and he did not come to preach his own word... but his Fathers Word who has always been...in Heaven. And our Messiah has already made it perfectly clear through his red letter words, that he spoke with his own tongue... that he can do nothing with out his Father.

He was a flesh and bone man, begotten by God his Father who had instilled in him... his Word. God... HIS FATHER.... gave him all of the authority in Heaven and on Earth that he now holds. And there is no reason for us to jump to the impossible assumption... that God the Father was speaking to a son that had not yet been begotten... clear back in Genesis 1:26.

Now with that being said I know that there will be many out there who will ask... “Well then who was God speaking to in Genesis 1:26?”. And once again I will have to answer... “Go home and read your Bible”. The answer is there if we will simply read the book.

God has always had a “Divine Council” with him that he has administered certain powers and authorities to... and we see that not just in the spirit world... but we also see it in the human world. From the very beginning that God created man what did he tell man? Did he tell man that he was going to be some kind of all controlling tyrant? Did God say that he was going to rule and reign, and watch over man every second of the day? NO! He did not.

God created the Earth and told man to subdue it. Lets read Gen 1:28:

E5

Gen 1:28 And God blessed them. And God said to them, "Be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it, and have dominion over the fish of the sea and over the birds of the heavens and over every living thing that moves on the earth."

God... our Father... has never been a tyrannical being. He has always known how to delegate his authority to his creation. Take into consideration Deuteronomy 16:18:

E6

Deu 16:18 "You shall appoint judges and officers in all your towns that the LORD your God is giving you, according to your tribes, and they shall judge the people with righteous judgment."

God has always delegated his authority to his creation both in the spirit world and in the human world. Lets read Matthew chapter 18 verse 28:

E7

Mat 19:28 Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you, in the new world, when the Son of Man will sit on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."

Are we so foolish to think that God has only done this in the Earthly realm and not this in the Heavenly realm? Once again I ask... have we not read the book?

It's important that we take into consideration that the Samaritan, and Akadian, and Babylonians, the the Celtics, and even ancient Greece... and the Nordic Pantheon, all have their panel of gods and their own council of gods built into their mythology.... Where do you suppose they got that idea from? ... Who is it that we are told loves to disguise himself as an angle of light? Who is it that we are told wants to be.... like God? Lets read Isaiah 14:12-19:

E8

Isa 14:12 "How you are fallen from heaven, O Day Star, son of Dawn! How you are cut down to the ground, you who laid the nations low!"

Isa 14:13 You said in your heart, 'I will ascend to heaven; above the stars of God I will set my throne on high; I will sit on the mount of assembly in the far reaches of the north;

Isa 14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.'

Isa 14:15 But you are brought down to Sheol, to the far reaches of the pit."

Isa 14:16 Those who see you will stare at you and ponder over you: 'Is this the man who made the earth tremble, who shook kingdoms,

Isa 14:17 who made the world like a desert and overthrew its cities, who did not let his prisoners go home?'

Isa 14:18 All the kings of the nations lie in glory, each in his own tomb;

Isa 14:19 but you are cast out, away from your grave, like a loathed branch, clothed with the slain, those pierced by the sword, who go down to the stones of the pit, like a dead body trampled underfoot.

He is a fake and a liar... just like those of his seed that teach and preach things like a pagan triune God that they nor their Fathers have ever known.

When it comes to the Roman Catholic created Pagan Trinity doctrine we find ourselves standing at a crossroads. What will we believe. Will we believe what our Messiah says... or will we believe what man says. Will we believe what our Messiah says time and time and time again in his own red letter words... or will we believe what is clearly a pagan Gnostic myth created by those who come from the seed of Satan himself. Those who have built for themselves a new religion... those who have erased the commandments, the precepts, the feast days, the Sabbaths and the appointments of our Father in Heaven...in order to gain the power and the glory that only our Father rightly holds. Those who have changed the times and the law for their own greedy benefit, and who have even changed the very personage... of the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob himself...only so that they themselves can sit in on the throne of God... and pretend.... to be somebody.

If we read our Bibles from the beginning we should already know that our Father has always had a divine council in the Spiritual realm. And we'll get to that in just a moment but before we do... lets listen to how Paul explains who God is in relationship to his Son in Ephesians chapter 1 verses 16 through 21:

E9

Eph 1:16 I do not cease to give thanks for you, remembering you in my prayers,

Eph 1:17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of him,

Eph 1:18 having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope to which he has called you, what are the riches of his glorious inheritance in the saints,

Eph 1:19 and what is the immeasurable greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his great might

Eph 1:20 that he worked in Christ when he raised him from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places,

Eph 1:21 far above all rule and authority and power and dominion, and above every name that is named, not only in this age but also in the one to come.

Once again my friends we see Paul telling us that God is the “Lord of Christ our Messiah. And Paul tells us that the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob worked through Christ our Messiah when God raised our Messiah from the dead. Notice my friends... it does not say that God raised himself from the dead... it says he raised the Christ... the Messiah.. from the dead and seated him at his right hand in the heavenly places. God did not come to sit down beside himself. God is not friskinessc nor is he by polar my friends. He is not some kind of Jeckel and Hyde my friends.. and Paul tells us once again the same thing that our Messiah himself told us... that the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob gave to his Son all rule and authority and power and dominion above every name that is named not only in this age but also in the one to come. God did not give authority to himself... God already had the authority... Yahshua Jesus... did not... this is why God had to give his son his authority. They are not the same being... they are not one in being... they are one in spirit... there is a difference. And this also brings to light another popular Trinitarian scripture found in the book of Revelation 22:13... lets read Revelation chapter 22:13:

E0

Rev 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Once again many of our Trinitarian brethren will jump to try and proclaim that Yahshua Jesus is proclaiming that he is God in this scripture... but once again I would submit to you my friends that he is not. First of all no where in this scripture are we told that Yahshua the Son is equal with his Father, or that he is calling himself the Father. In fact... we already know through the scripture found in John 14:28... that Yahshua Jesus tells us that his Father is greater than he is. So either Yahshua Jesus our Messiah is a liar... or... we're not understanding what he's trying to tell us here in Revelation 22:13. I would submit to you my friends... that it is we... who do not understand what our Messiah is saying.

In order to understand Revelation 22:13 we must first understand that our Messiah is also known as “The First Fruit” in 1st Corinthians 15:20:

1Co 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first-fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

He is also called the “First-fruits” in verse 23:

1Co 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the first-fruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

Our Messiah was indeed the first-fruits of the “New Harvest” and this is why he was raised from the dead on “First-fruits”. This is easy for those of us who understand the true timeline of the death burial and resurrection of our Messiah according to scripture.. and know that he did not die on the Roman Catholic created “Good Friday” and he was not raised on the Roman Catholic created Pagan “Easter Sunday”.

So because he was the “First-fruit” of the new harvest he is indeed the first... and the last. This is not hard for those of us who read and understand our scriptures to understand. Once again my friends... no where in this scripture... or in any other scripture... do we find our Messiah claiming to be his Father. You will not find that in the scriptures anywhere.

We must also consider that God had instilled in his Son his Word.. and Gods Word has always been around as long as God has been around. It was the Word of God that per-ceeded his Son. The word of God had not yet become flesh until Yahshua our Messiah was begotten by his Father and came from the body of David just as we are told in 2nd Samuel 7:12. So once again my friends... it would not be wrong for our Messiah to proclaim that he indeed is the first and the last... because the Word that has been embedded in him has existed from the beginning to the end. Once again my friends... we find no gnostical pagan 3 in one triune deity in this scripture.

Now... getting back to answer Genesis 1:26 when God said “Let us make man in our image”.. Lets read Revelation 4:2 through 8:

Rev 4:2 At once I was in the Spirit, and behold, a throne stood in heaven, with one seated on the throne.

Rev 4:3 And he who sat there had the appearance of jasper and carnelian, and around the throne was a rainbow that had the appearance of an emerald.

Rev 4:4 Around the throne were twenty-four thrones, and seated on the thrones were twenty-four elders, clothed in white garments, with golden crowns on their heads.

Rev 4:5 From the throne came flashes of lightning, and rumblings and peals of thunder, and before the throne were burning seven torches of fire, which are the seven spirits of God,

Rev 4:6 and before the throne there was as it were a sea of glass, like crystal. And around the throne, on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind:

Rev 4:7 the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with the face of a man, and the fourth living creature like an eagle in flight.

Rev 4:8 And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and within, and day and night they never cease to say, "Holy, holy, holy, is the Lord God Almighty, who was and is and is to come!"

Now... with in this scripture it should evident to the reader that God is in no way, shape, or form, alone in his Heavenly realm. Notice in verse 4 that there are how many thrones that surround the throne of God?... 24! There are 24 “OTHER” thrones... that encompass the throne of God.. with how many elders?... 24 elders. Let me ask you my friends... does it seem to you that God was alone in Genesis 1:26? Does it seem clear... and evident... that through the scriptures... we can see... know... and understand that God was not alone when he spoke the words.. “Let us make man in our image”? You see once again my friends... we must read the whole book... and we must read it from the beginning just like any other book.

To think that God was alone in Genesis 1:26 is to be completely ignorant of what the scriptures tell us. We should know through the scriptures that there have always been spirit beings, and angles, and beasts in the Heavenly realms with God the Father. Lets read 1st Corinthians 15:39 and 40:

1Co 15:39 For not all flesh is the same, but there is one kind for humans, another for animals, another for birds, and another for fish.

1Co 15:40 There are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies, but the glory of the heavenly is of one kind, and the glory of the earthly is of another.

God created different kinds of beings not just here on Earth but in Heaven also, and this is where Angles and Demons, and fallen angels and so on and so fourth come from. Lets read Jude 1:9:

Jud 1:9 But when the archangel Michael, contending with the devil, was disputing about the body of Moses, he did not presume to pronounce a blasphemous judgment, but said, "The Lord rebuke you."

There are angels, devils, and yes... even other little “g” gods and authorities in Gods heavenly realm. Lets just take a few moments to read what the scriptures tell us about these other authorities and yes... even other gods. Lets read Psalms 86:8:

Psa 86:8 There is none like you among the gods, O Lord, nor are there any works like yours.

How about Psalms 96:4:

Psa 96:4 For great is the LORD, and greatly to be praised; he is to be feared above all gods.

How about 135:5:

Psa 135:5 For I know that the LORD is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

Lets turn to Exodus 12:12:

Exo 12:12 For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; and on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD.

And we find in the book of Numbers that God did indeed execute judgments against the gods of Egypt in Numbers 33:4:

Num 33:4 while the Egyptians were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them. On their gods also the LORD executed judgments.

For those of you who have never read any of these passages before or are unaware of just how many little “g” gods are found in the scriptures... consider the very first commandment of the Ten Commandments. It very clearly implies that there are indeed other little “g” gods in Exodus 20 verses 3 through 6:

Exo 20:3 "You shall have no other gods before me.

Exo 20:4 "You shall not make for yourself a carved image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth.

Exo 20:5 You shall not bow down to them or serve them, for I the LORD your God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers on the children to the third and the fourth generation of those who hate me,

Exo 20:6 but showing steadfast love to thousands of those who love me and keep my commandments.

God even called Moses God in the book of Exodus when Moses was arguing with God. Moses wanted God to send someone else... but God said no... he told Moses that he had already chosen him, and that he would send his brother Aaron with him, and that Moses would be a God to him. Lets read Exodus chapter 4:12 through 16:

Exo 4:12 Now therefore go, and I will be with your mouth and teach you what you shall speak."

Exo 4:13 But he said, "Oh, my Lord, please send someone else."

Exo 4:14 Then the anger of the LORD was kindled against Moses and he said, "Is there not Aaron, your brother, the Levite? I know that he can speak well. Behold, he is coming out to meet you, and when he sees you, he will be glad in his heart.

Exo 4:15 You shall speak to him and put the words in his mouth, and I will be with your mouth and with his mouth and will teach you both what to do.

Exo 4:16 He shall speak for you to the people, and he shall be your mouth, and you shall be as God to him.

Now... if God can make Moses a god and give him his authority... why is it that our Trinitarian brethren can not accept the fact that God the Father gave his only begotten Son his authority and made him a god? Why is it so difficult for them to understand the scripture? Why is it so hard for them to understand how our Father in Heaven works and how he delegates his authority? Why is it so difficult for them to understand that God the Father is greater than the son just like the son told us?

Once again my friends... I would direct us back to Matthew 13:10 when the Apostles asked the Messiah why he spoke to the people in parables... what was the Messiah's answer? Lets go back and read Matthew chapter 13:10 through 17:

Mat 13:10 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

Mat 13:11 And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Mat 13:12 For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Mat 13:13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

Mat 13:14 Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: ""You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive."

Mat 13:15 For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.'

Mat 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Mat 13:17 For truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

Not everyone is going to understand. There are those who have more degree's than a thermometer hanging on their wall but I tell you the truth my friends... those degree's will not get them into the coming kingdom. It is written in Psalms 20 that Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of Yahovah our God. They collapse and fall, but we rise and stand upright. Oh Yahovah, save the king! May he answer us when we call.

We can put our trust in man or we can put our trust in God. We can believe and hold firm to the feeble words of men... or we can believe and hold firm to the righteous Word of God.

God has always delegated his authority to his Divine Council in the heavenly realm to assist him in administering to his creation. These spirit beings were often called angles.. and sometimes "Fallen Angles", and yes sometimes they were even called "gods"... Lets read Psalms 82:1 through 8:

*Psa 82:1 A Psalm of Asaph. God has taken his place in the divine council; in the midst of the gods he holds judgment:

Psa 82:2 "How long will you judge unjustly and show partiality to the wicked? Selah.

Psa 82:3 Give justice to the weak and the fatherless; maintain the right of the afflicted and the destitute.

Psa 82:4 Rescue the weak and the needy; deliver them from the hand of the wicked."

Psa 82:5 They have neither knowledge nor understanding, they walk about in darkness; all the foundations of the earth are shaken.

*Psa 82:6 I said, "You are gods, sons of the Most High, all of you;
Psa 82:7 nevertheless, like men you shall die, and fall like any prince."
Psa 82:8 Arise, O God, judge the earth; for you shall inherit all the nations!*

God sat in the divine council in the midst of the gods who were supposed to rule over the nations justly... but as we can see in verse 6... these gods fell short of what God expected them to do, and they were not administering to his people as he told them to. Thus... we see their punishment in verse 7, and that they themselves would die like men and will fall like any prince.

Even Satan himself is referred to as “The god of this world” in 2nd Corinthians 4:4:

2Co 4:4 In their case the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelievers, to keep them from seeing the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God.

The Divine Council of God is written about over and over all through out the scriptures in places like Jeremiah chapter 23 verses 16 through 22:

Jer 23:16 Thus says the LORD of hosts: "Do not listen to the words of the prophets who prophesy to you, filling you with vain hopes. They speak visions of their own minds, not from the mouth of the LORD.

Jer 23:17 They say continually to those who despise the word of the LORD, 'It shall be well with you!'; and to everyone who stubbornly follows his own heart, they say, 'No disaster shall come upon you.'"

Jer 23:18 For who among them has stood in the council of the LORD to see and to hear his word, or who has paid attention to his word and listened?

Jer 23:19 Behold, the storm of the LORD! Wrath has gone forth, a whirling tempest; it will burst upon the head of the wicked.

Jer 23:20 The anger of the LORD will not turn back until he has executed and accomplished the intents of his heart. In the latter days you will understand it clearly.

Jer 23:21 "I did not send the prophets, yet they ran; I did not speak to them, yet they prophesied.

Jer 23:22 But if they had stood in my council, then they would have proclaimed my words to my people, and they would have turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their deeds.

Notice that these false prophets did not stand in Gods “Council” to see and hear his word, and that if they would have stood in his “Council” then and only then could they have proclaimed his words to his people and turned them from their evil ways. And we see an even better picture of this in Daniel chapter 4 when Gods “Watchers” hand down the decree upon Nebuchadnezzar to loose his mind and Rome the earth as a beast. Lets read Daniel chapter 4 verses 13 through 17:

Dan 4:13 "I saw in the visions of my head as I lay in bed, and behold, a watcher, a holy one, came down from heaven.

Dan 4:14 He proclaimed aloud and said thus: 'Chop down the tree and lop off its branches, strip off its leaves and scatter its fruit. Let the beasts flee from under it and the birds from its branches.

Dan 4:15 But leave the stump of its roots in the earth, bound with a band of iron and bronze, amid the tender grass of the field. Let him be wet with the dew of heaven. Let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth.

Dan 4:16 Let his mind be changed from a man's, and let a beast's mind be given to him; and let seven periods of time pass over him.

Dan 4:17 The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, the decision by the word of the holy ones, to the end that the living may know that the Most High rules the kingdom of men and gives it to whom he will and sets over it the lowliest of men.'

Notice my friends that this decree of the watchers was handed down by the word of the holy ones so that the living would know that the one true God of Abraham Issac, and Jacob rules the kingdom of men and gives that kingdom to whom he wills. This council, and these "Watchers" are those who God has delegated authority to, and they were the ones who had handed down this decree upon Nebuchadnezzar.

Once again my friends... to say that God was alone in Genesis 1:26... and that he was talking to his only begotten son who had not even been begotten yet... is simply nonsense. God had plenty of beings to talk to and these spirit beings had been given authority by God to administer his will over his creation. Once again my friends... we find no hint of Yahshua Jesus the man per-existing before his time in this scripture.

There really is no debate my friends as to whether God is a Pagan three in one deity... or whether he is the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob. The scriptures are very clear if we will just read them. And yes... I am very aware of several other scriptures that seem to point to our Messiah as being per-existent before his time... but as for me and my house... we will hear and shema what the Messiah himself tells us, and we stand firmly on the red letter words of our Messiah when he tells us very clearly that his Father is greater than he is and that he can do nothing without his Father, and that he was "Begotten" by his Father, and that he grew in wisdom and stature before both God and man. And we will hold on to the truth of our Messiah's origins according to scripture... knowing that he came from the body of David... knowing that he was a Jew... and knowing that any and all authority that he has... has been given to him by his Father.

No my friends... there is no pagan three in one deity that we worship... there is only... the one true God of Abraham, Issac, and Jacob... and his only begotten "Maganas"... Son.

We would all do well to remember the "Shema" that even our own Messiah said was the most important commandment in the scriptures found in Deuteronomy chapter 6... and I quote:

"Hear, O Israel: Yahovah our God, Yahovah is one. You shall love Yahovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might. And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise. You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes. You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

And we will continue to unpack, unfold, and uncover the many scriptures that our Trinitarian brethran love to cherry pick in order to try and prove their unfounded pagan belief in their Gnostic triune god... but as for today... I will leave you with the peace and security of knowing that you can know the truth if you choose to ask, seek, and knock... because I promise you my friends.. that if you will ask, seek, and knock... the door will be opened to you.

As always... take these things into your prayer closet and bow your head and bend your knee and face the Holy promised land of Jerusalem... and ask in the name of Yahshua Hamashiach Jesus Christ the Messiah for the discernment that can only come from him... to understand... if these things be true... or not. And above all remember... to trust no man... no Pastor, Priest, Bishop, or Pope with out testing what you have heard in the fire of prayer and supplication... and through the God breathed scriptures and his Ruach Hakodesh that we have all been given to guide us. And remember above all to contend for the faith and to keep his commandments... for this is... the whole duty of man.
