

Deuteronomy Chapter 1b

During our study into the book of Deuteronomy last week we talked about the book of Deuteronomy by and large being a recap of the journey of the house of Israel from the bondage of Egypt to its wandering in the desert and on into the promised land. And we made mention that at this point in time Moses was at the end of his life and was attempting to re-energize and to reaffirm all that God had given Moses to teach the house of Israel.

We also spoke briefly about the word “LORD” when it is capitalized in your English translated New Testament and what a blunderus blooper that it is in our English translated Bibles. And once again, I would like to just briefly mention the fact that when you see the word “LORD” in your English translated Bible and its capitalized we need to understand that the name of God is being disguised. The name of God is literally being covered up and hidden from God’s people because of some very wicked men who have once again added to God’s word and taken away from God’s word.

And I also want us to clearly understand who it is that covered up the name of God because we need to understand who did it. It was indeed the Babylonian rabbis who had come up out of Babylon that have literally hidden the name of God from his people. And we talk about this all the time. There are no rabbis in your Torah, which are the first five books of the Bible. There was only the high priest who had to be in the bloodline of Aaron the brother of Moses and the Levitical priesthood.

Rabbis are a man-made invention of Babylon. There were no rabbis until... because of the disobedience of the house of Israel... the southern kingdom of Judah was taken into bondage under Babylon which is where the rabbi was invented. And this is exactly why our Messiah tells us in Matthew chapter 23 verse eight not to be called rabbi.

These rabbis were the exact same men that are Messiah called children of the devil because of what they had brought up from Babylon. And the hiding of our Father's name was just one of many wicked abominations that these Babylonian rabbis have introduced to the world.

My friends, we cannot stress it enough... the very men that our Messiah called children of the devil were men who were running around calling themselves "rabbis". And they are the very same men who today call themselves "rabbis" and are teaching a mixing and mingling of God's word with their own. Our Messiah commands his followers not to be called rabbi in Matthew chapter 23 verse eight where he also commands his followers not to call anyone else their spiritual father or their master.

When we do these things, we are usurping the authority of our Father in heaven and the authority that he gave to his only begotten Son who is our King. Once again like many things... those who consistently call themselves "rabbis" are continuously breaking the red-letter commandment of our Messiah thereby announcing themselves as children of the devil. Not says I... but says our God breathed Scripture and the very red-letter words of our Messiah. And the hiding of the very name of God is once again just one of the evils that these men do by usurping the authority of God for themselves in order to make themselves look more pious and holy than they truly are, which is the name of the game as far as the devil is concerned. Remember it is written that the devil loves to dress himself up like an angel of light and so too do his minions.

In the New Testament, in the book of Ephesians chapter 4 it is written that he gave the apostles, the prophets, the evangelists, the pastors and teachers to equip the saints for the work of ministry. Rabbi is not listed within the confines of this list. And rabbi is not listed within the confines of this list because our Messiah has forbidden that title to be used by those who truly follow him. Keeping that in mind... lets take a look at what the Bible has to say about the name of God and how God himself expects his people to remember him. (scrn 1)

Exo 3:15 God also said to Moses, "Say this to the people of Israel: 'The ~~LORD~~ YHOVAH, the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you.' This is my name forever, and thus I am to be remembered throughout all generations.

Jer 23:25 I have heard what the prophets have said who prophesy lies in my name, saying, 'I have dreamed, I have dreamed!'

Jer 23:26 How long shall there be lies in the heart of the prophets who prophesy lies, and who prophesy the deceit of their own heart,

Jer 23:27 who think to make my people forget my name by their dreams that they tell one another, even as their fathers forgot my name for Baal?

Clearly, in Exodus chapter 3 verse 15 our Father in heaven tells us that his name is "Yehovah". Any Hebrew dictionary will clearly show that the English word "LORD" when capitalized in your English translated Bible... is covering up the name of God that he wrote in your Bible over 6000 times. And he tells us very clearly in Exodus chapter 3 verse 15 that this is his name forever and thus he is to be remembered throughout all generations. But what does the rabbi teach? The rabbi teaches no! Your not holy enough to even know the name of God. Only they themselves are privy to that information because God loves them more than he loves you. But once again... that's not what the Bible says.

In the book of Jeremiah chapter 23 we clearly read about these false prophets who have made God's people forget his name by the dreams that they tell one another.

And I want us to sit up and take notice of what's going on here because this is tectonically important especially in our time today when many men are calling themselves rabbis and wearing a rabbinical garb in order to put on a persona of being pious and spiritual when the only spirit that is in them is of the devil himself!

For a man who calls himself "Rabbi" to say that he is a Christian is to say that the Roman Catholic Pope is Christian. My friends... Oil and water do not mix. The truth and lies do not mix. You can mix them and you can mingle them but one will not adhere to the other. You either have a mixed bag of tricks... or you have the truth. But you can't have both because a mixed bag of tricks does not qualify as the truth. The truth comes from the spoken word of God. A mixed bag of tricks comes from his adversary and the doctrines of men. And I would submit to you that this snake oil has been sold to both Jew and Gentile. The Jew believes in rabbinical Judaism, and the Gentile believes in Roman Catholicism. Neither are true and neither are correct according to what is written in our God breathed Scripture.

The Bible tells us that the only truth is God's truth. And God's breathed Scripture can only be found within the confines of his Gods breathed Scripture. Anything short of that is an imposter, a fake, of fraud, and in direct opposition to what God says, which makes it an abomination.

These wicked rabbinical Babylonian rabbis have indeed made people forget God's name by the dreams that they tell one another. Nowhere and I repeat nowhere within the confines of the 66 books of your Bible is anyone ever told not to use God's name. In fact, the opposite is taught by Yehvoah God himself. And as we can clearly see here in Jeremiah chapter 23 verse 27... the false prophets of Jeremiah's time were being chastised for doing exactly what today's Babylonian rabbis are continuously doing today in our time.

Once again... God's name is not "Adoni". God's name is not "Hashem". God's name is not "LORD"... It is not "God Almighty"... It is not "Father"... And it is not "God".

God has a name that he has given us in Exodus chapter 3 verse 15 in the very beginning of our Bibles that he expects us to know and to use often forever and throughout our generations. And Yehovah himself commands that this is his name forever and this is the name that he is to be remembered by throughout our generations. Numbers 15;14-16 E1

Num 15:14 And if a stranger is sojourning with you, or anyone is living permanently among you, and he wishes to offer a food offering, with a pleasing aroma to the LORD, he shall do as you do.

Num 15:15 For the assembly, there shall be one statute for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you, a statute forever throughout your generations. You and the sojourner shall be alike before the LORD.

Num 15:16 One law and one rule shall be for you and for the stranger who sojourns with you."

And as we have said many times before, so now we say again... you can kick your pulpit, you can rent your clothes, you can throw yourself down on the floor and roll around like a spoiled rotten child at the local Walmart... but what you cannot do... what you cannot do... is to change one crossing of a "t" or one dying of an "i" of these God breathed Scriptures!

And if it sounds like we are harping on this point, you better believe that we are. Because there are far too many people today who call themselves Torah keepers and people who believe in the whole Bible and not just half of it who are being just as led astray by rabbinical Judaism as Christians are being led astray by Roman Catholicism.

And I would submit to you that this is exactly why Moses is once again setting the foundation of God's law in cement here in the book of Deuteronomy. Once again, Moses did not call God "LORD". Moses called God by his name that God said he was to be known by throughout all generations and that name is “Yehvoah”. And any Hebrew dictionary will show clearly make this evident.

And so the next time you hear some Babylonian Rabbi replacing the name of God with “Adoni” or “Heshem”... you can know and understand that that Babylonian Rabbi is sinning right out in the open in front of both God and man. Not says I... but says your God breathed Scripture.

My friends, we work tirelessly.... literally tirelessly... to pull people out of deception, to drag them out of darkness, to open their eyes and to unplug their ears by speaking the truth and showing in plain English what the Bible says and just as importantly what the Bible does not say. And we continuously remind people not to add to God’s word and not to take away from God’s word and this is exactly what Moses is doing right here in the book of Deuteronomy.

Moses is once again reaffirming things that he has reaffirmed over and over and over again all throughout their journey through the wilderness. And it may sound like Moses is harping on the same things over and over again and that’s because he is.

As a pastor, as a man of God, as a Bible teacher, I can tell you that people are continuously asking me things that I have already taught. People will continuously ask me things that I just did an hour or even a two-hour study on in great detail. And when people ask me these questions there is no doubt in my mind that they have not taken the time to sit down and watch the study, nor have they opened up their Bible to read it for themselves.

And therefore... like Moses... those of us who teach the truth must continue to repeat it time and time again. Not to mention the fact that there are always people in the audience who have never heard these things before.

And so, when we speak of these things, we often times have to repeat them to ingrain them in the hearts and in the minds of God's people so that they don't forget them. And this is exactly what we see Moses doing right here in the book of Deuteronomy. And this is exactly why every commandment of Yehovah God is repeated over and over and over again all throughout the Torah the writings of the prophets and the Psalms and even on into the New Testament.

But if there is anything that we teach, let it first be the name of God our Father who we owe everything. How can you love someone whose name you don't even care to know? How intimate can you be with someone whose name that you don't even care to know? How loyal can you be to someone whose name that you don't even care to know? How faithful can you be to someone whose name you don't even care to know? How can you say that you believe in someone whose name you don't even care to know?

My friends, I would submit to you that when we meet someone on the street one of the very first questions that we ask them is what their name is if they have not already presented it to us. And why is that? It's because we want to get to know them!

And so, once again, it is often times the small details that are a big deal to our Father in heaven that we Christians often times miss because of our woeful lack of study and the pre-programming of others. Once we begin to do as the Bible says and to renew our minds daily, and to study to show ourselves approved by reading the Bible... we can very clearly spot the wickedness of the Babylonian Rabbi just as clearly as we can spot the wickedness of the Roman Catholic Pope. But if we never read the Bible, we are going to suffer greatly because of our woeful ignorance. And this is exactly why we do not study portions... of the Torah which have also been established and introduced to us by the Babylonian Rabbi. We read the whole Torah, we study the whole Torah, and not just half of it, and by continuously reading it, and by continuously studying it, new information is consistently being given to those who are asking, seeking, and knocking.

For those who are not asking, seeking, and knocking, and have simply set up a ritualistic repetitive regurgitated study... no new information can be given! And I tell you the truth my friends, half of a study into the Torah is just as good as no study into the Torah. Why? Because half-truths will not lead you to the path of true salvation! Half the truth is just as good as no truth at all. A mixing and mingling of the truth is not the truth.

Once again, just as Moses is attempting to teach us here in the book of Deuteronomy, the truth comes from Yehovah God's lips. There is no other truth. If it does not agree with the spoken word of Yehovah... then it is in direct opposition to Yehovah. (scrn 2 show)

Deu 12:32 “Everything that I command you, you shall be careful (shamar asah) to do. You shall not add to it or take from it.

And this is exactly why we are commanded in Deuteronomy chapter 12 to be careful! It is written... “You shall be careful”... “Shamar asah”! Shamar means to guard, to protect, to keep and observe and “asah” means to “do” or to “produce”.

And this is exactly the point that Moses is trying to make here in the book of Deuteronomy. Everything that Yehovah commands us we are to “shamar asah”... which means to protect, observe, and do. And if we are not protecting and observing and doing his spoken word, then we will fall short of the victory that we seek.

The Bible is not to be treated like some cheap novel that we read once a week. Listen closely to exactly what the greatest commandment is according to both our Father in heaven in the Old Testament and our very own Messiah in the New Testament... we can find that once again in the book of Deuteronomy chapter 6 (scrn 3)

Deu 6:4 “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

Deu 6:5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Deu 6:6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.

Deu 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

Deu 6:8 You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deu 6:9 You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

What is the most important thing in the life of a human being? It's not sports, it's not soap operas, it's not movie blockbusters, it's not videogames, it's not music videos, it is keeping the commandments of Yehovah God. Nothing else in our lives should supersede this. Nothing and I repeat... nothing!

Far too many professing Christians today treat their faith like a novelty trinket. They take it down off the shelf to show their friends when they feel like it and it serves them well, and then they put it back up on the shelf and forget they even have it until they want to show it off again.

Keeping the faith and true belief requires more than attending a Gentile country club church on the wrong day of the week calling it the Sabbath and attending a socialite potluck dinner in the afternoon!

False prophets who make God's people forget his name by their dreams that they tell one another are abundant today in our time. False prophets who make God's people forget his name by their dreams that they tell one another are still causing God's people to forget God's name. And when you forget God's name, you forget his mercy, you forget his grace, you forget his unfolding plan of salvation, you forget his authority, and you forget what you were created for and what your duty is. For it is written; (scrn 4)

Ecc 12:13 The end of the matter; all has been heard. Fear God and keep his commandments, for this is the whole duty of man.

Today in our time we have vanity filled willfully ignorant professing Christians who are walking around saying that they could never fear God because God is too loving. They could never fear God because God is love and love is God. Never understanding that it is written that the fear of God is the beginning of wisdom.

And I would submit to you my friends that if you do not fear God, then you do not know God. And that has been the case for many from the very beginning. Those who do not fear him, do not know him.

It is written that we are not given a spirit of fear other than... other than... the fear of God. He is all that we are to fear and the reason that we are to fear him is so that we will not lose our respect for who he is.

The United States aircraft carrier is one of the largest objects on the face of the earth that a man can stand next to and feel small. And I would contend that a United States aircraft carrier is nothing more than a molecule next to God. An amoeba, and Atom, a subatomic particle if you want to get into nanotechnology.

A healthy fear of God grows into a wise Christian. A healthy fear of God is what fertilizes our good works. A healthy fear of God fuels motivation. A healthy fear of God protects us from sin. A healthy fear of God reminds us of the duty of mankind.

And so, all of this encapsulates exactly what Moses is doing right here in the book of Deuteronomy at the end of his life. But there is something else here in the book of Deuteronomy chapter 1 that I feel compelled to once again harp upon. And that is found in Deuteronomy chapter 1 verse 28-33 E2

Deu 1:28 Where are we going up? Our brothers have made our hearts melt, saying, "The people are greater and taller than we. The cities are great and fortified up to heaven. And besides, we have seen the sons of the Anakim there."

Deu 1:29 Then I said to you, 'Do not be in dread or afraid of them.

Deu 1:30 The LORD your God who goes before you will himself fight for you, just as he did for you in Egypt before your eyes,

Deu 1:31 and in the wilderness, where you have seen how the LORD your God carried you, as a man carries his son, all the way that you went until you came to this place.'

Deu 1:32 Yet in spite of this word you did not believe the LORD your God,

Deu 1:33 who went before you in the way to seek you out a place to pitch your tents, in fire by night and in the cloud by day, to show you by what way you should go.

We simply cannot leave Deuteronomy chapter 1 without talking about the Giants that are clearly noted all throughout the Bible.

To be sure, there are many so-called Christian denominational empires who teach and preach against the giants in the Bible. To be sure, there are many who will do all that they can to distort the truth that the Bible reveals to us concerning these giants. But once again... no matter how hard they try, no one can change one crossing of a "t" or one dotting of and "i" of these God breathed Scriptures.

The Bible is not the only proof that we have that giants have walked upon the face of the earth. Both science and archaeology have proven beyond a shadow of a doubt that the giants of the Bible are indeed part and parcel of our human history. (scrn 5 show)

Biblical Giants are a fact of life according to not only the Bible itself but also science and archeology!

And I would encourage anyone and everyone to do their own homework considering these things. Because there are plenty of newspaper articles and archaeological digs where the bones of giants have indeed been found. And there are even more articles written throughout history confirming the existence of biblical giants that come directly from the native Indians of almost every continent on the earth.

And I don't want to get into a whole study concerning the giants that we see here in the Bible other than to say that these giants were clearly commanded by God to be destroyed.

The house of Israel at every turn was commanded not to be afraid of these giants but that God himself would go before the house of Israel to ensure their victory in battle against these biblical giants. Why?

Because these giants were indeed an infiltration of the human bloodline. It was commanded that these giants should be destroyed because of the fallen angels that the serpent had brought down with him and had infiltrated the bloodline of humankind and created these abominations through the manipulation of God's creation. (scrn 6)

Gen 6:1 When man began to multiply on the face of the land and daughters were born to them,

Gen 6:2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of man were attractive. And they took as their wives any they chose.

Jud 1:6 And the angels who did not stay within their own position of authority, but left their proper dwelling, he has kept in eternal chains under gloomy darkness until the judgment of the great day—

Jud 1:7 just as Sodom and Gomorrah and the surrounding cities, which likewise indulged in sexual immorality and pursued unnatural desire, serve as an example by undergoing a punishment of eternal fire.

It is clearly written that the sons of God saw the daughters of man were attractive and took as their wives any that they chose. Essentially what this means is that these angels who are the exact same sons of God's that we see written about in the 38th chapter of the book of Job had mixed themselves with human women according to the Bible. (scrn 7)

Job 38:4 “Where were you when I laid the foundation of the earth? Tell me, if you have understanding.

Job 38:5 Who determined its measurements—surely you know!
Or who stretched the line upon it?

Job 38:6 On what were its bases sunk, or who laid its cornerstone,

Job 38:7 when the morning stars sang together and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

These are the sons of God who saw that the daughters of men were attractive and took as wives any that they chose.

When Genesis chapter 6 verse two tells us that they took as wives any that they chose, this means that the sons of God had had somehow mixed their seed with the daughters of mankind.

We must remember that there was no marriage ceremony in the Torah. The marriage ceremony in the Torah was simply a man consummating his relationship with a woman sexually. And this is what made a woman a man’s wife in the beginning.

The newfound tradition of marriage and what the rabbis call the “ketubah” is nothing more than a tradition created by men much later on in history. But in the beginning, it was not this way. In the beginning, when a man took a wife, they simply went into a tent and consummated the marriage and it was just that simple.

And therefore, when we are told in Genesis chapter 6 that these sons of God's who saw that the daughters of men were attractive took as their wives any that they chose, what we are being told is that these sons of God... these fallen angels had taken it upon themselves to somehow mingle themselves physically with these women who then conceived and bore giants into the world.

And these giants according to our Father in heaven were to be destroyed by the house of Israel along with any remnant of them including but not limited to women and children and even the beasts and livestock's that belonged to them.

And once again, there is a whole teaching on this particular subject that we could get into but for time's sake, I will hand that off to you to do as your homework for now, because I would like to finish our study into Deuteronomy chapter 1 yet here this evening.

But once again before we close out our study into the first chapter of the book of Deuteronomy, I would be remiss if I did not once again point to the penalty for rebellion against our Father in heaven.

Deuteronomy chapter 1 verses 34 through 46 talks about the penalty for Israel's rebellion. And why it was that Moses wanted to remind the house of Israel about their rebellion against God. Think about that for just a moment.

I would like us to also think about why we today should think about the penalty of Israel's rebellion.

What's so important about the penalty of Israel's rebellion that we should be reminded of it today in our time?

Once again, just as we made note of during our study last week... there were only two people out of all of the people who were rescued out of Egypt that were allowed to enter into the promised land.

Caleb and Jephunneh were the only two Israelites from that generation that were allowed to enter into the promised land of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Why?

Because the rest of the house of Israel had rebelled against Yehovah. How do you rebel against Yehvoah? By not keeping his commandments. That in God's eyes is seen as rebellion.

Millions of people died in the desert because of their rebellion against Yehovah. That whole generation of Israelites was made to wander in the desert until they were dead because of their rebellion against Yehovah.

Caleb and Jephunneh were the only two human beings that stood by Yehovah God and were willing to go in and fight against these giants and take the land that God was giving them. Everyone else cowered in their boots. Everyone else hid under their beds. Everyone else shrunk back in the face of adversity.

My friends, when I tell you that God hates a coward, you can be rest assured that this is a true biblical concept. And I repeat... God hates a coward.

I cannot tell you how many people have told me that they are Christians, but they are not teachers. I cannot tell you how many people have told me that they are Christians and that they believe... but they cannot speak the truth to their friends and their families.

And I can also not tell you how many people that there are today who are simply afraid to speak the name Yeshua in front of people. I cannot tell you how many people today are afraid to speak the name Yehovah in public today. I cannot tell you how many people are stricken with fear because of their own vanity and their own covetousness and will not share what they know to be true for fear of being ridiculed or mocked.

My friends, if our Father in heaven cut off a whole generation of Israelites for not believing in him enough to go take the land that he was giving them... how do you think he feels about someone today who professes to be a Christian... and yet will not stand for the truth of his word?

How many modern-day professing Christians today are so gripped with fear that they will not enter into a conversation about whether or not the murder of a child in its mother's womb is right in the eyes of God?

You know, in my earlier life I used to be a salesman. And the old salesman's motto used to be that there were two things that you simply did not talk about. One was sports... and the other one was religion. And the reason that you didn't speak about sports or religion is because you might wind up offending someone and losing the sale. Which is just one of the many reasons why I failed miserably at being a salesman.

But the point I'm trying to make is that this has become taboo within our culture and our society today. Even though it is written that in order to receive the gift of salvation we must all be on the same team, we must all become one.

Before we close out the first chapter of the book of Deuteronomy, I want to leave you with a thought in your heart. And that thought is this... the only thing that our Father in heaven has ever told us to fear is he himself. It is written, fear not what man can do to the body but what God can do to both body and soul by casting them into the pit.

And therefore, we can clearly see here in the Torah that the rejection of God's word is seen as rebellion. The rejection of God's commandment is seen in God's eyes as rebellion. And if Yehovah God sees rebellion in us... we should be wise enough to know that he is not going to be pleased. (scrn 8)

Heb 10:37 For, “Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay;

Heb 10:38 but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.”

Heb 10:39 But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls.

My friends, put it in your heart not to be afraid. Put it in your heart not to be afraid to speak of him. Put it in your heart not to be afraid to stand for him. Put in your heart not to be afraid to have a conversation about him. And once again there is no better Scripture to close our study today with than the greatest commandment according to both our Father and our King... Deuteronomy chapter 6 verses four through nine (scrn 9)

Deu 6:4 “Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

Deu 6:5 You shall love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Deu 6:6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.

Deu 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise.

Deu 6:8 You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deu 6:9 You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

And with that thought... we will close out our study into the first chapter of the book of Deuteronomy and move on to Deuteronomy chapter 2 next Wednesday evening at 7 PM Eastern standard Time.

But until then I will once again ask that everyone within the sound of my voice would please take what you have heard here today to your own prayer closet. Bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here today be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone so that the proper door can be opened to you. And if you will do that, and if you will stay the course to the end, you and I will surely walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom together.
