Exodus 34E and 35 The Building Begins

As we move through the last part of Exodus chapter 34, we will begin very rapidly to close up the book of Exodus by going through the last few chapters rather quickly because most of what we are going to see in these last few chapters of the book of Exodus is the actual building, and the construction of the wilderness tabernacle.

Because we have studied the instructions for building the wilderness tabernacle over the past few months, we won't have to repeat everything that the wilderness tabernacle represented because we have already taught those things over the last few months. With that being said, I would like to point out a few things before we close out Exodus chapter 34.

One of the first and foremost things that I'd like to point out is that Yah's appointed times, which include his seven biblical feast days were somewhat identical to pagan holidays in the pagan world. We must remember that the God of this world was an angelic Cherub whose wings used to cover the throne of God. The fallen Angel Lucifer, (also known as HaSatan) knew our Father in heaven very well, and there was even a time according to the book of Job that the devil himself and Yahovah would often times converse and have conversations between each other. The devil would roam the earth, and walk back and forth upon it to see whom it was that he could accuse in front of the Father. And so, it should be of no surprise to us that the pagan world was mimicking many of our Father's appointments and precepts. We must remember that the devil loves to dress himself up like an Angel of light and mimic much of what our Father in heaven is doing, while at the same time twisting things to his own advantage. However, according to our Father in heaven, the way... and the day... and the reason for celebrating our Fathers set apart feast days and festivals and appointments was never to be done in the same way that the pagans celebrated their feast days and their festivals.

According to our Father in heaven, it is an abomination to add pagan elements, and pagan traditions to his pure mode of worship that has been authorized by him and him alone. We as true God-fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing Christians are warned time, and time, and time again not to adopt these pagan holidays, or their traditions. And just to verify this through the Scripture in at least one place, I'd like us to reread Deuteronomy 12:28-32 (scrn 1)

Deu 12:28 Be careful to obey all these words that I command you, that it may go well with you and with your children after you forever, when you do what is good and right in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deu 12:29 “When the LORD your God cuts off before you the nations whom you go in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,

Deu 12:30 take care that you be not ensnared to follow them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire about their gods, saying, ‘How did these nations serve their gods?—that I also may do the same.’

Deu 12:31 You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way, for every abominable thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods, for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deu 12:32 “Everything that I command you, you shall be careful to do. You shall not add to it or take from it.

Once again, we are clearly commanded not to worship our Father in heaven like the pagans worshiped their gods. We are not to worship our father in heaven the way we want to worship him... we are to worship him the way that he wants to be worshiped. We are commanded very specifically not to worship the Lord our God in that way. And we are also told that we are to be careful to do as he has commanded us. And I would submit to you my friends that the world has not been careful to do as he has commanded us. Here, in our God breathed Scripture we are told not to add to his word or to take from his word. But I would submit to you my friends that adding to our Fathers word, and taking away from it has historically been a Roman Catholic tradition, and pastime.

The Roman Catholic church for generations has added too, and taken away from our Fathers word repeatedly. And not only have they added to, and taken away from our Fathers word, they have mixed and mingled pagan celebrations with our Fathers appointments and his feast days. And what makes things even worse... is that this man-made religion called Catholicism... has been adopted by today's protestant churches as their own religion.

Today's protestant churches protest against nothing. They are indeed the daughters of Catholicism while proclaiming not to be Catholic. Today's protestant churches have made the first day the week Sunday Sabbath which was created by Catholicism as their own Sabbath. They have adopted the Roman Catholic Good Friday, and completely thrown away Passover day which is the actual anniversary of the death of our Messiah according to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. They have adopted the Roman Catholic advent, and the Roman Catholic Easter, and the Roman Catholic Valentine's day, and even the Roman Catholic Halloween (which is also known as "All Saints Day" when Roman Catholics blatantly disobey our Father in heaven by praying to dead).

One of the most blatant, and blasphemous holidays that today's modern-day Christians keep is indeed a Halloween. Many ignorant and unstudied Christians have willfully and intentionally changed the name of the Catholic created Festival of Halloween to, "Fall Festival", or "Harvest Festival" in order to make themselves feel good about lying to their children and dressing them up as the walking dead. Churches today even in our area will now openly celebrate the Festival of Halloween by holding a "Trunk or Treat" in the parking lots of their local churches where they will fill the trunks of their cars with candy, dress the children up like the walking dead, or fairies or Harry Potter characters like witches and warlocks, and think somehow in their small minds that they are honoring God.

My friends the god of this world has sifted today's Christians and has them sitting in their own jail cells with the doors wide open. The devil knows that he doesn't even have to lock the jail cell door, because today's Christian is so comfortable sitting in their own sin, that he knows that they'll never leave those jail cells. But I would submit to you my friends that the day is soon coming when those jail cell doors are going to slam shut, and that long black train is going to start moving down the tracks. When our Messiah splits that sky, and he returns not to deal with sin... but to deal with the sin-ner... the offer of his free salvation is going to be taken off of the table, and for those who have lived their lives in rejection of him... the second death is sure to come.

As we have read through Exodus chapter 34, we have seen our Father in heaven once again establish his seventh day Sabbath along with his feast days. And I want to once again point out that our Father in heaven continuously calls his seventh day Sabbath his "seventh day... Sabbath". He does not call his seventh day Sabbath his first day Sabbath. Nowhere within the confines of the 66 books of our Bibles does our Father, or his Son, or the prophets, or the apostles, or anyone, ever, call our Father's seventh day Sabbath a first day of the week Sabbath. You simply will not ever find a commandment to support a first day of the week Sunday Sabbath anywhere within the confines of the 66 books of your Bible. And yet... once again... what does modern day Christianity teach and preach? They teach and preach the Roman Catholic pagan first day of the week Sunday Sabbath. Today's modern-day Christian denominational charters of men will blatantly, willfully, and intentionally lie to their congregations in order to hide the true seventh day Sabbath of our Father in heaven from them... a day that our Father in heaven told us would be a sign between him and us... the very day that our Father in heaven commanded us to keep... setting us apart as his set apart people.

Once again my friends, today's protestant churches protest against nothing. The hook has been set in the jaws of today's modern-day denominational charters of men by the beast who has created his own version of Christianity, and installed it through the man-made religion... of Roman Catholicism. And it is indeed the plague of Roman Catholicism that today's protestant churches are infected with.

Here in Exodus chapter 34 verse 23, we are told that three times in the year all the males of the house of Israel were to appear before Yahovah God, the God of Israel. And this exact same commandment is found again in more detail in Deuteronomy 16:16 (scrn 2)

Deu 16:16 “Three times a year all your males shall appear before the LORD your God at the place that he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, at the Feast of Weeks, and at the Feast of Booths. They shall not appear before the LORD empty-handed.

Deu 16:17 Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the LORD your God that he has given you.

One of the three times of the year that all the males of the house of Israel were to come before Yahovah is “The Feast of Weeks”, which is often times called “Pentecost” by today’s modern day Christian denominational charters. But this Feast of Weeks (also called Pentecost) has a very specific meaning here in the Torah. There is a very specific reason that our Father in heaven wanted all the males of Israel to come before him on The Feast of Weeks. And this is once again something that today’s modern-day Christian is completely ignorant of because they have been preprogrammed by their denominational charters not to read the beginning of the book.

Those of us who have read the book from the beginning already understand that our Messiah died on Passover day according to Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. Our Messiah is our Passover Lamb. Those of us who have read the book from the beginning already understand that our Messiah is the bread of life who was unleavened, and without sin. Those of us who have read the book from the beginning already understand that our Messiah was raised up on “first fruits” to waive the sheave offering before his Father signaling the new incoming harvest of mankind. Those of us who have read the book from the beginning already understand that the Passover, and the Feast of Unleavened Bread, and Firstfruits all point to our beloved Messiah. But today’s modern-day ignorant and unstudied Christian, who sits in a denominational church pew for 45 minutes on the wrong day of the week calling it the Sabbath, listening to some guy that they hardly know preach out of the back of the book, while programming them not to read the first half of the book, are willfully and intentionally following after the devil’s counterfeit Christian religion called “Catholicism”.

Let there be no mistake about it my friends, today's protestant churches protest against nothing and are in fact teaching and preaching a false religion... a counterfeit religion... a religion created by the beast himself full of Paganry and the traditions of pagan people. Today's protestant churches have willfully and intentionally added too, and taken away from our Fathers word. And they have no idea what the implications of the feast of weeks (that they call Pentecost) even are, or why it was established in the first place.

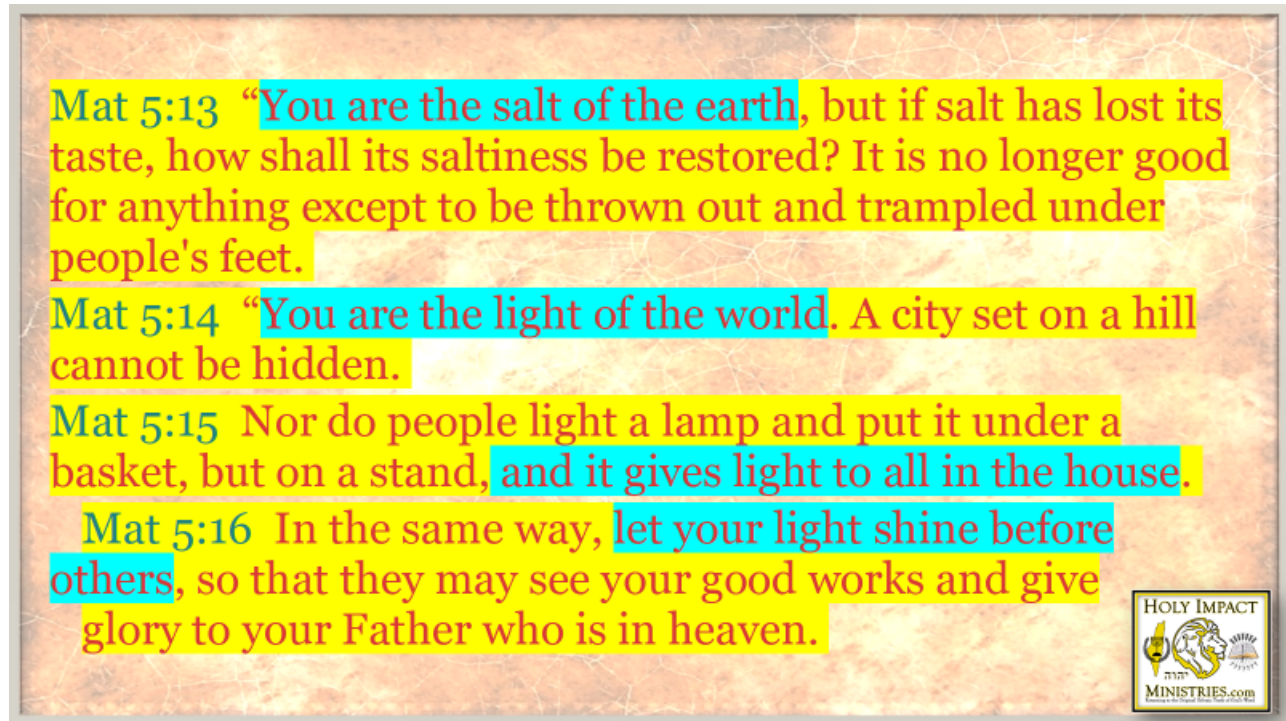

In the minds of today's modern-day professing Christian, and their modern-day denominational charters of men, they believe that what they call "Pentecost" is all about Yah's Holy Spirit being given to man. But they have no idea what the function of the Holy Spirit even is. And they think in their small minds that being given the Holy Spirit means that they will speak in tongues, or that they are once saved always saved, or that their salvation has been sealed... none of which is true.

The giving of the Holy Spirit, (the Ruach Hokadesh) is all about having the law of Yah written in our hearts and in our minds according to both the Old Testament and the New Testament. And you can once again find that in Jeremiah chapter 31 verses 31 through 33 in the Old Testament, and again in the New Testament in the book of Hebrews chapter 10 verses 15 through 17. But once again my friends, our ignorant and unstudied would be brothers and sisters who sit in today's denominational charters practicing Catholicism while proclaiming not to be Catholic... have no idea of these things because they have been preprogrammed not to read the first half of the Bible because it's nothing but blank white pages as far as they are concerned. Once again, another demonic lie that is being perpetuated by wolves in sheep's clothing standing behind the modern-day pulpits of churchianity today.

And this is the battle that we face as true God-fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing Christians. People love the church that their grandparents went to. People love the church that is closest to where they live. People love the church where all of their friends go to. People love the church that has become their country club. But what does the Bible say? The Bible says to be careful to do what our Father in heaven has told us to do. Our Messiah tells us that he who loves mother or father more than him, is not worthy of him. And he who loves son or daughter more than him is not worthy of him.

The work that we are tasked with today as true God-fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing Christians, is a work that drags the lies of today's denominational charters out into the antiseptic of daylight. The work that we are tasked with today, is reaching our would-be brothers and sisters who are now sitting in the darkness of a false religion created by the beast himself with the light of truth that can be verified through our God breathed Scripture. We have what they do not have. We have read the whole book... and not just half of it. We have been given the discernment to understand. We have been blessed by our Messiah with the hope of salvation, and just as it is written... we are indeed to be a light on a hill. We are to be the salt of the earth, not says I, but says the very red-letter words of our own Messiah. Matthew 5:13-16

(scrn 3)

Again, our Messiah mentions our good works. Works that are clearly... not dead, works that are not done away with, works that show our love for him. Works that show our love for his Father who is in heaven and the commandment that he has given.

The Feast of Weeks (also known as Pentecost) is also known as Shavuot which is the day that Moses came down from mount Sinai to give the house of Israel the testimony that he had written on the two tablets of stone so that... the house of Israel would believe Moses forever.

Exodus 19:9 (scrn 4)

Exo 19:9 And the LORD said to Moses, “Behold, I am coming to you in a thick cloud, that the people may hear when I speak with you, and may also believe you forever.”

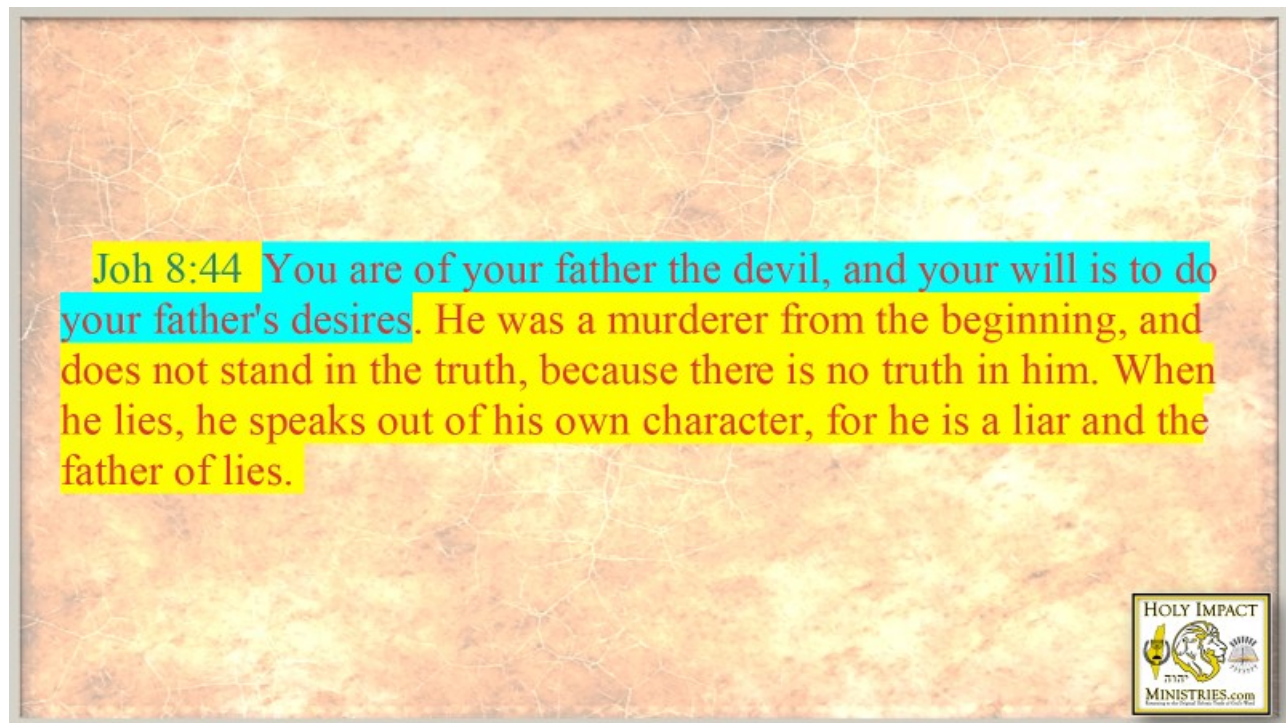

Once again my friends, we are to believe Moses forever because of the testimony that our Father wrote on those two tablets of stone. What our Father in heaven wrote on those two tablets of stone is not a separate law for the Gentiles. What our Father in heaven wrote on those two tablets of stone are a testimony given by Yahovah himself so that... the children of Israel could verify that what Moses was telling them was true and correct, and so that... they could believe Moses and I quote... “forever”. Not says I, but says our God breathed Scripture. Not says some huckster in a video, not says some huckster standing behind a pulpit, not says some early church father, not says some Bible commentator, not says some denominational charter of men... but says our God breathed Scripture. Do not let them lie to you and to your children my friends.

Everything that Moses ever told us came directly from Yahovah the creator of the heavens and the earth. Moses did not make up his own law, Moses did not make up his own feast days, Moses did not make up his own sabbaths, and while we’re on this very subject... don’t you think it odd... that this is exactly the same thing that today’s modern-day Christian is trying to teach about our Messiah who is likened unto Moses in Deuteronomy chapter 18?

Even today in our time, they are trying to tell us that our Messiah came to make up his own law. They are trying to teach us that our Messiah came to make up his own feast days and festivals. They are trying to teach us that our Messiah came to celebrate his own birthday, and to create his own Sabbath. And this is exactly what they are trying to teach about Moses! Because they know that if they can destroy the law of Moses which was given to him by Yah himself... if they can discredit Moses... if they can take away the authority of Moses... they can also destroy the gospel message of our Messiah who came to teach and preach his Father’s word, which is the same word that he gave to Moses. My friends our adversary is indeed the father of confusion. He is the father of all lies because he has lied from the beginning. Listen to what our Messiah told the Babylonian Rabbis of his time. John 8:44 (scrn 5)

The very reason that there were thousands of people in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost, is because they were commanded to be in Jerusalem on that particular day which was also known as "The Feast of Weeks" and "Shavuot". And it was for this very reason that it is written in Acts chapter 2 verse 41, that about 3000 souls received his word and were baptized, and were added to the house of Israel that very day. It was on this very day that the laws of Yahovah were written in their hearts and in their minds through the giving of the Ruach Hokadesh of Yahovah.

Most modern-day professing Christians today, who belong to any one of thousands of today's denominational charters have no concept of what the New Covenant even is. The only way that we can know what the New Covenant is... is to go back into the Old Testament in Jeremiah chapter 31 and read about what the New Covenant is, and what it stands for, and what its implications are. But today's modern-day professing Christian has been wrongfully, and shamefully preprogrammed not to read the first half of the book because it's all been nailed to a tree... which is just another lie that you will not find within the confines of the 66 books of your Bible.

The apostle Paul never taught that the law was nailed to a cross or a tree so that we wouldn't have to be bothered with it. The apostle Paul taught that the penalty of the law is what was moved out of the way so that we could be reconciled back to our Father... it was not our Father's law that was nailed to a tree, or moved out of the way, it was the penalty of the law that was moved out of the way so that we could return to him. And even our Messiah tells us in his own red letter words that not the crossing of a "t" or the dotting of an "I" would pass from his Father's law until heaven and earth both pass away, and all things are accomplished which does not happen until the end of the age clear at the back of the book in the 21st chapter of Revelation.

And so it is, here in Exodus chapter 34 that Yah commands the house of Israel to appear before him three times a year. And of course, the wilderness tabernacle moved through the desert and was placed in Shiloh for a period of time, and then finally in Jerusalem. During the time of the Exodus, Jerusalem was a small city built and ruled by the Jebusites. It would be King David who would eventually capture the city, change its name to Jerusalem, and make it part of Israel.

Something else that I would like us to consider is the difference between Pentecost and Babel. At the tower of Babel when people were rebelling against Yah, they all spoke a single universal language. And because the people were rebelling against Yah, he confused their languages so that they could no longer communicate and understand one another. In other words, in order to stop their lawlessness, he confused their languages. But here, on Shavuot (also known as Pentecost) on the day that he gives his Ruach Hokadesh in order to write his law in the hearts and in the minds of his people, Yah gives the apostles the ability to speak in other languages so that they can communicate, and so that they could share the truth of his word.

Once again my friends, there is a stark difference between spreading lawlessness amongst Yah's people, and giving Yah's law to them. And those who are spreading lawlessness amongst Yah's people are treated much differently than those who are giving Yah's law to Yah's people. And for those of you who still believe the lie that the apostle Paul did away with the law, I would like to remind you of what was said by the apostle Paul and James and the elders at Jerusalem. Romans 3:31 (scrn 6)

Rom 3:31 Do we then overthrow the law by this faith? By no means! On the contrary, we uphold the law.

Act 21:23 Do therefore what we tell you. We have four men who are under a vow;

Act 21:24 take these men and purify yourself along with them and pay their expenses, so that they may shave their heads. Thus all will know that there is nothing in what they have been told about you, but that you yourself also live in observance of the law.

Something else that I would like to mention is found in verse 26 of a Genesis chapter 34, where we are commanded not to boil a young goat in its mother's milk. The milk is meant to give life to the young goat, not to take life from the young goat. This was once again a pagan Canaanite ritual that was forbidden by Yahovah. Once again my friends, we are not to mix pagan rituals with Yah's commandments. Something that today's modern-day version of Christendom would do well to remember.

And before we close out Exodus chapter 34, I would like to also remind us that Moses face shone when he came down from the mountain after being with Yah for another 40 days. We must remember that Moses was on Mount Sinai with Yah for a total of 80 days without food or water. The first time he went up, he received the original two stones of the testimony from Yahovah but then broke them at the foot of mount Sinai when he saw the house of Israel worshipping a Golden calf. And so, Moses had to return to the summit of Mount Sinai to once again get another copy of the two stones of the testimony to bring back down to the house of Israel. So, Moses was once again in the presence of Yahovah for a total of 80 days on the summit of Mount Sinai.

Some ignorant and unstudied professing Christians will from time to time proclaim that Moses had horns on his head because the original Hebrew word for "shone" is the Hebrew word "qaran", and it means "to shine, to send out rays," or... It can also mean "to display or to grow horns". And so, this Hebrew word "qaran" has more than one meaning just as many Hebrew words have more than one meaning. However, we know that Moses did not grow horns on his head, because we are told that Moses used a veil to cover his face, not a hat to cover his head. And we also have examples of what happens to someone when they are standing in the presence of Yahovah. We can see this exact same thing happening to our Messiah who was standing in the presence of his Father during the Transfiguration found in Matthew chapter 17:1-2; (scrn 7)

Mat 17:1 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James, and John his brother, and led them up a high mountain by themselves.

Mat 17:2 And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became white as light.

Notice here in Matthew chapter 17 verse two, that our Messiah's face and I quote... "shone like the sun". He did not grow horns. This is exactly why Moses face shone like the sun, and this is exactly why Moses covered his face with a veil, because it frightened the Israelites when they first saw it. There is nothing that can be found contextually in the book of Exodus about Moses having horns on his head. This once again has been perpetuated by Catholicism. (scrn 8)

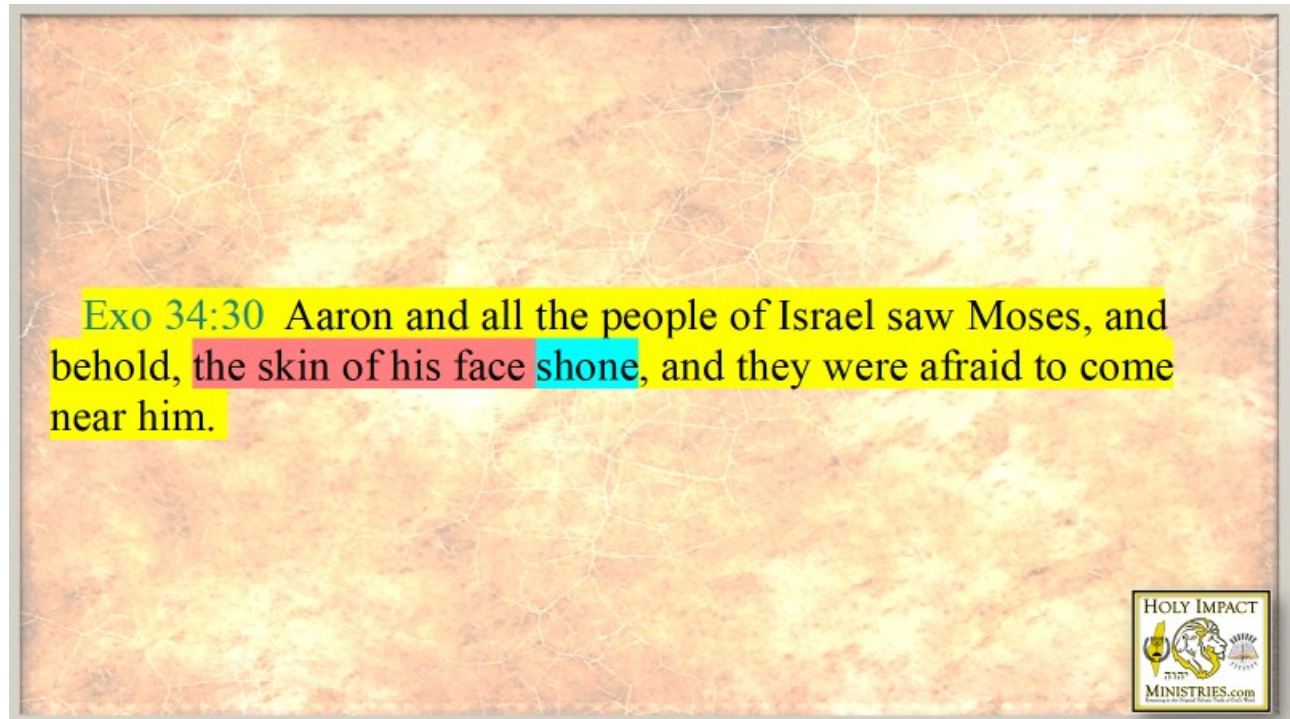

Moses (Italian: Mosè [mo'ze]; c. 1513–1515) is a sculpture by the Italian High Renaissance artist Michelangelo Buonarroti, housed in the church of San Pietro in Vincoli in Rome. Commissioned in 1505 by Pope Julius II for his tomb, it depicts the biblical figure Moses with horns on his head, based on a description in chapter 34 of Exodus in the Vulgate, the Latin translation of the Bible used at that time.

The depiction of a horned Moses stems from the description of Moses' face as "cornuta" ("horned") in the Latin Vulgate translation of the passage found at Exodus chapter 34, specifically verses 29, 30 and 35, in which Moses returns to the people after receiving the commandments for the second time.

The Septuigent uses "glorified", which is older than the KJV.

Back in about 1505, a sculpture was created by an Italian Renaissance artist by the name of Michelangelo, who was commissioned in 1505 by Pope Julius the second to create this sculpture of Moses for his tomb. The Latin Vulgate at that time mistranslated Exodus chapter 34, and used the word “horns” instead of the word “shone”. In the Septuagint which is much older than then even the King James version itself, it uses the word “glorified”. But the proper English word is actually what we see in the English Standard Version which is once again “shone”. Exodus 34:30; (scrn 9)

And we have spoken about this in some detail earlier on but I wanted to make mention of the truth again here because just this week someone had sent me a video about someone teaching about the horns of Moses. Once again my friends, there are all kinds of wolves in sheep's clothing in the world today who are trying to find something shiny and new to make themselves seem like they know something that no one else knows. The devil loves to dress himself up like an Angel of light and so do his ministers. Once again Moses having horns comes from another teaching that has been brought to us complements of... Roman Catholicism.

And now that we have come to the end of Exodus chapter 34, let's begin by reading Exodus chapter 35 so that we can know exactly what it says, and just as importantly... what it does not say. Exodus chapter 35 E1

Exo 35:1 Moses assembled all the congregation of the people of Israel and said to them, "These are the things that the LORD has commanded you to do.

Exo 35:2 Six days work shall be done, but on the seventh day you shall have a Sabbath of solemn rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it shall be put to death.

Exo 35:3 You shall kindle no fire in all your dwelling places on the Sabbath day.”

Exo 35:4 Moses said to all the congregation of the people of Israel, “This is the thing that the LORD has commanded.

Exo 35:5 Take from among you a contribution to the LORD. Whoever is of a generous heart, let him bring the LORD's contribution: gold, silver, and bronze;

Exo 35:6 blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen; goats' hair,

Exo 35:7 tanned rams' skins, and goatskins; acacia wood,

Exo 35:8 oil for the light, spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense,

Exo 35:9 and onyx stones and stones for setting, for the ephod and for the breastpiece.

Exo 35:10 “Let every skillful craftsman among you come and make all that the LORD has commanded:

Exo 35:11 the tabernacle, its tent and its covering, its hooks and its frames, its bars, its pillars, and its bases;

Exo 35:12 the ark with its poles, the mercy seat, and the veil of the screen;

Exo 35:13 the table with its poles and all its utensils, and the bread of the Presence;

Exo 35:14 the lampstand also for the light, with its utensils and its lamps, and the oil for the light;

Exo 35:15 and the altar of incense, with its poles, and the anointing oil and the fragrant incense, and the screen for the door, at the door of the tabernacle;

Exo 35:16 the altar of burnt offering, with its grating of bronze, its poles, and all its utensils, the basin and its stand;

Exo 35:17 the hangings of the court, its pillars and its bases, and the screen for the gate of the court;

Exo 35:18 the pegs of the tabernacle and the pegs of the court, and their cords;

Exo 35:19 the finely worked garments for ministering in the Holy Place, the holy garments for Aaron the priest, and the garments of his sons, for their service as priests.”

Exo 35:20 Then all the congregation of the people of Israel departed from the presence of Moses.

Exo 35:21 And they came, everyone whose heart stirred him, and everyone whose spirit moved him, and brought the LORD's contribution to be used for the tent of meeting, and for all its service, and for the holy garments.

Exo 35:22 So they came, both men and women. All who were of a willing heart brought brooches and earrings and signet rings and armlets, all sorts of gold objects, every man dedicating an offering of gold to the LORD.

Exo 35:23 And every one who possessed blue or purple or scarlet yarns or fine linen or goats' hair or tanned rams' skins or goatskins brought them.

Exo 35:24 Everyone who could make a contribution of silver or bronze brought it as the LORD's contribution. And every one who possessed acacia wood of any use in the work brought it.

Exo 35:25 And every skillful woman spun with her hands, and they all brought what they had spun in blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen.

Exo 35:26 All the women whose hearts stirred them to use their skill spun the goats' hair.

Exo 35:27 And the leaders brought onyx stones and stones to be set, for the ephod and for the breastpiece,

Exo 35:28 and spices and oil for the light, and for the anointing oil, and for the fragrant incense.

Exo 35:29 All the men and women, the people of Israel, whose heart moved them to bring anything for the work that the LORD had commanded by Moses to be done brought it as a freewill offering to the LORD.

Exo 35:30 Then Moses said to the people of Israel, "See, the LORD has called by name Bezalel the son of Uri, son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah;

Exo 35:31 and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, with intelligence, with knowledge, and with all craftsmanship,

Exo 35:32 to devise artistic designs, to work in gold and silver and bronze,

Exo 35:33 in cutting stones for setting, and in carving wood, for work in every skilled craft.

Exo 35:34 And he has inspired him to teach, both him and Oholiab the son of Ahisamach of the tribe of Dan.

Exo 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do every sort of work done by an engraver or by a designer or by an embroiderer in blue and purple and scarlet yarns and fine twined linen, or by a weaver—by any sort of workman or skilled designer.

Much of what we see here in Exodus chapter 35 are exactly what we saw in the instructions that were given to Moses while he was on mount Sinai speaking with Yahovah, and so we have already taught the meaning of many of these things, and how, and why it is that these things point directly to our Messiah, and so we will not go back over and reteach all of these things all over again. And so, if you are new to this teaching, and have come in in the middle of this teaching today, I would like to encourage you to go back into our archives at HolyImpactMinistries.com and view our previous teachings on Exodus chapter 34 so that you don't miss the importance of the construction of this wilderness tabernacle, and what it points to, and why Yahovah commanded Moses to build it. You can also find our free downloadable PDF files there so that you can test these things through the fire of prayer.

With that being said there are a few things that I'd like to mention here in Exodus chapter 35 very quickly. Here in Exodus chapter 35 we are no longer reading the instructions about how to construct the wilderness tabernacle; we are actually seeing the actual construction of the wilderness tabernacle. And the very first thing that we see in Exodus chapter 35 verse one before the construction of the wilderness tabernacle... is the commandment to once again keep Yahovah's seventh day Sabbath. And I want us to catch this because this is extremely important. We are told in Exodus chapter 12 that this seventh day Sabbath is a sign between us and Yahovah. It's a sign between us and him. It marks us as a set apart people. As his set apart people. It is once again a line that he has drawn in the sand that separates us from them.

And I also want us to notice that it is once again commanded to be kept on the seventh day as it always is. Not the first day of the week, but the seventh day of the week. Once again, no one has ever commanded anyone to keep a first day of the week Sunday anywhere within the confines of your Bible. The seventh day Sabbath is the only Sabbath that has ever been commanded for us to keep weekly every seventh day.

And I also want us to notice that there is nothing in this commandment concerning a lunar Sabbath. Yah does not commanded anyone to keep his seventh day Sabbath according to the moon. His seventh day Sabbath is to be kept on the seventh day, and he proclaims it over, and over, and over again along with all the rest of his appointments and feast days. Let there be no mistake about it my friends, our Father's seventh day Sabbath is indeed on the seventh day Sabbath. And yes... man has re-created for himself many different calendars. But all of these different calendars have to do with how many days that there are in a year, or how many days that there are in a month. None of these new man-made calendars have anything to do with how many days are in a week. The seven-day cycle of the week has never been changed at any time. Our Messiah knew which day the seventh day Sabbath was, and he always kept the seventh day Sabbath along with the Jews of his time, and he never corrected them, or told them that they were keeping the seventh day Sabbath on the wrong day. And therefore, those who teach and preach against the seventh day Sabbath are indeed once again teaching and preaching against our Messiah.

And so, with that being said, I do not want any of our brothers and sisters to be sucked into the vacuum of Catholicism, or a lunar Sabbath, or any of the other trash talk that is out there in the world today. The seventh day Sabbath remains the seventh day Sabbath, and it is indeed a sign between him and us. This seventh day Sabbath is exactly what separates us from the world and identifies us as his set apart people.

Something else that I want to mention concerning the seventh day Sabbath is what we find in Exodus chapter 35 verse three, where we are told that we shall not kindle a fire in our dwelling places on the Sabbath day.

Once again, it's important for us to understand the laws and the commandments of Yahovah, and why he commanded these things so that we can be obedient to them properly. Back in those days, during the days of Moses fire was used for work. E1

As we can see in Exodus chapter 35 verse two, work is mentioned twice during the commandment to keep the seventh day Sabbath. Keeping this seventh day Sabbath has everything to do with work, and so did fire at that time. Back in the days of Moses fire was needed for most types of work. Cooking and the forming of metal, and for creating dies for cloth, and for baking earthenware and pots and pottery, and a wide range of crafts. And so, Yah was simply reminding the house of Israel not to kindle a fire in their dwelling place on the Sabbath day... for work. And this is extremely important to understand because this goes hand-in-hand with properly understanding the law of God.

Many of the things that we see concerning the law of God cannot be done today in our time as it was done during the days of Moses because we do not have a physical earthly temple, and we do not have an earthly High Priest to take these things to. The Levites, the earthly temple where many of these laws were executed, and the judicial system that was put forth by our Father in heaven can no longer be kept today in our time the way it was during the days of Moses when a mediator between God and man walked among men.

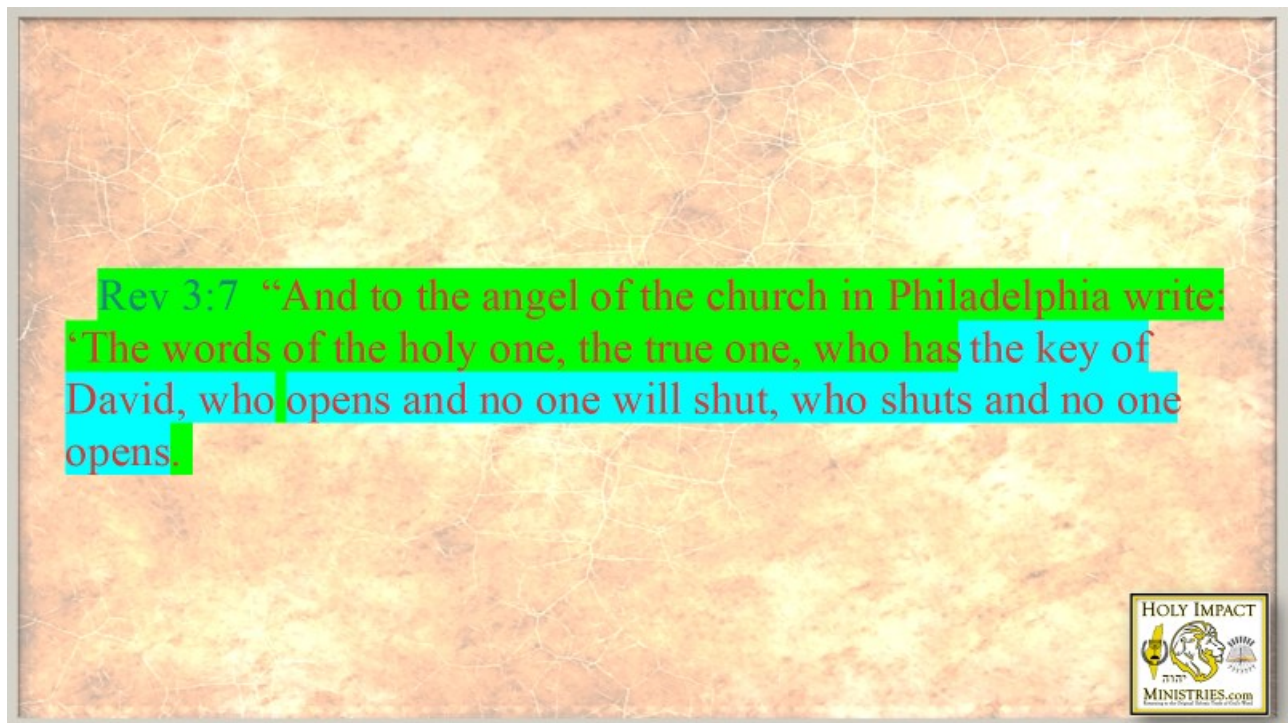

Even Sukkot (also known as the feast of Tabernacles) cannot truly be kept properly according to the law in our time because we do not have an earthly tabernacle, or temple where Yahovah has put his name. We... for now... are Yah's temple. For now... he dwells within us. And so, when we meet for Sukkot, we meet together as his people to celebrate before him the way that he commanded us to to the best of our ability. We know that our Father in heaven has put his name in Jerusalem, but because of the restrictions of this world, and because of the sin of man, we no longer have a temple in Jerusalem where we can go to celebrate before him. He no longer resides in a physical temple here on earth. Therefore, we remember his commandment to the best of our ability in order to show our love for him because we know that he will again very soon return to once again tabernacle with us.

And the exact same thing happens on Passover day. When most of the Jews believe that they need to go slaughter a Passover lamb, we who know who our Messiah is... know that we are not required to slaughter a Passover lamb because our Passover Lamb has already been slaughtered. Our Passover lamb is our Messiah, who has already paid our debt once and for all. The communion service that we take on Passover day in remembrance of his death represents his blood in the wine, and his body in the bread. By doing this we are actually partaking of the Passover Lamb. It reminds us that he is indeed our Passover Lamb who was unleavened and without sin. And so once again, I want to just remind us all that keeping the laws, and the commandments, and the precepts, and the appointments of our Father in heaven require us to study and to understand his laws, and his commandments, and his precepts, and his appointments. They are not just words on parchment. They are living breathing words that need to be discerned. We must have the proper understanding, and the discernment that can only come from him, and him alone in order to keep his commandments properly. Which is something that the Babylonian Rabbis of our Messiah's time could not understand, and even the Jews today who reject their Messiah do not understand to this very day.

Once again, it's not our works that earn us a free ticket into the Gates of heaven. It is our works that show our Father that we love him because he has given us the hope of salvation through his only begotten Son who had the key of David and is the door that no man can shut.

Revelation 3:7 (scrn 10)

Our Messiah, and our Messiah alone has the anointing that Yahovah gave to David, and it is he, and he alone that had the key to open the door that no one can shut. He is the door that each one of us must enter in, and walk through.

Something else in Exodus chapter 35 that I want to make mention of here is that all of the materials that were used to build the wilderness tabernacle were given to Yahovah as a contribution from a generous heart. Each one of these people gave from a willing heart. They gave freely, not because they were commanded to give what they had, but because they wanted to give what they had to the building up, and the honoring of the one true Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. And I want us to notice that the women spun with their hands, and the men put together the actual construction of the wilderness tabernacle, and the whole house of Israel worked together to create this wilderness tabernacle for Yahovah so that Yahovah would be with them as they traveled through the wilderness.

And I want us to notice that there was no backbiting. No one was reveling, or complaining about the manna not being enough, or not having water, all of the complaining and bellyaching, and the whining and the sniveling had all been put aside and what we're seeing the house of Israel doing right here in Exodus chapter 35 is being done for the glory, and for the honor, and for the love of Yahovah.

And so, the house of Israel was not always rebellious, and there is no doubt in my mind that at this point in time our Father in heaven was very pleased with the house of Israel and what they were doing together as one body. And this my friends is how things are supposed to work. And this is exactly how things will work at the end of the age when our Messiah returns and his enemies are put under his feet, at which time... he will then turn the kingdom over to his Father and things will once again come full circle, and to be exactly as Yah had intended it to be from the beginning. First Corinthians 15:24-25 (scrn 11)

And so, now that we have completed Exodus chapters 34 and 35, we will be ready to dive into chapter 36 next Wednesday evening at 7 PM Eastern standard time. Until then, I would like to once again ask everyone within the sound of my voice to please take what you have heard here today to your own prayer closet. Bow your head, and bend your knee, and face the holy promise land of Jerusalem, and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here today be true, or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door. And if you will do that, and if you will stay the course to the end, you and I will surely walk through the Gates of his soon coming kingdom together.
