Leviticus Chapter 23i The Fall Appointments of God

Once again everyone... thank you so very much for joining us for our study into the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus as we are now venturing into the 9th study of this rather revealing chapter of the Bible that is indeed such a blessing for us to know and to understand.

So far... throughout the first 8 studies of this chapter we've talked a lot about exactly what the Feast Days and Appointments of our Father in heaven have to do with our Messiah.

We've spoken in great detail about why our Messiah is called our Passover Lamb and the First Fruit of the resurrection, and our High Priest in the New Testament, and we've spoken in great detail over the last eight weeks about the New Covenant that our Messiah's very blood has brought to us and what the deliverance of the Ruach Hakodesh... (the Holy Spirit) really and truly does mean to all of us who truly do have faith and believe.

But now as we move down through the first half of the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus we now come upon a second set of Feast Days and Appointments that we are commanded to keep forever and throughout our generations. These second set of Feast Days and Commandments do not come in the Spring... but are brought forth in a new season, and I want us to be able to grasp the very significant timing of these Fall Feast Days and Appointments because they are brought forth in a... new season. But why? Why are these last three very important Appointments brought forth in the Fall and not the Spring? And why not the Summer, or even the Winter for that matter?

These are important questions to ask and to ponder because I tell you the truth my friends... it is only those who truly seek him... that will find him. It is only those who truly study to show themselves approved that will have the eyes to see and the ears to hear what is being shown to us here within these precious God breathed Scriptures.

Things are not always cut and dried when it comes to our Father's God breathed Scripture and I want to make sure that we are all aware of this Biblical fact. Those who speed read through the Bible and think that they know something... know nothing.

Listen closely to what our Father tells us about how he communicates with even his prophets.
Numbers 12:6-8 (scrn 1)

In Visions, In Dreams, And In Riddles...

Num 12:6 And he said, "Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream.

Num 12:7 Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house.

Num 12:8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?"

And so, here in the book of Numbers we have our Father in heaven telling us that he speaks to his prophets in dreams and in visions and in riddles. Keeping this in mind... Let's now turn to the New Testament and let's see how our Messiah speaks. Matthew 13:10-17 E1

Mat 13:10 Then the disciples came and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

Mat 13:11 And he answered them, "To you it has been given to know the secrets of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been given.

Mat 13:12 For to the one who has, more will be given, and he will have an abundance, but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

Mat 13:13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

Mat 13:14 Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: ""You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive."

Mat 13:15 For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.'

Mat 13:16 But blessed are your eyes, for they see, and your ears, for they hear.

Mat 13:17 For truly, I say to you, many prophets and righteous people longed to see what you see, and did not see it, and to hear what you hear, and did not hear it.

Now why do I bring this to our attention? I bring this to our attention so that we will know and understand that almost everything that our Father tells us and almost everything that our Messiah has said to us have a much more deeper meaning than what's on the surface. The commandments and appointments and statements that both our Father and his only begotten Son have given us often times have a much deeper meaning than what we see at first glance. Consider what the Apostle Paul tells us in Romans 7:14 (scrn 2)

The Law Is Spiritual!

Rom 7:14 For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am of the flesh, sold under sin.

What the Apostle Paul is trying to tell us here in Romans chapter 7 is the exact same thing that our Messiah tells us in Matthew chapter 13. The Law... which is the spoken word of Yehvoah God himself is not just to be taken literally... but also spiritually. It effects not only the flesh... but the Spirit, and what our Father has spoken... just like what his Son has spoken... are meant to be understood not just by the letter... but Spiritually. And this is exactly why our Messiah tells us that he speaks to us in Parables, and this is exactly why his Father tells us that he speaks to us in riddles and visions and dreams. Once again... he does not want those who have rejected him to understand. The point that we need to understand here is that just as our Messiah tells us in Matthew chapter 13... there is an us... and there is a them, and just as our Messiah tells us... the wheat is indeed growing up amongst the tares.

Only those who truly do have his Holy Spirit dwelling within them will have the eyes to see and the ears to hear because they truly want to see... and they truly want to hear. Some will only hear what they choose to hear, and they will see only what they choose to see. And what those who have the Holy Spirit of God hear and see in his Scripture... is often times much different than what those who do not have the Holy Spirit hear and see in his Scripture.

I tell you the truth my friends when I tell you that these God breathed Scripture hold far more hidden truths than what is evident to the world. Listen closely to the red-letter words of our Messiah who tells us the difference between those who truly do have the Holy Sprit and those who do not. John 14:15-17 (scrn 3)

The World Neither Sees Him Nor Knows Him...

Joh 14:15 “If you love me, you will keep my commandments.

Joh 14:16 And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper, to be with you forever,

Joh 14:17 even the Spirit of truth, whom the world cannot receive, because it neither sees him nor knows him. You know him, for he dwells with you and will be in you.

You see, this is why the world does not keep our Father’s commanded Feast Days and Appointments. This is why the world keeps the Roman Catholic Popes first day of the week Sunday Sabbath, and his Good Friday and his Easter Sunday morning. This is why the world today has lost its way and has lost it’s salt and the life that our Messiah came to give them. The world today can no longer receive the truth Holy Spirit of Yehvoah God because it neither sees him nor knows him and why? Why does the world not see him nor know him? The very reason that the world today does not see him nor know him is because they have willfully and intentionally rejected him. Not says I... but says our God breathed Scripture... Romans 1:18-22 (scrn 4)

Claiming To Be Wise... The Became Fools...

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

Rom 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Rom 1:20 For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

Rom 1:21 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Rom 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

You see, this is what happens when man thinks in his own human mind that he is above God. This is what happens when man begins to cherry pick scripture out of the Bible in order to cut, copy, paste, and cob together his own religion without understanding the whole of the Bible and the whole of the message that has been given to us. This is what happens when we choose our own self-righteous wisdom instead of his wisdom. This is what happens when we take his spoken word at face value... and do not truly ask for his wisdom to understand his... Scripture. And my friends I tell you the truth when I tell you that there are far more men out there today standing behind any one of over 50 thousand different denominational pulpits who have become fools... than there are true, good and honest God fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing men who proclaim the truth of what our Father has given us through that very same spoken word. And for those of you who think differently... and believe that the denominational empire that you hail from is the only one who has it right... I would suggest that you go back and read the book of Jude. And that... is just for starters. The warnings are posted all throughout our God breathed Scripture.

And so, I say all of that in order to say that what we are now getting into in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus is once again more than what meets the eye. What we should be able to see here in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus goes far beyond just words on a page. What we should be able to discern from these Fall Feast Days and Appointments written about here in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus can only truly be understood when one understands the whole of the Bible and not just half of it.

For those of us who have read and studied the whole of the Bible and have asked for his discernment to understand it... we see much, much more than just words on a page. We see much, much more than just commanded Feast Days and Appointments, we see much, much more than a simple list of commandments. What we see here spiritually in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus is what binds us together as believers. What we see spiritually here in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus is indeed God given because we know in our hearts and in our minds and right down to our very Souls... that this spiritual truth that we have been given from him can come from no-where else but him and him alone.

Keeping all of this in mind... let's go back and once gain ask the question... "why are these Feast Days and Appointments separated by seasons?" Why are the first four Feast Days and Appointments in the Spring... and the last three Feast Days and Appointments in the Fall? Could it possibly be... that the very reason that these Feast Days and Appointments have been separated by seasons is because they represent two very different seasons? Could it possibly be that the very reason that these last Fall Feast Days and Appointments of our Father are trying to tell us something more than just words on a page can reveal?

Could it be that our Father in heaven is once again hiding, and even concealing his very truth, his very message, his very Spirit from the world that cannot receive him because it neither sees him nor knows him because they have suppressed the truth... because they knew God... but did not honor him as God or give thanks to him?

Could it be... that right here within the pages of Leviticus chapter 23 there are things that only the Holy Spirit of Yehvoah God can show us? Is that Possible? Is that even... probable considering the Scripture that we've just read and the proclamations that have been made by both Father and Son?

We know that our Messiah fulfilled the Spring Feast Days and Appointments of this Father perfectly by fulfilling the first half of Leviticus chapter 23. We've studied diligently for the last 8 weeks... the past two months... and we've seen the fulfillment of these Scriptures that we find in Leviticus chapter 23 being fulfilled right before our very eyes by the Passover Lamb, the First Fruit of the resurrection, and by our High Priest in the order of Melkizedek. We've seen not only the pages of Leviticus chapter 23 come alive before our very eyes... but we've seen the New Covenant that was promised by our Father in heaven being established through very innocent and unblemished blood of our innocent and unblemished Passover Lamb who came to wave the sheaf before his Father so that we could finally be accepted.

We've seen what the world does not see. We've experienced the Holy Spirit in full measure! We've experienced the hidden and concealed truth of Yehovah our Father placed right in our laps and I tell you the truth my friends... this is not the end of the story... not by far. What we have experienced in our journey into the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus so far is just the beginning of the journey!

These things that we've seen so far in our studies over the past 8 weeks were made known to us so that we would also understand the return of our Messiah and how he will also fulfill these last three very important Feast Days and Appointments. He will indeed return much in the same way that he came the first time in order to fulfill... these last three Feast Days and Appointments. Acts 1:6-11 E2

The Ascension

Act 1:6 So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

Act 1:7 He said to them, "It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority."

Act 1:8 But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth."

Act 1:9 And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight.

Act 1:10 And while they were gazing into heaven as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes,

Act 1:11 and said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."

When our Messiah returns to the earth... he will indeed return in the same way as they Apostles saw him go into heaven. Let's examine that statement, and the promise that these two angels gave the Apostles a little closer. Let's turn to 1st Corinthians 15:50-58 E3

Mystery and Victory

1Co 15:50 I tell you this, brothers: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

1Co 15:51 Behold! I tell you a mystery. We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, 1Co 15:52 in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall be changed.

1Co 15:53 For this perishable body must put on the imperishable, and this mortal body must put on immortality.

1Co 15:54 When the perishable puts on the imperishable, and the mortal puts on immortality, then shall come to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

1Co 15:55 "O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?"

1Co 15:56 The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

1Co 15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1Co 15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.

Notice here in 1st Corinthians chapter 15 verse 52, that we are told that it will be at and I quote... “The last trumpet for the trumpet will sound”. This is when we are told that the dead will be raised imperishable, and we shall all be changed. This is when death is swallowed up in victory! This is when our Salvation begins and the chains of the curse of death are removed from us and this my friends... is when our Messiah returns. Matthew 24:29-31 (scrn 5)

The Coming of the Son of Man

Mat 24:29 “Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Mat 24:30 Then will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Mat 24:31 And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

What I would like us to focus in on is this “loud trumpet call”. Once again... just before the return of our Messiah we are told over, and over again... that there will be a last trump... a loud trumpet call and I would like to contrast this loud trumpet call with what we see in Leviticus chapter 23:23-25 E4

The Feast of Trumpets

Lev 23:23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 23:24 “Speak to the people of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.

Lev 23:25 You shall not do any ordinary work, and you shall present a food offering to the LORD.”

The presence of Yehvoah God and his authority is always introduced with the sound of a trumpet. When Yehvoah God our Elohim came down from the top of Mount Sinai to speak his testimony to the House of Israel one of the very first things that we see... is that a loud trumpet is sounded. Let's turn back to Exodus 19:16 E5:

Exo 19:16 On the morning of the third day there were thunders and lightnings and a thick cloud on the mountain and a very loud trumpet blast, so that all the people in the camp trembled.

Exo 19:17 Then Moses brought the people out of the camp to meet God, and they took their stand at the foot of the mountain.

Exo 19:18 Now Mount Sinai was wrapped in smoke because the LORD had descended on it in fire. The smoke of it went up like the smoke of a kiln, and the whole mountain trembled greatly.

Exo 19:19 And as the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder, Moses spoke, and God answered him in thunder.

Exo 19:20 The LORD came down on Mount Sinai, to the top of the mountain. And the LORD called Moses to the top of the mountain, and Moses went up.

Notice here once again... that the sound of a loud trumpet was sounded just before the appearance of our Father in heaven. Our Messiah tells us in the book of Matthew chapter 28 verse 18... that all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to him by his Father. In the book of Ezekiel chapters 45 and 46 we read about our Messiah being referred to as "The Prince" because he is of course the only begotten Son of God and we read about what "the Prince" will be responsible for concerning Temple and the offerings that will once again be re-established after his return. And I mention this so that we can better understand that our Messiah is indeed "the Prince" of God that the prophet Ezekiel is talking about and it is this prince... who Yehovah God has placed in Zion on his holy hill to be the King of Israel. Psalms 2:6-12 (scrn 6)

I Have Set My King On My Holy Hill!

Psa 2:6 “As for me, I have set my King on Zion, my holy hill.”

Psa 2:7 I will tell of the decree: The LORD said to me, “You are my Son; today I have begotten you.

Psa 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession.

Psa 2:9 You shall break them with a rod of iron and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.”

Psa 2:10 Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.

Psa 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

It is this Price of Yehvoah God... his only begotten Son that he has set as King over Israel on his holy hill that has been given all authority in heaven and on earth that the Day of Trumpets is heralding. Why is it that we think that the Fall Feast Days are in the Fall? The Day of Trumpets is not in the Spring because it does not signify the beginning... but rather the end. The Day of Trumpets is not in the Winter because Winter signifies and represents death... and death will be no more! The Day of Trumpets is in the Fall because it will be at the end of the harvest season that our Messiah will indeed return with the blast of a loud Trumpet call in order to fulfill his Father's Fall Feast Days just as he fulfilled his Father's Spring Feast Days.

Many of today's Babylonian Rabbi's will foolishly and wrongfully and even shamefully proclaim the Day of Trumpets also known as Yom Teruah is their Jewish "New Year" also known as Rosh Hashanah which basically means "New Year" or "The Head of the Year". This once again my friends is found no-where within the confines of our God breathed Scripture and is once again a man-made, man-created lie from the pit of hell itself that was clearly designed to cover up and to kick dirt over the true meaning of the Day of Trumpets that signifies the return of our Messiah. Yehovah God's New Year begins at the beginning of the Passover in the Spring according to Yehvoah God himself in the book of Exodus chapter 12 verse 2 where we find the Passover first being implemented by him. To proclaim that the New Year of God is in the Fall on the seventh month is literally blaspheming the Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob and is in direct defiance of his Spoken word which by the way is recorded in the book of Deuteronomy as... sin... which is... the transgression of the Law!

If there is anything that we know for sure... it's that the Devil does not want us to know the season of the return of our Messiah and neither do the sons of the Devil that our Messiah has already told us are indeed... the Babylonian rabbinical Pharisees who flat out reject him as the Messiah. And once again... we can see these sons of the Devil in 1st John chapter 3 verse 10, and in Matthew chapter 23 verse 15, and in Acts chapter 13 verse 10, and again in John chapter 8 verse 44. And so... we should not be unaware of who they are and what their objective is! We... as true God fearing, Messiah following, cross bearing Christians who are indeed Spirit filled should know full well by now the tricks of the Devil who prowls around like a lion just waiting to see who he can drag back into the darkness. And we should know full well the objective of the Devil himself!

Keeping all of this in mind... we always have some people who will proclaim that we do not know the day or the hour of his return and this is true and we fully agree with that biblical fact however... however... it is not written that we would not know the season. Even our Messiah chastised the people for not knowing the season.

Interpreting the Time

Luk 12:54 He also said to the crowds, “When you see a cloud rising in the west, you say at once, ‘A shower is coming.’ And so it happens.

Luk 12:55 And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, ‘There will be scorching heat,’ and it happens.

Luk 12:56 You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?

And our Messiah also told us that he would not come like a thief in the night to us as he would to the world. 1st Thessalonians 5:1-6 (scrn 8)

But You Are Not In Darkness
For That Day To Surprise You Like A Thief!

1Th 5:1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you.

1Th 5:2 For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1Th 5:3 While people are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

1Th 5:4 But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief.

1Th 5:5 For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness.

1Th 5:6 So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

In other words... we will not be surprised by his coming because just as he has already told us... we will be able to properly interpret the time. And why... will we be able to properly interpret the time? Because we will have the eyes to see and the ears to hear what our Father's Feast Days and Appointments are trying to tell us. And even though we may not know the exact day or the exact hour... we will know the season and the time because we will be sober and watching and waiting and anticipating his return according to our God breathed Scripture.

What we should find most interesting about the Day of Trumpets is the fact that we are not really told why we are to blow the trumpets or to make a joyous noise on that day. We're not really told why it is that we should sound the trumpets on that day? We are simply commanded to do so and to keep this day in remembrance. But... I would submit to you my friends that our Father in heaven does nothing without a specific reason. Our Father in heaven does nothing haphazardly. Everything that he does... he does very precisely and very matter of factly and for a very specific reason that has been calculated from the beginning of time.

And I would also like to make mention of the fact that on the day of the return of our Messiah we are once again told that not only will there be a trumpet sound... but that the sun nor the moon will give it's light. Once again Matthew 24:29-31 (scrn 9)

The Coming of the Son of Man

Mat 24:29 ‘Immediately after the tribulation of those days the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens will be shaken.

Mat 24:30 Then will appear in heaven the sign of the Son of Man, and then all the tribes of the earth will mourn, and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.

Mat 24:31 And he will send out his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Why is the sun nor the moon giving it's light significant on the day of his return? Well... let's turn back to Leviticus chapter 23 and let's see when the Day of Trumpets begins. Leviticus 23:23-25 E6

The Feast of Trumpets

Lev 23:23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 23:24 "Speak to the people of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.

Lev 23:25 You shall not do any ordinary work, and you shall present a food offering to the LORD."

Notice here in Leviticus chapter 23 verse 24, that we are told that the Day of Trumpets falls in the seventh month... (get that my friends... in the 7th month... not on the first month once again... it is not New Year's day according to Scripture)... on the seventh month... on the first day of the month. What happens when a new month begins according to our Father's calendar? Let's turn to Numbers 28:11 E7

Monthly Offerings

Num 28:11 "At the beginnings of your months, you shall offer a burnt offering to the LORD: two bulls from the herd, one ram, seven male lambs a year old without blemish;

The word “months” here in the Hebrew Language is “chodesh” and it literally means “the new moon, the first day of the month, or the lunar month”. And so... in the Hebrew language we can clearly see that the beginning of our Father’s new month begins with a “New Moon”, and we all know that a “New Moon” is when the moon is hanging dark in the sky. The new moon is the exact opposite of the full moon when the moon is giving us all of the light that it can. A new moon... when the moon is hanging dark in the sky... is when our Father’s months begin according to his calendar not mans calendar.

Keeping this in mind... E6

The Feast of Trumpets

Lev 23:23 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 23:24 “Speak to the people of Israel, saying, In the seventh month, on the first day of the month, you shall observe a day of solemn rest, a memorial proclaimed with blast of trumpets, a holy convocation.

Lev 23:25 You shall not do any ordinary work, and you shall present a food offering to the LORD.”

We know that on the Day of Trumpets... the moon will not be giving its light. And by the way... this is the only Appointment given by Yehvoah God that falls on the first day of the month when the moon is not giving it’s light. No other Feast Day or Appointments falls on a new moon at the beginning of the month. And so, because this is a very unique occurrence... we must speculate why our Father in heaven commanded this particular appointment to be kept when the new moon is hanging dark in the sky.

Once again... just like the sound of a trumpet... the moon will be darkened and depending on what time of the day or night that it is when our Messiah returns... the sun may not be giving it’s light either. If our Messiah was to arrive during the night after sundown... the sun nor the moon would be giving its light. And it makes perfect sense that he would return on the seventh month... the number 7 representing a holy number of completion in the Bible.

And yet many people will once again rightly proclaim that it is written that we do not know the day nor the hour and once again... we agree! Think about it. Even if our Father in heaven is pointing to the return of our Messiah as being on the Day of Trumpets... we still do not know which day of Trumpets and we still do not know at what hour of the day or night he may come. And so... this objection is once again taken out of the way and removed from the equation.

In the end... we will see if this is indeed the way that our Messiah will return and I suspect that we will all know sooner than latter when it actually happens, but from what we have already seen through his fulfilling the Spring Feast days... there is no reason not to believe that he not only could... but most likely would... also fulfill these Fall Feast Days just as he did in the Spring. And once again... today’s modern-day Church is not concerned with these things because once again... they neither see him... nor know him. While still continuing on in their belief of the Roman Catholic Pope and his 1st day of the week Sunday Sabbaths and his feast days and his festivals... they have willfully and intentionally made void the word of God in order to hold onto their own traditions.

Is it any wonder why our Messiah tells us that he will come like a thief in the night to the world but that he will not come like a thief in the night to us? Is it any wonder why our Messiah calls those who cannot interpret the times “hypocrites”? They honor him with their lips... but their hearts are far from him.

Let us pray this very day... and give thanks for the measure of insight and the wisdom that can only come from him and his spoken word that we have been given. Let us look up into the heavens this very day and proclaim our love and admiration and adoration for him and his wisdom that he loves to share with us as his set apart people. And let us keep our feet planted firmly on the ground as we remain sober minded and watching in anticipation of his soon coming return.

There is much, much more to know about the Fall Feast Days that our Father has given us to keep in remembrance and why... and we will once again pick up where we left off next Wednesday evening at 7pm Eastern Standard time when we talk more about not only the Day of Atonement... but also the Feast of Tabernacles when our Father and his only begotten Son will once again Tabernacle with us just as he did back in the days of Adam and Eve.

Until then... I will once again... as I always do simply ask everyone within the sound of my voice to take what you have heard here this evening to your own prayer closet. Bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here this evening be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone, and the proper door will be opened to you. And if you will do that... and if you will stay the course to the end... you and I will surely walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom.
