Leviticus Chapter 23h The Spring Moed Conclusion

Once again, welcome to the 8th study of our series into the 23rd chapter of Leviticus this evening and thank you so very much for sharing your time with us here this evening as we take the time to look back at what we've learned over the past 8 weeks concerning the appointments or "moed" of our Father in heaven and why it is that he tells us to keep them in remembrance of him forever and throughout our generations.

Now that we have been through the spring appointments of our Father in some detail... the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus begins to move into the Fall feast days and appointments of our Father in heaven but what's important to know and understand is that if we do not understand his Spring feast days and appointments and how he fulfilled them... we're certainly not going to understand his Fall feast days and appointments and how he will fulfill them when he returns.

The Church today by in large has thrown to the ground the appointments of our Father in heaven in order to hold onto their own traditions much like the Pharisees of our Messiah had done in his time. When a modern day Christian reads about our Passover Lamb in 1st Corinthians chapter 5 or about our High Priest in the order of Melkizedek in 1st Corinthians or the book of Hebrews... they have no idea or foundation upon which to properly understand what is being said in the New Testament because they have willfully and intentionally rejected the Old Testament because some wolf in sheep's clothing standing behind a pulpit in any one of over 50,000 different denominational empires has shamefully told them to read the book from the middle of the book instead of reading it from the beginning of the book the that way most people normally read a book. And this has become a great tragedy... a blunder... and a shameful practice that they do.

I think that most of you who have been with us throughout these past eight weeks of study will agree with me when I say that you simply cannot understand the New Testament without properly understanding the Old... and why is that? It is because our Father in heaven proclaims the end... from the beginning. He does not proclaim the end from the middle. Therefore... if we truly want to understand him and his only begotten Son that he sent into the world to re-claim us for himself... we need to read the beginning of the book that introduces him and his only begotten Son to us because it is here in the beginning of the book that the foundations of his truth were first established and set in stone.

We've learned a lot together over the past eight weeks of study but one of the most important things that we've learned about our Father's feast days and appointments is that these are his appointments and feast days. They belong to no other than him. They do not belong to the Jews... or to the Muslims, or to the Church, or to any one denominational empire, or to any angel, Apostle or Prophet including Moses himself. These appointed times... these feast days... these moed... belong to no other than to Yehovah God himself and the very first two sentences of Leviticus chapter 23 make this perfectly clear. And if that were not enough... our Father in heaven has repeated this claim not only in the beginning of Leviticus chapter 23 but also again at the end of Leviticus chapter 23 where it is written, and I quote... "Thus Moses declared to the people of Israel the appointed appointments of Yehvoah". And your King James version or your English Standard version of the Bible may say "the appointed feasts of the LORD" but if we will go back and take a close look at the actual Hebrew translation, we can clearly see that it says "the appointed appointments of Yehoavh". Once again, it does not say "feasts" and it does not say "LORD". These are two English words that often times lead us in the wrong direction.

And so, the fact that these two very important facts are made clear at both the beginning of Leviticus chapter 23 and again at the end of Leviticus chapter 23 as well as all throughout Leviticus chapter 23 is really kind of hard to get away from don't you think? And yet the Church by in large teaches that these appointment all belong to the Jews, and because they belong to the Jews... we don't have to be bothered with them.

Two of the most important facts to know about our Father's appointments are that number one... these appointments belong to him and him alone... and fact number two... is his name is signed within this statement that comes directly from him. Once again... the word "LORD" in our English translated Bibles is a monumental blooper and blunder made by the translators of the King James Version of our English translated Bibles and most all other copies of our English translated Bibles have followed suit by covering up the very name of God that he wrote in his Bible over 6519 times. The word "LORD" in capital letters stands as a witness against us, and it reminds us of the evil that men do without even thinking about the consequences of their foolish actions.

It is written in both Deuteronomy chapters 4 and 12 that it is a sin to add to... or to take away from... the spoken word of Yehvoah God. But what has man done time and time again? Man has taken the liberty of doing exactly that by changing his spoken word in order to usurp his authority and power. You see... this is why the Babylonian Rabbis hid the very name of Yehvoah God from us. Only they wanted to know it. Only they wanted to be able to use it. Only they thought that they were privileged enough to know it. And this is exactly why the Roman Catholic Church hid the Scriptures from the people in the Dark Ages by translating the Scriptures into the lost language of Latin! This is why they murdered men, women and children for simply owning or reading a bible that they were not allowed to have. The Roman Catholic Church murdered in cold blood whole societies of people like the Waldenses and the Albigenses and the Hussites for simply reading a bible for themselves. The very Bible that you hold in your hands today was the very reason that the Roman Catholic Church murdered millions of people... and why? Because it was all about... "power". Power and authority that they themselves had attempted to steal from Yehvoah God himself. True God-fearing Messiah following cross bearing men who were trying to translate the Scriptures back into their own native tongue so that the people could have them were ruthlessly strangled in the middle of their hometowns while being set on fire in front of everyone for simply translating the Bible into their native tongue so that people could read it.

Most modern-day professing Christians have no idea or concept of their own church history or why it is that they keep a Catholic Created first day of the week Sunday Sabbath, or a Catholic created "Good Friday" or a Catholic created pagan "Easter Sunday Morning". They have no idea what they are following or why they are following these man-made festivals and feast days and Sabbaths. And why? Because they have been conveniently pre-programed by the church today and her denominational empires... not to read the first half of the book because they say... that it's all been done away with and not only has it been done away with... but it is a curse. And once again... our adversary dances in victory because he has once again added to... and taken away from the word of God in order to create his own traditions. Listen closely to what the Roman Catholic church has to say about the Bible which is the spoken word of God... (scrn 1)

“Now the Scriptures alone do not contain all the truths which a Christian is bound to believe, because they do not contain all the truths necessary for salvation”

Cardinal James Gibbons “Faith of Our Fathers” p.108

(scrn 2)

“The supremacy of the Bible as source of faith is unhistorical, illogical, fatal to the virtue of faith, and destructive to unity”

New Advent Catholic Encyclopedia
under the term “Protestantism”

But just like Yehvoah saw fit to give us back his God breathed Scripture and just like Yehoavh God saw fit to restrain the Devils church... Yehovah God has also seen fit to call many of us back to his God breathed Scripture and the life-giving truth that it holds. And so it is that you and I this day are here... to ask, to seek, and to knock on his door and his door alone so that the proper door... can be opened to us.

Many are called... but only few are chosen. Straight is the gate and narrow is the path and only few their be that find it... but just as we have seen all throughout the Bible... Yehoavh always saves for himself a remnant. And it will indeed be that remnant of mankind that will see the crown of life given to them while the world fades away never to be seen again.

These appointments and feast days that belong to the one true Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob are indeed what mark us as his chosen set apart people. They are what help us to know how to love him properly and how to pay homage to him and to worship him the way that he... wants to be worshiped and the way that we choose to worship him. Deuteronomy 12:29-32 E2

Warning Against Idolatry

Deu 12:29 "When the LORD your God cuts off before you the nations whom you go in to dispossess, and you dispossess them and dwell in their land,

Deu 12:30 take care that you be not ensnared to follow them, after they have been destroyed before you, and that you do not inquire about their gods, saying, 'How did these nations serve their gods?—that I also may do the same.'

Deu 12:31 You shall not worship the LORD your God in that way, for every abominable thing that the LORD hates they have done for their gods, for they even burn their sons and their daughters in the fire to their gods.

Deu 12:32 "Everything that I command you, you shall be careful to do. You shall not add to it or take from it.

We were warned from the beginning not to follow after these nations. We were warned not to worship our Elohim... our God in the same way that these pagan nations worshiped their gods. Our Father tells us very clearly that he does not want to be worshiped the way that these pagan nations worship their gods. Yehovah God our Elohim... the Most High El-Elyon God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob wants to be worshiped the way that he... wants to be worshiped. Not the way that we choose... to worship him.

And to this very day these pagan people are still burning their children in the fire to their god of convenience through the abomination of abortion that they do.

Nothing has changed. And just as wise old Solomon so eloquently put it... there is nothing new under the sun. What will be... has already been done. And so it is... that our Father in heaven does indeed proclaim the end... from the beginning.

And yet... there are still those in the world today who have been given the eyes to see... and the ears to hear. And for that alone... we have been blessed abundantly! (scrn 1)

Over the past eight weeks we have not only learned what our Father's name is that he has written within his God breathed Scripture over 6519 times... but we have also learned that these appointments and feast days that he commands us to keep throughout our generations belong to him and to him alone. And we have learned that his 7th Day Sabbath which is the only Sabbath commanded by anyone anywhere within the confines of our God Breathed Scripture is a sign between him and us.

Isn't amazing how everyone wants to know what the mark of the beast is... but hardly anyone wants to know what the mark of God is?

We've learned that the Passover and the feast of Unleavened Bread are directly linked one to another and the very Passover meal itself is to be eaten on the first day of the feast of Unleavened Bread because it is to be done in remembrance of Yah's people being rescued out of Egypt during the Exodus of Moses.

The Passover was not only the very day that our Passover Lamb was crucified according to all four Gospel of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John... but it was also the day that the house of Israel plundered Egypt and was rescued out from under the hand of the Pharaoh of Egypt who signified the Serpent himself!

It was our Passover Lamb... who is Yeshua Hamashiach, (Jesus the Messiah) who crushed the head of the Serpent at the foot of the cross on that very day. The Exodus of Moses rescuing the people out from under the evil hand of the Egyptian Pharaoh was a shadow picture of our Messiah rescuing us once again... out from under the hand of that same Serpent by crushing his head at the foot of the cross and taking away our transgressions that the Serpent had lead us into. And this is exactly why our Messiah was likened unto Moses according to scripture!

Deuteronomy 18:15-19 E3

A New Prophet like Moses

Deu 18:15 "The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among you, from your brothers—it is to him you shall listen—

Deu 18:16 just as you desired of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly, when you said, 'Let me not hear again the voice of the LORD my God or see this great fire any more, lest I die.'

Deu 18:17 And the LORD said to me, 'They are right in what they have spoken.

Deu 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers. And I will put my words in his mouth, and he shall speak to them all that I command him.

Deu 18:19 And whoever will not listen to my words that he shall speak in my name, I myself will require it of him.

This Prophet likened unto Moses is our Messiah who once again came to write the law of his Father across our hearts and in our minds so that we would do his will and not our own. And once again the prophecy of our Father in heaven still lives on today... Deuteronomy 30:11-20
E4

The Choice of Life and Death

Deu 30:11 "For this commandment that I command you today is not too hard for you, neither is it far off.

Deu 30:12 It is not in heaven, that you should say, 'Who will ascend to heaven for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'

Deu 30:13 Neither is it beyond the sea, that you should say, 'Who will go over the sea for us and bring it to us, that we may hear it and do it?'

Deu 30:14 But the word is very near you. It is in your mouth and in your heart, so that you can do it.

Deu 30:15 "See, I have set before you today life and good, death and evil.

Deu 30:16 If you obey the commandments of the LORD your God that I command you today, by loving the LORD your God, by walking in his ways, and by keeping his commandments and his statutes and his rules, then you shall live and multiply, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land that you are entering to take possession of it.

Deu 30:17 But if your heart turns away, and you will not hear, but are drawn away to worship other gods and serve them,

Deu 30:18 I declare to you today, that you shall surely perish. You shall not live long in the land that you are going over the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deu 30:19 I call heaven and earth to witness against you today, that I have set before you life and death, blessing and curse. Therefore choose life, that you and your offspring may live,

Deu 30:20 loving the LORD your God, obeying his voice and holding fast to him, for he is your life and length of days, that you may dwell in the land that the LORD swore to your fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob, to give them."

Once again, the Church today by in large proclaims that the law of Yehvoah God is just too hard for you to keep and that no one can keep it. But that's a far cry from what both Yehvoah God says here in the book of Deuteronomy chapter 30 and our Messiah says in Luke chapter 16 (scrn 2)

The Law and the Kingdom of God

Luk 16:14 The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, heard all these things, and they ridiculed him.

Luk 16:15 And he said to them, “You are those who justify yourselves before men, but God knows your hearts. For what is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.

Luk 16:16 ‘The Law and the Prophets were until John; since then the good news of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone forces his way into it.

Luk 16:17 But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away than for one dot of the Law to become void.

According to the very red-letter words of our own Messiah it is easier for both heaven and earth to pass away than it is for even one dot of the law to become void. And furthermore... our Messiah tells us in verse 15... that what is exalted among men... is the abomination in God's eyes. Once again, our Messiah is found turning the tables on the wicked traditions and laws of men and pointing them right back the law of his Father that he said is impossible to be made void. (scrn 3)

The Spring Appointments of Yehvoah God!

- The Moed or Appointments of Yah
- The 7th Day Sabbath Sign
- The Passover and Unleavened Bread link
- The First Fruit Resurrection And the High Priest
- The Feast of Weeks (Pentecost / Shavuot)

We also spoke about why it is that our Messiah was raised up not on a Roman rooted pagan Easter Sunday morning... but on his Father's First Fruits which falls on the first day after the Sabbath after the Passover. After being in the earth for three days and for three nights just as he promised that he would be in Matthew chapter 12... Yehovah God raised him up on First Fruits as our High Priest in the order of Melkizedek to wave the sheaf offering before his Father signaling the new incoming harvest that is... you and I my friends... so that we could be accepted according to... Leviticus chapter 23 verse 11 (scrn 4)

Our High Priest Raised Up On First Fruits

Lev 23:9 And the LORD spoke to Moses, saying,

Lev 23:10 “Speak to the people of Israel and say to them, When you come into the land that I give you and reap its harvest, you shall bring the sheaf of the firstfruits of your harvest to the priest,

Lev 23:11 and he shall wave the sheaf before the LORD, so that you may be accepted. On the day after the Sabbath the priest shall wave it.

Once again, our Father in heaven does nothing hap hazardly. He does nothing by coincidence. Everything that he does... he does on purpose and with calculation to teach and to share, and to help us understand why he is... the Most High God of heaven and earth.

We also spoke about the last and final Spring appointment of our Father in heaven which is also known as “The Feast of Weeks” which is also known as both “Shavuot” and “Pentecost” in the New Testament, and we spoke about why the giving of the Ruach Hakodesh... (the Holy Spirit) was so monumental on that particular day.

We spoke about the very reason that people were gathered from all over the earth in Jerusalem on that very day before the Holy Spirit was given, and we discovered that these people were not gathered together on that day to receive the Holy Spirit of Yehovah God... they had no idea what was about to happen. The very reason that they were gathered together on that special day is because they were celebrating “Shavuot” which is the day that they knew that Moses had delivered his law on Mount Saini thousands of years ago.

And so... here on the day of Pentecost when the Apostles were gathered together in a room in Jerusalem... Yehovah had thousands of Jews waiting just outside who were celebrating the giving of Yahovah’s law back in the days of Moses!

And what did Yahovah’s Ruach bring that day? What did his Holy Spirit deliver to them once again? His Holy Spirit on that very same day delivered his law once again... but this time not written on two tablets of stone by the finger of God... but his law would this time be written on the hearts and in the minds of his people by the finger of God so that they could... once again be his people and so that he could... once again be their God!

When they had learned what their Messiah had done for them... and when they had learned that they themselves had crucified him, their hearts were broken... and they cried out... “what should we do?” And Peter told them... to repent and be baptized everyone of you in the name of Yeshua Hamashach for the remission of your sins and you will receive... the Holy Spirit, for the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone whom the Lord our God shall call. And it was at that moment... that the law of Yehvoah God was written across their hearts and in their minds and just as our beloved Messiah had prophesied... not one dot of his Father’s law had become void. It had once again... become flesh so that... we could follow him back to our Father who had once banished us from the tree of life back in the garden of Eden. That path... that leads back to that very tree of life... was on that day revealed to all who had received his Holy Spirit within themselves. And today... that same path back to the tree of life is revealed to all who willfully and intentionally accept that very same Holy Spirit into their hearts and minds to this very day. (scrn 5)

- How Yeshua Jesus fulfilled The Spring Feast Moed
- The Barley And The Month of Aviv
- The Three Feast Day Convocations
- Our Passover Lamb And High Priest
- Being Unleavened And Without Sin (Leaven)
- Why We Are To Remember The Exodus

During the past eight weeks we’ve studied just how our Messiah fulfilled the spring appointments of his Father and we even went into some detail about the barley and why the first month of the year is called “the month of ripened barley” according to our Father in heaven and we spoke about how even the barley itself that tells us when the first month of the year has arrived has been attacked by our adversary through the auspices of men who have now re-engineered the barley to come in at different times of the year in an attempt to hide the very calendar of our Father in heaven and why it is that we must be careful when choosing which barley to watch for.

We also went into some detail about the fact that not all of what we call our Father's "Feast Days" are indeed "Feast Days". There are actually seven different appointments out of the year that we are called to keep in remembrance but... only three of them are actual "feasts" where a "feast" is required to be kept. And these are the three special appointments where we are commanded to gather together where Yehovah has put his name, and of course we know that today his name resides within each one of us. We are his temple until his earthly temple is re-established and put back into order, and that in of itself is another teaching that we don't have time for here today, but the point is... that it is because his Ruach Hakodesh has written his law in our hearts that we know it pleases him to see us keeping his commanded appointments in remembrance of him, and this is the very definition of the love of God found in the New Testament in 1st John 5:3. (scrn 6)

- The High Priest of First Fruits Why Wave The Sheaf?
- The Pre-Requisite Of Our Messiah To Be Our Messiah

- The Holy Spirit And Where It Comes From
- The Oneness Of The Body

We also spoke about the fact that the Apostle Paul tells us to keep the festival of the Passover in 1st Corinthians chapter 5 verse 8 when he tells us to therefore celebrate the festival not with the old leaven, the leaven of malice and evil, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth, and this is once again completely missed by the church today who is completely oblivious as to what festival the Apostle Paul is even speaking about because of their rejection of the Old Testament and anything Jewish. And what a shame it is that they have willfully and intentionally forgotten the commandment of God himself in order to hold onto their own traditions.

We also spoke about the many different pre-requisites that the Old Testament gives us that were required of our Messiah in order to be... our Messiah.

How do most modern-day Christians know that the Jesus that they speak of even is the Messiah? How do today's modern-day Christians test the scripture to know if he is the true Messiah or a false Messiah? I tell you the truth my friends... without a proper understanding of the Old Testament... we have no way of testing to see if our Messiah even qualifies to be... the Messiah. All of the qualifications that were set forth by our Father in heaven for the identification of our Messiah are all found in the Old Testament... not the New. The New Testament is once again... the fulfilment of the Old, not the other way around. And we have seen many of the qualifications that our Messiah has passed in order to be our Messiah however... today's modern day version of our Messiah that many call "Jesus"... does not qualify as the Messiah according to Scripture.

The very word of Yehvoah God is the qualifier itself! But the Church today proclaims that it's newfound "Jesus" came to do away with his Father's law, and to get rid of his seventh day Sabbath. Their newfound "Jesus" came to do away with his Father's commanded appointments and to celebrate his own birthday and create his own Sabbaths and to push his Father into retirement while he himself takes over the world. Even though... that's not what we find anywhere within either the Old or the New Testaments. 1st Corinthians 15:20-24 (scrn 7)

When He Delivers The Kingdom To... God The Father!

1Co 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

1Co 15:21 For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

1Co 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

1Co 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1Co 15:24 Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

Some of the very things that qualify our Messiah to be our Messiah are found in the 23rd chapter of the book of Leviticus that he has fulfilled, and it is this “First Fruit” of the new harvest that is the firstborn of the resurrection that has become the door that no man can shut. (scrn 8)

- The Giving of The Holy Spirit In Both The Old And The New
- The New Covenant and What Delivered It To Us

We also spoke over the last eight weeks of how Yehovah God chose both Jerusalem and David to be his own possession. He chose Jerusalem to be the place on earth where he would put his very name, and he chose David to be the very man that he would bring our Messiah forth from in 2nd Samuel chapter 7. (scrn 9)

The Chosen Place And Throne of God...

2Ch 6:5 'Since the day that I brought my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel in which to build a house, that my name might be there, and I chose no man as prince over my people Israel; 2Ch 6:6 but I have chosen Jerusalem that my name may be there, and I have chosen David to be over my people Israel.'

And so it is, that the name of the one true Most High Elohim of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob does to this very day reside in Jerusalem, and it is indeed in Jerusalem that our Father has selected the throne of David to also be in. And this is exactly why when the abomination of desolation sits in the Temple of God our Father in heaven will wax hot. 2nd Thessalonians 2:1—12 E5

The Man of Lawlessness

2Th 2:1 Now concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our being gathered together to him, we ask you, brothers, 2Th 2:2 not to be quickly shaken in mind or alarmed, either by a spirit or a spoken word, or a letter seeming to be from us, to the effect that the day of the Lord has come.

2Th 2:3 Let no one deceive you in any way. For that day will not come, unless the rebellion comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction, 2Th 2:4 who opposes and exalts himself against every so-called god or object of worship, so that he takes his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming himself to be God.

2Th 2:5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you I told you these things?

2Th 2:6 And you know what is restraining him now so that he may be revealed in his time.

2Th 2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work. Only he who now restrains it will do so until he is out of the way.

2Th 2:8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, whom the Lord Jesus will kill with the breath of his mouth and bring to nothing by the appearance of his coming.

2Th 2:9 The coming of the lawless one is by the activity of Satan with all power and false signs and wonders,

2Th 2:10 and with all wicked deception for those who are perishing, because they refused to love the truth and so be saved.

2Th 2:11 Therefore God sends them a strong delusion, so that they may believe what is false, 2Th 2:12 in order that all may be condemned who did not believe the truth but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

How many times do we see the word “lawless” within this scripture? Now in your King James Version of your English translated Bible you may see words like “sin”. But what is sin according to 1st John 3:4? According to 1st John chapter verse 4... the biblical definition of the word “sin” is “the transgression of the law” once again meaning... lawlessness. And the words “iniquity” and “wicked” also appear in the King James Version of our English translated Bibles but these original Greek words “anomia” and “anomos” also... are Greek words that mean “lawless”. So do not be fooled my friends. There should be no doubt in our minds that the Apostle Paul is clearly telling us that this Anti-Christ will indeed be “lawless” which I would submit to you my friends is who the Church today clings to. It is this one in the same very “Lawless one”... that the church today unknowingly serves, and if our Messiah called the Pharisees of his time children of the devil because they added to and took away from his Father’s word... just who do we think the Church by in large is today? (SHOW THEM TIME PERMITTING)

We also spoke about why it's important to remember exactly what it was that our beloved Messiah has fulfilled and why, and we spoke about the giving of the Holy Spirit in both the Old and the New Testaments. And we made mention of those who had the Holy Spirit back in the Old Testament and who they were and why it was given to them, and we saw that it was, and is this same Ruach Hakodesh that has come once again to all who would believe and have faith in his only begotten Son the seed of Abraham and the descendant of David to write once again the law of Yehovah God in our hearts and in our minds so that we can once again be his people and so that he can once again be our God.

And we learned that through the Scripture and the Scripture alone which is his spoken word of God... that it would only be when our hearts of stone were removed that his law could be written in our hearts and it was this very thing that our Messiah did by being our innocent unblemished Passover Lamb who took our transgressions upon himself in order to remove our sins from us as far as the east is from the west. And we learned through the Scripture and the Scripture alone that when this heart transplant had taken place and only when this heart transplant had taken place... could we then become his children once again.

And we also learned about the warning given to us through the prophet Isaiah who warned us against trading the truth for a lie and a lie for the truth and trading what is sweet for what is bitter and what is bitter for what is sweet. (scrn 11)

Woe To Those Wo Call Evil Good And Good Evil..

Isa 5:20 Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter!

Isa 5:21 Woe to those who are wise in their own eyes, and shrewd in their own sight!

This very warning from the prophet Isaiah is once again re-taught in the New Testament in even more detail in Romans 1:18-32 E6

God's Wrath on Unrighteousness

Rom 1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who by their unrighteousness suppress the truth.

Rom 1:19 For what can be known about God is plain to them, because God has shown it to them.

Rom 1:20 For his invisible attributes, namely, his eternal power and divine nature, have been clearly perceived, ever since the creation of the world, in the things that have been made. So they are without excuse.

Rom 1:21 For although they knew God, they did not honor him as God or give thanks to him, but they became futile in their thinking, and their foolish hearts were darkened.

Rom 1:22 Claiming to be wise, they became fools,

Rom 1:23 and exchanged the glory of the immortal God for images resembling mortal man and birds and animals and creeping things.

Rom 1:24 Therefore God gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to impurity, to the dishonoring of their bodies among themselves,

Rom 1:25 because they exchanged the truth about God for a lie and worshiped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever! Amen.

Rom 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to dishonorable passions. For their women exchanged natural relations for those that are contrary to nature;

Rom 1:27 and the men likewise gave up natural relations with women and were consumed with passion for one another, men committing shameless acts with men and receiving in themselves the due penalty for their error.

Rom 1:28 And since they did not see fit to acknowledge God, God gave them up to a debased mind to do what ought not to be done.

Rom 1:29 They were filled with all manner of unrighteousness, evil, covetousness, malice. They are full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, maliciousness. They are gossips,

Rom 1:30 slanderers, haters of God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil, disobedient to parents,

Rom 1:31 foolish, faithless, heartless, ruthless.

Rom 1:32 Though they know God's righteous decree that those who practice such things deserve to die, they not only do them but give approval to those who practice them.

I ask you plainly my friends... what have today's denominational empires of dirt done, and what are they doing today in our time? Once again... an old preacher by the name of Albert Finney once wrote that it is the preachers who are wholly responsible for the moral decline in our society. Listen closely to what he once wrote so many years ago back in 1875; (scrn 12)

The Pulpit Is Responsible!

Brethren, our preaching will bear its legitimate fruits. If immorality prevails in the land, the fault is ours in a great degree. If there is a decay of conscience, the pulpit is responsible for it.

If the public press lacks moral discrimination, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the church is degenerate and worldly, the pulpit is responsible for it. If the world loses its interest in religion, the pulpit is responsible for it. If Satan rules in our halls of legislation, the pulpit is responsible for it.

If our politics become so corrupt that the very foundations of our government are ready to fall away, the pulpit is responsible for it.

Let us not ignore this fact, my dear brethren; but let us lay it to heart, and be thoroughly awake to our responsibility in respect to the morals of this nation.

The Rev. Charles Finney (d. 1875)

I do not know that I would agree with everything that the Reverend Charles Finney may have believed and taught... but I do know this... we are indeed in agreement on his declaration that the pulpit is indeed responsible for the moral decline of the nations of the world.

The Church today has fallen into the hands of Rome her mother Church and she has been sifted by our adversary who is like a prowling lion lurking in the shadows to see whom he can drag back into the darkness. She has become lawless and ruled by darkness through the mixing and mingling of truth and lie which is exactly what happens when we add to... and take away from... Yahovah's law.

It is these very feast days and appointments that we read about in Leviticus chapter 23 that are the spoken word of our Father in heaven that we must hear and obey. (scrn 13)

The Shema... The Greatest Commandment!

Deu 6:4 "Hear, O Israel: Yehovah our God, Yehovah is one.

Deu 6:5 You shall love Yehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your might.

Deu 6:6 And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart.

Deu 6:7 You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down and when you rise.

Deu 6:8 You shall bind them as a sign on your hand, and they shall be as frontlets between your eyes.

Deu 6:9 You shall write them on the doorposts of your house and on your gates.

Next week, we'll move into the Fall feast days and appointments of our Father in heaven and we will talk more about how it is that we know our Messiah will fulfill these Fall feast days of his Father just like he fulfilled the Spring feast days of his Father, and why it is that we may not know the day and the hour... but we do know the season of his return!

And so, with that being said we are just about out of time for this evening and so as we close the books for today I will as I always do simply ask everyone within the sound of my voice to take what you have heard here this evening to your own prayer closet. Bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here this evening be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone, and the proper door will be opened to you. And if you will do that... and if you will stay the course to the end... you and I will surely walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom.
