Leviticus 20b and 21 and 22a The Law of Perfection

Once again, welcome everyone and thank you so very much for joining us this evening. Bible study is so vitally important today in our time because it really does put things back into the proper perspective for each one of us. And the renewing of our minds daily is a concept that many of us have lost sight of because of the fast-paced world, culture and society that we live in today. The current of today's fast paced way of living is a strong one, and the rushing waters of this current can indeed carry us away with the error of lawless people, and the wickedness of human leaders who have become godless and overcome by the little "g" god of this world.

It's important that we remember each and every day that we are to be a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to our Father in heaven. And the days that we are now living in today have become demonstrable when considering just how far off the beaten path mankind has gotten from his Creator. With that being said, I'd like to open our Bible study here this evening by turning to Romans 12:1-2 (scrn 1)

Renew Your Mind Daily

Rom 12:1 I appeal to you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship.

Rom 12:2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Today many of our nation's leaders have sold out to the idea and concept of trading a lie for the truth and the truth for a lie. They have willfully and intentionally traded what is sweet for what is bitter and what is bitter for what is sweet.

Abortion is their favorite cause, and homosexual marriage is now the law of the land and doing injustice in court has become their lifestyle and their way. They hate those who disagree with them and the innocent are swept away like so much trash to be silenced and thrown into the obis of silence never to be heard from again. As far as they are concerned, they themselves are wise and shrewd in their own sight. They have become valiant heroes at drinking wine and valiant men in mixing strong drink, who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of his right. They have indeed... and do indeed daily despise the word of the Holy One of Israel.

I have said for several years now that the great United States of America has become the threshing floor. It is lead by a brood of vipers, and hypocrites that write laws in opposition to the one true Most High Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. It's leaders no longer care about the things of God, and they have truly traded what is sweet for what is bitter, and what is bitter for what is sweet. But my greatest fear is that they will soon fully understand what they have done. The word of Yehovah our Father in heaven does not come back empty. And the leaders of the world are about to receive the due wages for their wickedness. There is no doubt in my mind that he will indeed call another nation to carry away this nation into bondage just like he called Babylon to sweep away the house of Israel because of their iniquity. If it were not so... then it could not be said that our Father is a just God.

I would like to apologize up front for being so dark in the opening of tonight's Bible study, but I fear more the retribution for not speaking out against these things than I do hurting someone's precious feelings. The prophets long before me spoke these same words to the house of Israel long ago and were murdered in cold blood for doing so. And there is no doubt in my mind that there are those who will hear this message today and wish me dead and may even make it so. But this does not remove them from the truth. These are the same people who have murdered the prophets before us and have thrown the truth to the ground because of what they believe is their superior wisdom, and divine intellect.

Before we get back into the twentieth chapter of the book of Leviticus here this evening, I'd like us to reflect on what we've seen in the news over this past year because I hope and pray that you have been watching as you have been commanded to do. I hope and pray that you are seeing what I am seeing and hearing what I am hearing across the landscape. The hooves of the four horsemen of the apocalypse are thundering across the face of the earth and what seems so ironic to me is that so few people seem to even notice.

We today are much more fortunate than the house of Israel was back in their time. Back then they had no other nation to look to and to see what happens when a nation turns it's back on God. They had no other nation to be an example of what happens when the leaders of a nation who are supposed to be God's people.... lead that nation into lawlessness and depravity.

Today we have the house of Israel to look to. We have an example that has been laid out before us that shows us what happens to a nation... even a beloved nation... that turns it's back on God. We can learn by their example... or... we can be... just another example of what happens when a nation sits idly by and allows it's leaders to trample underfoot that very name of God and all that he has done for them.

I'd like us to turn this evening to Isaiah chapter 5, and I'd like us to read our future. The road sign are all there. The tell tail signs are plentiful, and the vineyard of Yehovah did indeed have a watchtower placed in the midst of it. But that watchtower itself has become corrupt, and the wisemen themselves have become fools. And I tell you the truth my friends... it is indeed the pulpit that is responsible for the fall of this vineyard. It is the very watchtower that he put in place that has become corrupt that is the reason for the fall of this nation and every nation.

Lets take the time to read about the land that we now live in today... found in Isaiah chapter 5
E1

The Vineyard of the Lord Destroyed

Isa 5:1 Let me sing for my beloved my love song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

Isa 5:2 He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watchtower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; and he looked for it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes.

Isa 5:3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard.

Isa 5:4 What more was there to do for my vineyard, that I have not done in it? When I looked for it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes?

Isa 5:5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down.

Isa 5:6 I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and briers and thorns shall grow up; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.

Isa 5:7 For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah are his pleasant planting; and he looked for justice, but behold, bloodshed; for righteousness, but behold, an outcry!

Woe to the Wicked

Isa 5:8 Woe to those who join house to house, who add field to field, until there is no more room, and you are made to dwell alone in the midst of the land.

Isa 5:9 The LORD of hosts has sworn in my hearing: "Surely many houses shall be desolate, large and beautiful houses, without inhabitant.

Isa 5:10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield but one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah."

Isa 5:11 Woe to those who rise early in the morning, that they may run after strong drink, who tarry late into the evening as wine inflames them!

Isa 5:12 They have lyre and harp, tambourine and flute and wine at their feasts, but they do not regard the deeds of the LORD, or see the work of his hands.

Isa 5:13 Therefore my people go into exile for lack of knowledge; their honored men go hungry, and their multitude is parched with thirst.

Isa 5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its appetite and opened its mouth beyond measure, and the nobility of Jerusalem and her multitude will go down, her revelers and he who exults in her.

Isa 5:15 Man is humbled, and each one is brought low, and the eyes of the haughty are brought low.

Isa 5:16 But the LORD of hosts is exalted in justice, and the Holy God shows himself holy in righteousness.

Isa 5:17 Then shall the lambs graze as in their pasture, and nomads shall eat among the ruins of the rich.

Isa 5:18 Woe to those who draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, who draw sin as with cart ropes,

Isa 5:19 who say: "Let him be quick, let him speed his work that we may see it; let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near, and let it come, that we may know it!"

Isa 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isa 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and shrewd in their own sight!

Isa 5:22 Woe to those who are heroes at drinking wine, and valiant men in mixing strong drink,

Isa 5:23 who acquit the guilty for a bribe, and deprive the innocent of his right!

Isa 5:24 Therefore, as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root will be as rottenness, and their blossom go up like dust; for they have rejected the law of the LORD of hosts, and have despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

Isa 5:25 Therefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against his people, and he stretched out his hand against them and struck them, and the mountains quaked; and their corpses were as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger has not turned away, and his hand is stretched out still.

Isa 5:26 He will raise a signal for nations far away, and whistle for them from the ends of the earth; and behold, quickly, speedily they come!

Isa 5:27 None is weary, none stumbles, none slumbers or sleeps, not a waistband is loose, not a sandal strap broken;

Isa 5:28 their arrows are sharp, all their bows bent, their horses' hoofs seem like flint, and their wheels like the whirlwind.

Isa 5:29 Their roaring is like a lion, like young lions they roar; they growl and seize their prey; they carry it off, and none can rescue.

Isa 5:30 They will growl over it on that day, like the growling of the sea. And if one looks to the land, behold, darkness and distress; and the light is darkened by its clouds.

The great United States has indeed been a vineyard much like the house of Israel that has been protected and nourished and loved by our Father in heaven for the past 200 years. But just like the house of Israel... to whom much is given... much is expected, and I fear that we here in the United States have succumbed to the same fate that the house of Israel had so long ago succumbed to.

When we go back and look at Leviticus chapter 20, we find the punishment for child sacrifice laid out perfectly before us. We find that penalty for homosexuality laid out perfectly before us. We find the commandment to be holy laid out perfectly before us. We know who Yehovah is, and we know who it is that consecrates us, and who our strength and length of days is... but even though he has left us his God breathed scripture that perfectly lays these things out before us... we as a nation have willfully and intentionally chosen to return like a dog to its vomit and like a pig to its mire.

During last weeks study we spoke about the Pagan god Molech and we carefully drew the lines between Molech who caused the house of Israel to sacrifice their children to him, and the god of Convenience who causes us today to sacrifice our children to it.

In Leviticus chapter 20 verse 13 we can clearly see the penalty for homosexuality which is an abomination to our Father in heaven, and we can clearly see that the penalty for homosexuality is indeed death. But because death does not come to those who practice homosexuality immediately... they have made the grave error of assuming that they have escaped the penalty of death and that they can willfully and intentionally shake their fist in the face of Yehovah God and get away with it. But what they fail to understand is that our Father in heaven is a patient God. He does not want even one soul to perish... and so he often times waits. He waits until there is no-one that can object to his wrath. He waits until every last opportunity has been given. He waits until the last soul in that nation, or town, or place has had the opportunity to hear the truth of his spoken word several times... but even our Father in heaven has a patience that does indeed have its limits.

There comes a time when even the patients of our Father in heaven who is indeed slow to anger is indeed brought to anger by those who oppose him. Our Father in heaven is the creator of the vine. He is the creator of the vineyard. And what Yehovah God has created... he can also destroy. He is indeed the potter... and we are indeed the clay, and this is something that the world has long ago forgotten because of the devil that it dances with in the pale moonlight.

Knowing and understanding these things, I want us to understand here today that we are to be a nation of priests that are holy to our Father in heaven. This is not a game, or a metaphor or a parable. It is the truth of Yehovah God's word. (scrn 2)

A Nation of Priests...

Old Testament:

Exo 19:5 Now therefore, if you will indeed obey my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my treasured possession among all peoples, for all the earth is mine;

Exo 19:6 and you shall be to me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words that you shall speak to the people of Israel."

New Testament:

1Pe 2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light.

Knowing and understanding that we ourselves are called to be a nation of priests, and a holy nation to him... let's now move into Leviticus chapter 21 and read it for ourselves so that we can not only know and understand what it says... but what it does not say and how it translates to us today in our time. Leviticus chapter 21: E2

Lev 21:1 And the LORD said to Moses, "Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them, No one shall make himself unclean for the dead among his people,

Lev 21:2 except for his closest relatives, his mother, his father, his son, his daughter, his brother,

Lev 21:3 or his virgin sister (who is near to him because she has had no husband; for her he may make himself unclean).

Lev 21:4 He shall not make himself unclean as a husband among his people and so profane himself.

Lev 21:5 They shall not make bald patches on their heads, nor shave off the edges of their beards, nor make any cuts on their body.

Lev 21:6 They shall be holy to their God and not profane the name of their God. For they offer the LORD's food offerings, the bread of their God; therefore they shall be holy.

Lev 21:7 They shall not marry a prostitute or a woman who has been defiled, neither shall they marry a woman divorced from her husband, for the priest is holy to his God.

Lev 21:8 You shall sanctify him, for he offers the bread of your God. He shall be holy to you, for I, the LORD, who sanctify you, am holy.

Lev 21:9 And the daughter of any priest, if she profanes herself by whoring, profanes her father; she shall be burned with fire.

Lev 21:10 "The priest who is chief among his brothers, on whose head the anointing oil is poured and who has been consecrated to wear the garments, shall not let the hair of his head hang loose nor tear his clothes.

Lev 21:11 He shall not go in to any dead bodies nor make himself unclean, even for his father or for his mother.

Lev 21:12 He shall not go out of the sanctuary, lest he profane the sanctuary of his God, for the consecration of the anointing oil of his God is on him: I am the LORD.

Lev 21:13 And he shall take a wife in her virginity.

Lev 21:14 A widow, or a divorced woman, or a woman who has been defiled, or a prostitute, these he shall not marry. But he shall take as his wife a virgin of his own people,

Lev 21:15 that he may not profane his offspring among his people, for I am the LORD who sanctifies him."

Lev 21:16 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 21:17 "Speak to Aaron, saying, None of your offspring throughout their generations who has a blemish may approach to offer the bread of his God.

Lev 21:18 For no one who has a blemish shall draw near, a man blind or lame, or one who has a mutilated face or a limb too long,

Lev 21:19 or a man who has an injured foot or an injured hand,

Lev 21:20 or a hunchback or a dwarf or a man with a defect in his sight or an itching disease or scabs or crushed testicles.

Lev 21:21 No man of the offspring of Aaron the priest who has a blemish shall come near to offer the LORD's food offerings; since he has a blemish, he shall not come near to offer the bread of his God.

Lev 21:22 He may eat the bread of his God, both of the most holy and of the holy things,

Lev 21:23 but he shall not go through the veil or approach the altar, because he has a blemish, that he may not profane my sanctuaries, for I am the LORD who sanctifies them."

Lev 21:24 So Moses spoke to Aaron and to his sons and to all the people of Israel.

One of the very first things that I want us to see here in Leviticus chapter 21 is why the early Israelites were commanded not to make bald patches on their heads or to shave off the edges of their beards or make any cuts on their bodies.

This was something that the house of Israel was doing in order to honor the dead. Honoring the dead by desecrating our bodies is indeed a pagan practice that has no place in the life of a true God-fearing Messiah following cross bearing Christian. And I want to be perfectly clear here... this commandment was for the priests of Israel and the sons of Aron, to be an example to the rest of the house of Israel.

There are many very self-righteous so-called men of God in the world today who claim that they never trim their beards. But my friends... you and I both know better than that. If a man was to not ever trim or ever cut the edges of his beard, his beard would over time be taller than himself. It would grow so wide... and so long... that he would literally become a walking ball of hair. The rather famous band ZZ Top is a perfect example of what happens when you never trim or cut the edges of your beard, and I would submit to you that even ZZ Top trimmed the edges of their beards in order to make it manageable. And so, let us therefore not fall for the self-righteous underpinnings of those who claim that they never do such things.

The only time a man is to not trim or keep his beard in an orderly fashion is when he has taken a Nazirite Vow which can be seen in the book of Numbers chapter 6. And this is indeed a vow, that takes place when a man sets himself apart from the world and keeps himself holy to Yehovah for a specific period of time to be with Yehovah and Yehovah alone.

There is absolutely no commandment that tells a normal man under normal conditions that he cannot trim, or keep neat his beard. And there is no commandment that commands a man to have a beard either. This is once again the folly that some wrongly teach because of ignorance and once again being unstudied.

Making bald patches on the head, shaving the edges of the beard, and making cuts in the body all went together as a pagan ritual to honor the dead that people were praying to back in that day. All three of these rituals served to elevate the dead over the living and this was clearly forbidden in the eyes of our Father in heaven.

The Priests of Israel were to remain holy to Yehovah, and they were to set the example for the rest of the house of Israel much like our Messiah who is now our High Priest in the order of Melkisedek came to be our example. A Priest... should be an example to others. If the High Priest is not doing it... then neither should those in training to become a nation of priests be doing it.

Notice also that the Priests of Israel were not to marry outside of the house of Israel. They could indeed marry Gentiles... and people that were born in other nations but only if that Gentle had become part of the house of Israel by having all the males of his household circumcised, and only then... could they become a native of the land, and the same was for the women as well. They had to have the circumcision of the heart and be doing the commandment of Yehovah God in order to become a native of the land. Once again... Exodus 12:48-49 (scrn 3)

If A Gentile Would Keep The Passover...

Exo 12:48 If a stranger (Gentile) shall sojourn with you and would keep the Passover to the LORD, let all his males be circumcised. Then he may come near and keep it; he shall be as a native of the land. But no uncircumcised person shall eat of it.

Exo 12:49 There shall be one law for the native and for the stranger (Gentile) who sojourns among you."

Once again... I want to be clear about how it is that our Father in heaven teaches us his commandment. Our Father in heaven never tells us to do something once. Our Father in heaven is always repetitive about what he wants done and how he wants it done.

Many of the sins that we see listed in Leviticus chapters 20, 21 and 22 we've already seen listed in places like Leviticus chapter 18 but just as we've said over and over and over again... our Father in heaven consistently reminds us over and over and over again how to keep his commandments and how to do what is right. Repetitiveness is Yehovah's way of making sure that we are without excuse.

If you've been told two, three, four times or more not to do something... and you go ahead and do it anyway... you are clearly in defiance of who ever told you not to do those things. And that my friends is exactly how our Father weeds out the wheat from the tares. Our Father in heaven leaves no excuse for anyone to say "well you only told me that once... and I forgot". That excuse has been taken off the table by the repetitive, and cyclic way that our Father in heaven teaches his children over and over again through patterns and examples of his spoken word.

A few years back there was a new teaching that was going around concerning when a day begins. And some people who were deeply entrenched in fabricating their own brand-new denominational teaching were teaching and preaching that a day begins when the sun rises and not when the sun goes down as Yehovah repeatedly teaches us over and over again within his God breathed scripture.

And I was watching this movement closely and was trying to understand why some people would teach against what we clearly see written within our God breathed scripture and while watching one of these so-called men of God teach this theology, I heard him say that the commandment for the day of Atonement was a one-time commandment, and not all of God's feast days and Sabbaths were to be kept that way.

Now... most of you know that the Day of Atonement found in Leviticus chapter 23 which we will be studying in depth over the next couple of weeks is commanded to be kept from evening to evening. And the teacher of this preposterous man-made doctrine proclaimed that only the Day of Atonement was kept from evening to evening because it was a special day, and this is why evening to evening is never mentioned anywhere else in the Bible.

Apparently, this wisdom filled, and enlightened biblical scholar had forgotten to read all of the examples that our Father gives us that clearly and definitively proclaim when a day ends and a new day begins. Scripture like Mark 15:42-43, Matthew 27:57-60, Leviticus 23:32, Exodus 12:18, Genesis 1:14, John 19:31, Luke 23:54, and we could go on and on and on.

The point that I'm trying to make here this evening is that our Father in heaven never tells us anything once. There are always other examples of what he tells us all throughout his God breathed scripture if we will simply take the time to look for ourselves and see. Which leads us right back to why the world is so blind today.

The world wants nothing more than to be its own god. Man has ever since the garden of Eden longed to be his own god just like the serpent told Eve that he would be if he took from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil without God's permission. And sun god worship has always been the pinnacle of the spirit of Nimrod and his quest to become like God.

Something else that I want us to also see in Leviticus chapter 21 is the signature of Yehovah God himself once again being signed all throughout Leviticus chapter 21. Over and over and over again our Father in heaven stamps his personal name all over Leviticus chapter 21 at least eight different times just in Leviticus chapter 21 alone.

Once again... for those who do not know... every time that you see the word "LORD" in capital letters, this is a blooper in our Bible. The English translators of the King James Version of the Bible willfully and intentionally covered up the very name of God with the word "LORD" over 6519 times. 6519 Times our Father in heaven wrote his name... signed his signature in his God breathed Scripture and they covered it up with the word "LORD".

My friends... our Father in heaven is not a 16th century British land baron. He has a name, and we ought to know it. And right here in Leviticus chapter 21 alone... he signs his name so that we won't forget it, once again repeating it over and over and over again, just like he does all of his commandments.

Our Father teaches us repetitively and cyclically over and over again through direct commandments and by examples and patterns that can be seen time and time again all throughout his spoken word and we ought to be looking for these repetitive examples and commandments instead of trying to figure out how we can do away with them. There are many patterns within the spoken word of Yehovah. His word is like a quilt with many patches, and many of these patches are repeatedly used in order to teach us that it is indeed all of these patches sown tightly together that protect us from the cold darkness of sin.

I also want to also expound upon the importance of the repetitive teaching of being without blemish. Nothing with any kind of blemish was allowed to enter into the presence of Yehovah. A man who had an injured foot or a hand, or a hunchback or a dwarf, or a man with a defect, or itching disease or scabs or even crushed testicles could not enter into the presence of Yehovah. But I also want to make note of something else very important to make note of concerning these things.

Verse 21 tells us that people struck with these blemishes are still Yehovah God's people. They simply could not go through the veil or approach the altar because they had a blemish. This did not make them any less a part of Yehovah's people, nor did it mean that Yehovah God loved them any less. Verse 23 tells us once again that it is Yehovah who sanctifies them. And therefore... just because someone has one of these kinds of blemishes does not exclude them from the family of Yehovah God. We must remember that these fleshly bodies are indeed going to return to the earth. These bodies are expendable... our spirits are not. And therefore, the blemish that you may have to live with today is not a blemish that you will have to suffer with forever.

And so... why must the priests be without blemish, and why all this talk of being perfect if you will?

Perfection is something that we should all strive for in our lives in all things. Mind, body, and soul are to be without blemish in the eyes of Yehovah. The Church today by and large preaches that you cannot be perfect and that you cannot be without blemish, but that's not what our Father or his God breathed scripture actually says. We are to renew our minds daily, seeking that which is good and right and holy and righteous in the eyes of our Father in heaven, not in mans eyes... and just as our Messiah has commanded us in Matthew chapter 5 verse 48... we are to be perfect even as our heavenly Father is perfect.

All of this talk of being without blemish, and all of this verbiage about being holy, and righteous, and perfect all point directly to not only to our Father in heaven... but also to his only begotten Son who is Yehshua Hamashiach, Jesus the Messiah. Being clean and touching no unclean thing and wearing blue chords on the corners of our hips to remind us not to whore after our own hearts and our own minds is all done in remembrance and for the glorification of both the Father and his only begotten Son who came to bring us all as prodigal sons back to his Father and his commandment in order to be perfect, to be without blemish, and to be holy, not in our own eyes... but in his eyes.

The problem is that today's leaders no longer seek the face of Yehovah God our Elohim. They think that they know better. Claiming to be wise... they have become... fools. The world proclaims that homosexuality is the law of the land, and that transgenderism is what is right in the eyes of man. Cutting things off of the human body in order to become something else other than what Yehovah has created us to be is good and righteous in the eyes of man.

Murdering millions of unborn children in the wombs of their mothers in the name of convenience is good and righteous in the eyes of man. A woman is said to no longer have a say over her own body unless she is allowed to murder the child that is within her womb in the eyes of men. Doctors now chop the human body up, and twist and distort the human body into whatever the highest bidder wants desecrating what Yehovah God has created because this is good and righteous in the eyes of man.

These are not things that cause men to seek first the kingdom of Yehovah God. These are the things that lead man down into the pit. And these things that men do are all seen by the Creator of the heavens and the earth make no mistake about it. And it is these things that cause him to remove his hand of protection over man. And when the protection of Yehovah is removed... it's just like a light switch being turned off. Once the source of light is taken away... darkness immediately rushes in and fills where light once existed.

Keeping all of this in mind... let's now move into Leviticus chapter 22, and let's start by reading Leviticus 22:1-16 E3

Lev 22:1 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 22:2 "Speak to Aaron and his sons so that they abstain from the holy things of the people of Israel, which they dedicate to me, so that they do not profane my holy name: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:3 Say to them, 'If any one of all your offspring throughout your generations approaches the holy things that the people of Israel dedicate to the LORD, while he has an uncleanness, that person shall be cut off from my presence: I am the LORD.

Lev 22:4 None of the offspring of Aaron who has a leprous disease or a discharge may eat of the holy things until he is clean. Whoever touches anything that is unclean through contact with the dead or a man who has had an emission of semen,

Lev 22:5 and whoever touches a swarming thing by which he may be made unclean or a person from whom he may take uncleanness, whatever his uncleanness may be—

Lev 22:6 the person who touches such a thing shall be unclean until the evening and shall not eat of the holy things unless he has bathed his body in water.

Lev 22:7 When the sun goes down he shall be clean, and afterward he may eat of the holy things, because they are his food.

Lev 22:8 He shall not eat what dies of itself or is torn by beasts, and so make himself unclean by it: I am the LORD.'

Lev 22:9 They shall therefore keep my charge, lest they bear sin for it and die thereby when they profane it: I am the LORD who sanctifies them.

Lev 22:10 "A lay person shall not eat of a holy thing; no foreign guest of the priest or hired worker shall eat of a holy thing,

Lev 22:11 but if a priest buys a slave as his property for money, the slave may eat of it, and anyone born in his house may eat of his food.

Lev 22:12 If a priest's daughter marries a layman, she shall not eat of the contribution of the holy things.

Lev 22:13 But if a priest's daughter is widowed or divorced and has no child and returns to her father's house, as in her youth, she may eat of her father's food; yet no lay person shall eat of it.

Lev 22:14 And if anyone eats of a holy thing unintentionally, he shall add the fifth of its value to it and give the holy thing to the priest.

Lev 22:15 They shall not profane the holy things of the people of Israel, which they contribute to the LORD,

Lev 22:16 and so cause them to bear iniquity and guilt, by eating their holy things: for I am the LORD who sanctifies them."

Once again, this is a continuation of the message to Aaron and his sons who were the priests of Israel and the message of distinguishing the clean from the unclean continues. And once again we continue to see the signature of Yehovah all over these commandments. But what we should be taking away from these God breathed scriptures is the fact that it is Yehovah God who is in charge not us.

God is God... and we are not!

I cannot expound upon the fact that it is Yehovah who decides what is righteous and what is un-righteous. It is Yehovah God that decides who can be a slave and who cannot be a slave and for what reasons. It is Yehovah God that decides what a woman can and cannot do with her body just as he decides what a man can and cannot do with his body.

The only way that man can ever return to his Father in heaven is through total surrender. Without total and unadulterated surrender... we cannot return to him. Without total and unadulterated surrender, we are seen as unclean in his eyes. Without total and unadulterated surrender, we are seen as blemished and unfit for his coming kingdom.

There are whole nations of people in the world today who will be destroyed by the second death because they refuse to surrender. All throughout the book of Revelation we are told that even through all of what is to come upon the earth... they will still hate God. They will still shake their fists in his face, and they will still curse him. (scrn 4)

They Cursed The God of Heaven!

Rev 16:10 The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and its kingdom was plunged into darkness. People gnawed their tongues in anguish

Rev 16:11 and cursed the God of heaven for their pain and sores. They did not repent of their deeds.

Although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him. They became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened. Claiming to be wise... they became... fools.

Therefore, God gave them up to the lusts of their hearts and to impurity dishonoring their bodies among themselves because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator. For this reason, God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature; and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done. They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They became full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips, slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents, foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless. Though they know God's righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.

I tell you the truth my friends... the four horsemen of the Apocalypse are right now as we speak beginning to wreak havoc across the face of the earth, and the coming kingdom of our Messiah is indeed at hand.

There is a right... and there is a left. There is a right... and there is a wrong. There is Yehovah God's version of righteousness and then there is mans version of righteousness. There is Yehovah God's version of truth, and then there is mans version of truth. There is Yehovah God's version of love, and then there is mans version of love. There is Yehovah God's version of morality, and then there is mans version of morality. There is Yehovah God's version of holiness, and then.... well... there is just man in all of his pomp and pageantry.

As we have said so many times before, so now we say again... today is the day of decision. Today is beckoning us for an answer as to whom it is that we will serve. Man has always had his pagan gods and his American idols, and his Pharisees and Popish leaders. From Nimrod to the Pope of Rome there have been endless men who have clamed throughout history to have the authority to usurp the authority of our Father in heaven. But I tell you the truth my friends... even though it will soon seem as though they have won the battle... the victory of the war will be taken by the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

Today is a day that we must choose to be either hot or cold. We are being tasked with choosing. My hope and my prayer is that you will choose wisely.

And with that being said... I will as I always do ask that everyone within the sound of my voice would please take what you have heard here today to your own prayer closet, and bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashaich if what you have heard here today be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone and the proper door will be opened to you. And if you'll do that... and if you will stay the course to the end... you and I will surly walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom together.
