Leviticus Chapter 23k The Feast of Tabernacles

Once again, shalom everyone and thank you so very much for joining us this evening as we venture into the very last feast day of Leviticus chapter 23 which is indeed the Feast of Booths also known as Tabernacles or Sukkot.

Here at Holy Impact Ministries, we call the Feast of Booths “Sukkot” which basically means “booths” or “temporary shelter”, and this is exactly what Sukkot, also known as Tabernacles, is all about. It’s about God’s children living outside for seven days in remembrance of our brothers and sisters who were rescued out of Egypt and out from under the hand of the wicked Pharaoh of Egypt.

And so... it’s at this very feast that we are commanded to celebrate, and to commemorate... that reminds us of how our Father in heaven rescued our people out from under the hand of evil and sin and the wickedness of Egypt so that... he could once again tabernacle with us just like he did in the beginning with Adam and Eve.

And I’d like to expound upon this very important commemoration because that’s what this feast day is... it’s a commemoration that causes us to commemorate... or to keep in remembrance... the fact that Yehvoah God did indeed rescue our people from sin and out from under the wicked hand of the Pharaoh of Egypt who was once again an archetype or symbol of the Devil our Father’s adversary.

And why is this important to understand? It’s important to understand because our Father in heaven cannot be near or around sin. Whatever is sinful dies in the face of Yehvoah God and therefore before he can once again tabernacle with us and walk among our people he must first irradicate sin from within us and remove sin from us. It is only when sin is removed from the human equation that our Father in heaven can... once again... tabernacle and walk among us just as he did during the days of Adam and Eve when he walked through the garden with sinless Adam.

All of our Father’s feast days and appointments revolve around his cleaning out the sin from within our human hearts and minds so that he can return to us as our Father just as it should be. Each and every one of our Father's feast days and appointments were commanded for us to commemorate... or to remember something that would bring us one more step closer to his return and the very day that he would once again show mercy on us as his children and return to us. But... this return of our Father in heaven to us cannot and will not happen until our stone-cold hearts have been removed... and a heart of flesh has been re-installed within us so that sin can no longer rule within our ranks.

Some theologians and so called "early church fathers" teach and preach the commandments of men because the commandments and the theologies and the philosophies of men are all that are important to them. But Yehvoah God tells us very clearly that it is his word that we are to keep and not man's word or commandments. Matthew 15:7-9 (scrn 1)

The Commandments of Men...

Mat 15:7 You hypocrites! Well did Isaiah prophesy of you, when he said:

Mat 15:8 "This people honors me with their lips, but their heart is far from me;

Mat 15:9 in vain do they worship me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men."

And even though these are red letter words spoken by our Messiah we must also recognize that our Messiah was quoting from the prophet Isaiah in the Old Testament. Once again... our Messiah did not come to preach and teach his own word... but his Father's original word. (scrn 2)

My Teaching Is Not Mine...
I Have Not Spoken On My Own Authority

Joh 7:16 So Jesus answered them, “My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.

Joh 7:17 If anyone's will is to do God's will, he will know whether the teaching is from God or whether I am speaking on my own authority.

Joh 7:18 The one who speaks on his own authority seeks his own glory; but the one who seeks the glory of him who sent him is true, and in him there is no falsehood.

Joh 12:49 For I have not spoken on my own authority, but the Father who sent me has himself given me a commandment—what to say and what to speak.

And it's important to also remember and to understand that our Father teaches us the end from the beginning, and therefore it is this very feast of seven days that reminds us of not only the past... but the future as well when he will once again rescue us out from under the hand of evil and sin and wickedness so that he can once again tabernacle with us as his chosen set apart people. Just as our Father first sent Moses to lead our people out of darkness and to rescue them from sin and out from under the wicked hand of the Pharaoh of Egypt... so too he has sent his only begotten Son to once again lead us out of this sinful fallen Babylonian world in order to finally complete the circle and bring us back to him as his rightful sons and daughters.

The Feast of Tabernacles is a Feast that when commemorated and kept in remembrance properly teaches us so very much about our Father in heaven and how it is that he operates and how it is that he himself achieves his goals and his will for his name's sake. The Feast of Tabernacles is more than just understanding the Exodus of Moses, but even more importantly... the Feast of Sukkot is about the greater Exodus that is yet to come!

What is important to understand is that our Father in heaven always works in patterns. He always teaches us things in patterns, and this is exactly why we are commanded to keep these seven different appointments or “moed” each and every year, year after year. They keep HIM in the forefront of our minds. They remind us of HIS power and of HIS glory. They fill us with hope and understanding. They nourish us as his people while binding us all together in anticipation of what we know that he has promised to all who love him.

While today's modern-day version of Christianity that has by enlarge been propagated and infiltrated by Catholicism practices its own feast days and its own Sabbaths, and its own man-made counterfeit festivals and feast days... those of us who truly read our God breathed Scripture for ourselves and study to show ourselves approved know the truth because we have indeed been given a heart of flesh through the very Spirit of Yehvoah God himself. And it is by the grace and the mercy of Yehovah God that he has given us the eyes to see and the ears to hear what the world cannot see and cannot hear because it neither sees him nor knows him.

This last Fall Feast Day of the year is significant because it truly does signify the end from the beginning. When we have come full circle back to where Yehvoah God wanted us to be in the beginning... we will finally have become the children that Yehovah has so desperately been seeking and fighting for. And it is this Feast Day above all others that does indeed signify the day when our Father himself will wipe away every tear and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore for the former things will have finally passed away.

When I first learned of the significance of the Feast of Sukkot and what it teaches us, I was amazed at its significance and the treasure chest of riches that it truly does behold for every true modern-day believer. And what struck my heart was how in the world we could have ever been so blind to these things from the very beginning and how in the world we as God's children could have possibly missed this most important appointment that our Father in heaven clearly tells us is to be kept forever and throughout our generations in remembrance of him. Leviticus 23:41-44 (scrn 3)

A Statute FOREVER AND THROUGHOUT YOUR GENERATIONS!

Lev 23:41 You shall celebrate it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All native Israelites shall dwell in booths,

Lev 23:43 that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:44 Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

A statute forever throughout our generations... how in the world could we NOT... celebrate this feast to our Father as he has commanded us to do? How can the modern-day church today refuse and flat out reject the spoken word of Yehvoah God who created them, and has been so diligent in his love for them as to send his only begotten Son so that not one of them would perish? Is it not written in the New Testament that if we are the Messiah's then we are Abraham's offspring and not only Abraham's offspring... but heirs to the promise given to Abraham? Galatians 3:27-29 (scrn 4)

You Are Abraham's Offspring!

Gal 3:27 For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.

Gal 3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free, there is no male and female, for you are all one in Christ Jesus.

Gal 3:29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's offspring, heirs according to promise.

Each one of these seven appointments that we are reminded to keep in the book of Leviticus chapter 23 are very distinct. Each and every one of these appointments point to the power and the glory and the mercy of God. Each and every one of these appointments tells the story of our creation as human beings. Each and every one of these appointments reminds us of what our Father did in the beginning to remind us of how the end would play out. Each and every one of these feast days and appointments that our Father reminds us over and over and over again to keep in our remembrance forever and throughout our generations is so that we will not forget the promises that he has established and ordained in the past, and so that we will not forget the promises that he has established and ordained in the future.

All seven of these feast days and appointments were given to teach us very specific things... for very specific reasons and for very specific times. All seven of these feast days and appointments are God given not man given. These... are the feast days and appointments that a true God fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing Christian is commanded... not requested... but commanded to keep by his Father. These seven feast days and appointments teach and remind us of the truth... so that we will not be like children that are tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine and by human cunning and by the craftiness and the deceitful schemes of men.

And it is because the church today has forsaken the commandment of God to remember his feast days and appointments... that they have been tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine by human cunning and by the craftiness and the deceitful schemes of men.

It is because the church in all of its own man-made glory has reject the truth... that they are destroyed and so too are all those who follow after them. It is written... "My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge because they have rejected knowledge" says the Elohim of Israel!

Our Messiah told the Pharisees and the Scribes of his day who were the Pastors and Priests of his time something very striking that all of us should sit up and take notice of in Matthew chapter 23. I would like us all to pay close attention to what our Messiah told the Pastors, Priests, Bishops and popish leaders of his time in Matthew 23:13 and 15 (scrn 5)

Twice As Much A Child Of Hell

Mat 23:15 Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees hypocrites! For you travel across sea and land to make a single proselyte and when he becomes a proselyte you make him twice as much a child of hell as yourselves.

According to our very own Messiah... he tells us very clearly that those who lead others astray make them twice as evil as they are! Why? Why twice as evil? Because once you have taught someone to follow after the teaching of men... there is no limit to their hypocrisy! They now have been not only taught... but grounded and established within the ranks of evil men to do what evil men command them and not only that... but they now have been taught to give credence and legitimacy to those who do these evil things as well!

Which leads us right back to the feast days and appointments of Leviticus chapter 23 that are God ordained, God sanctified, and commanded for us to keep forever and throughout our generations.

In order for us to better understand the Feast of Tabernacles or Sukkot we need only to turn to the book of Revelation, because it is in the book of Revelation that we find the beginning of the last Feast of Tabernacles (or Sukkot) coming into fruition. And therefore... before we go any further in our explanation of the Feast of Sukkot... let's turn forward to the book of Revelation where we see the last and final Feast of Tabernacles taking place. Let's take a moment to go back and to read the end of the Book so that we can see how things end up by reading through Revelation 20:7 through Revelation 20:21 E1

The Defeat of Satan

Rev 20:7 And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be released from his prison

Rev 20:8 and will come out to deceive the nations that are at the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them for battle; their number is like the sand of the sea.

Rev 20:9 And they marched up over the broad plain of the earth and surrounded the camp of the saints and the beloved city, but fire came down from heaven and consumed them,

Rev 20:10 and the devil who had deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur where the beast and the false prophet were, and they will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

Judgment Before the Great White Throne

Rev 20:11 Then I saw a great white throne and him who was seated on it. From his presence earth and sky fled away, and no place was found for them.

Rev 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, standing before the throne, and books were opened. Then another book was opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged by what was written in the books, according to what they had done.

Rev 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead who were in it, Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them, and they were judged, each one of them, according to what they had done.

Rev 20:14 Then Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.

Rev 20:15 And if anyone's name was not found written in the book of life, he was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Heaven and the New Earth

Rev 21:1 Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and the sea was no more.

Rev 21:2 And I saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Rev 21:3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, the dwelling place of God is with man. He will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God.

Rev 21:4 He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away."

Rev 21:5 And he who was seated on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things new." Also he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Rev 21:6 And he said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To the thirsty I will give from the spring of the water of life without payment.

Rev 21:7 The one who conquers will have this heritage, and I will be his God and he will be my son.

Rev 21:8 But as for the cowardly, the faithless, the detestable, as for murderers, the sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their portion will be in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The New Jerusalem

Rev 21:9 Then came one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues and spoke to me, saying, "Come, I will show you the Bride, the wife of the Lamb."

Rev 21:10 And he carried me away in the Spirit to a great, high mountain, and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God,

Rev 21:11 having the glory of God, its radiance like a most rare jewel, like a jasper, clear as crystal.

Rev 21:12 It had a great, high wall, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and on the gates the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel were inscribed—

Rev 21:13 on the east three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates.

Rev 21:14 And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them were the twelve names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

Rev 21:15 And the one who spoke with me had a measuring rod of gold to measure the city and its gates and walls.

Rev 21:16 The city lies foursquare, its length the same as its width. And he measured the city with his rod, 12,000 stadia. Its length and width and height are equal.

Rev 21:17 He also measured its wall, 144 cubits by human measurement, which is also an angel's measurement.

Rev 21:18 The wall was built of jasper, while the city was pure gold, like clear glass.

Rev 21:19 The foundations of the wall of the city were adorned with every kind of jewel. The first was jasper, the second sapphire, the third agate, the fourth emerald,

Rev 21:20 the fifth onyx, the sixth carnelian, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh jacinth, the twelfth amethyst.

Rev 21:21 And the twelve gates were twelve pearls, each of the gates made of a single pearl, and the street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.

Rev 21:22 And I saw no temple in the city, for its temple is the Lord God the Almighty and the Lamb.

Rev 21:23 And the city has no need of sun or moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and its lamp is the Lamb.

Rev 21:24 By its light will the nations walk, and the kings of the earth will bring their glory into it,

Rev 21:25 and its gates will never be shut by day—and there will be no night there.

Rev 21:26 They will bring into it the glory and the honor of the nations.

Rev 21:27 But nothing unclean will ever enter it, nor anyone who does what is detestable or false, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

The River of Life

Rev 22:1 Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

Rev 22:2 through the middle of the street of the city; also, on either side of the river, the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, yielding its fruit each month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

Rev 22:3 No longer will there be anything accursed, but the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him.

Rev 22:4 They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

Rev 22:5 And night will be no more. They will need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Jesus Is Coming

Rev 22:6 And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. And the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must soon take place."

Rev 22:7 "And behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is the one who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

Rev 22:8 I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. And when I heard and saw them, I fell down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me,

Rev 22:9 but he said to me, "You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."

Rev 22:10 And he said to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is near.

Rev 22:11 Let the evildoer still do evil, and the filthy still be filthy, and the righteous still do right, and the holy still be holy."

Rev 22:12 "Behold, I am coming soon, bringing my recompense with me, to repay each one for what he has done.

Rev 22:13 I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end."

Rev 22:14 Blessed are those who wash their robes, so that they may have the right to the tree of life and that they may enter the city by the gates.

Rev 22:15 Outside are the dogs and sorcerers and the sexually immoral and murderers and idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.

Rev 22:16 "I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify to you about these things for the churches. I am the root and the descendant of David, the bright morning star."

Rev 22:17 The Spirit and the Bride say, "Come." And let the one who hears say, "Come." And let the one who is thirsty come; let the one who desires take the water of life without price.

Rev 22:18 I warn everyone who hears the words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues described in this book,

Rev 22:19 and if anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his share in the tree of life and in the holy city, which are described in this book.

Rev 22:20 He who testifies to these things says, "Surely I am coming soon." Amen. Come, Lord Jesus!

Rev 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all. Amen.

This is what the Feast of Tabernacles also known as Sukkot or Booths is truly all about. It is the very last time that Yehovah God will ever need to rescue his people from the clutches of sin or his adversary. It is when he himself along with the Lamb who is his holy begotten Son will once again tabernacle and walk and live among his chosen set apart people in the land that he has promised without pain or suffering or crying or death or mourning anymore.

How in the world could we have missed the meaning and the purpose and the significance of this very special hallowed appointment with our Father in heaven? How in the world could we have allowed this to be hidden from us for so long? How in the world could we have fallen into such depths of vanity and depravity as to not see... these things? How could we have not known how much our Father has loved us from the very beginning even when we were sinners?

Most of us who have come to the truth because of his mercy and because of his grace can tell you the answer to these questions. Simply put... we were slaves of sin.

We allowed ourselves to be like children tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine and by human cunning and by the craftiness and deceitful schemes of men because we were wrongly and shamefully taught to honor our Father with our lips... blab la bla... while keeping our hearts far from him.

We were taught to keep the festivals of the church, and the commandments of men. We were taught by the modern-day Pharisees and Scribes of our time to keep the sabbath day of the Pope of Rome and to keep the holidays and festivals of the Devil himself who has thought to changes the times and the law of the one true El-Elyon of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob.

We were taught to become slothful, and self-loathing. We were too busy celebrating ourselves and our own children. We were too busy decorating our homes and showering our children with all of the desires of their hearts. Candy and presents and gifts along with heart felt music and pomp and pageantry had become our newly found religion.... and we liked it. We were too busy with our own self-indulgence and lead astray by our own enchantment. We were too busy giving our money and our attention to another god that had been created from nothing more than the imagination of men through the agency of the Devil himself who is the little “g” god of this world.

Today... ashamed, and yet corrected in our paths because of the grace and the mercy of our Father in heaven we now know a love greater than we had ever imagined. We have been given the Spirit of truth not by our own doing... but because he has chosen us as the recipients of not only his mercy and his grace... but of HIS everlasting love and adoration.

The gifts that we have received are not only of his mercy and his grace... but more importantly of his everlasting love that truly does know no bounds, and our hearts are filled a hundred-fold more than they ever have been by celebrating the appointments and commandments of men because what we celebrate now... has meaning and purpose. What we celebrate now is what fills us with joy and love and peace and understanding and hope not given by men.

What we celebrate now is a living breathing truth that has been seared across our fleshly hearts and in our minds because we have willfully and intentionally chosen HIM as our God and Father and not man. What we celebrate now is proof of what we have been grafted into and what we have been set apart for. What we celebrate now is what separates us from the world and causes us to not only keep his commandments... but also causes his commandments to not be a burden to us. What we celebrate now is much, much bigger than just ourselves. What we celebrate now is God given, God commanded, God sanctified, God ordained, and is of... Yehovah God. And what we celebrate now is indeed the spoken word of God... and not men. And it is for this very reason that we honor him, and love him, and care for him who loved us first even while we were still sinners... that we bask in the glory of the spoken word that he is. And it is this spoken word of our Father that we all long to become just like our Messiah became... the spoken word of our Father.

Sadly... today's modern-day version of Christianity knows nothing of these gifts that have been bestowed upon us because once again the church today in our time... just like the church back in our Messiah's time... does not see him nor know him. They have traded the truth for a lie and a lie for the truth. They have traded what is sweet for what is bitter and what is bitter for what is sweet and yet... in all of the glory and the heart felt tressure that they create for themselves... the Devil laughs... because he knows that they will never leave their own sin and their own selfish vanity and pompous glorification. They will never leave the commandments of men because just as our Messiah had told the Pharisees and the Scribes of his time... these modern-day Pharisees and Scribes have made those who follow after them... twice as much a child of hell as themselves and why? Because they willfully and intentionally chose to honor him with their lips while keeping their hearts far from him. They have willfully and intentionally chosen to reject his word for the word of men. They have willfully and intentionally chosen to change the times and the law just as Danial said that the beast would do. And they have willfully and intentionally chosen to give credence and glorification to those who do such things.

How will our Messiah judge the church today in our time? How will he judge those who honor him with their lips while keeping their hearts from him? How will he judge those who have thought to change the times and the law of Yehvoah God his Father? How will he judge those who have tossed his Fathers seventh day Sabbath to the wind in order to keep the false sabbath of Rome?

The answer to this question awaits the return of our Messiah who will judge the deeds of all who proclaim to know him. But... we are given some indication as to how he will judge many people who think that they know him... but do not. Matthew 7:21-23 (scrn 6)

I Never Knew You

Mat 7:21 "Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven.

Mat 7:22 On that day many will say to me, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and cast out demons in your name, and do many mighty works in your name?'

Mat 7:23 And then will I declare to them, 'I never knew you; depart from me, you workers of lawlessness.'

This last and final appointed Feast Day of Yehovah that he has commanded us to keep in remembrance of him is indeed a Feast Day like no other. This is indeed a Feast Day that celebrates the prize that we run for, the hop that we have, and the destination that we all seek. And once again... I would like to return to Leviticus chapter 23 in order to remind us all of the fact that this Feast Day just like all of the seven appointments of Yehovah God is once again just like his seventh day Sabbath a sign between him and us. Just as our Father knows us by how we choose to keep his seventh day Sabbath... he will also know us by how we keep his Feast Days and appointments. Let's once again read the very commandment that we are given to keep his Holy Feast Days and appointments in remembrance of him forever and throughout our generations. Lev. 23:31-44 (scrn 7)

A Statute FOREVER AND THROUGHOUT YOUR GENERATIONS!

Lev 23:41 You shall celebrate it as a feast to the LORD for seven days in the year. It is a statute forever throughout your generations; you shall celebrate it in the seventh month.

Lev 23:42 You shall dwell in booths for seven days. All native Israelites shall dwell in booths,

Lev 23:43 that your generations may know that I made the people of Israel dwell in booths when I brought them out of the land of Egypt: I am the LORD your God."

Lev 23:44 Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Clearly... just as we have already seen in Leviticus chapter 23 verse 2 and again in verse 5 and again in verse 14, and again in verse 21 and again in verse 31, and again in verse 41 and again one last time in verse 44... these are the Feasts... the “moed”.... the “appointed times”... the “sign or signal”... of Yehovah God that we are commanded to keep forever and throughout our generations.

And before we close out the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus I want to go back to the concept of these feast days and appointments as being a sign between him and us just as his seventh day Sabbath is a sign between him and us. And in order to expound upon this sign... I would like us to go back and visit the very last verse of Leviticus chapter 23, and see what the Hebrew language has to say about these feast days and appointments of Yehovah being a sign or signal between him and us. E2

Lev 23:44 Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Notice here in verse 44 that the phrase “appointed feasts” is actually the Hebrew word “moed” and I want us to look closely at the meaning of the Hebrew word “moed”. (SHOW THEM)

H4150

מועד / מעד / מועדה

“Feast Days” = mō’êd / mō’êd / mō’âdâh

BDB Definition:

- 1) appointed place, appointed time, meeting
- 1a) appointed time
- 1a1) appointed time (general)
- 1a2) sacred season, set feast, appointed season
- 1b) appointed meeting
- 1c) appointed place
- 1d) appointed sign or signal
- 1e) tent of meeting

Clearly here found in both Brown Driver Briggs and Strong’s Hebrew definitions the word “moed” not only means “appointed time”... but it also means “appointed sign or signal” which once again points to his commanded appointments as a sign between him and us. These commanded Feast Days and appointments are what mark us as his set apart people who understand the biblical definition of the love of God found in the New Testament in 1st John chapter 5 verse 3... which clearly states that the love of God is that we keep HIS commandments and that HIS commandments are not burdensome to us.

In the end... there is much more that we could say about the Feast of Tabernacles also known as “Booths” or “Sukkot”. But what we have said here this evening should be a sufficient spring board that can be used into your own investigation. Once again... we are all commanded to study to show ourselves approved, and it is only when we do... study to show ourselves approved that we can then see and recognize the fruit of those who teach the word of Yehovah God to know whether their fruit be good or rotten. And so... let us not forsake the study of our Father’s God breathed Scripture and let us not forsake the gathering together of ourselves in order to hear and share and test what it is that he has given us.

And before we close... I would like to thank everyone within the sound of my voice for hearing this God given and ordained message, and I would like to thank all who have joined us that have been given the heart transplant of Yehovah God in order to have the eyes to see and the ears to hear. And I would also like to thank everyone who has come to hear the truth of God’s word for the first time... and we pray with fervent heart felt prayer that now that you have heard the truth of Yehovah God’s word... that you will willfully and intentionally choose to do.... Yehovah God’s word. Faith and belief are action words that fuel obedience. And just as the Apostle James tells us in the book of James chapter 2 verse 17... “faith without works... is dead”.

This is why we do what we do, speak as we speak, work as we work, and labor as we labor. It’s all done... for you.

But as for now... because our time has run short... I will once again... as I always do simply ask everyone within the sound of my voice to take what you have heard here this evening to your own prayer closet. Bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here this evening be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone, and the proper door will be opened to you. And if you will do that... and if you will stay the course to the end... you and I will surely walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom.
