

Leviticus Chapter 23j Atonement!

Before we become to entrenched in our study this evening concerning the fall feast days and appointments of our Father in heaven, I'd like to just go back over and refresh some of what we've spoken about last week concerning the day of Trumpets also known as Yom Teruah.

During last weeks study we looked back at just how our Messiah had fulfilled all of the Spring feast days and appointments of his Father when he came the first time... and we talked about why our Messiah is referred to our Passover Lamb, and the First Fruit of the resurrection, and our High Priest in the order of Melkizedek in the New Testament. These titles that we read about in the New Testament have no real meaning to most of today's modern day Christian population because most of today's modern day Christian population does not read the first half of their Bibles for themselves because most modern day Pastors themselves have no real concept of the Old Testament or what it proclaims because they themselves have for the most part been taught that the Old Testament is no longer binding concerning today's modern day version of Christianity. But the truth is there for all to read if they so choose to read it.

Just a few weeks ago I was approached by a women who was trying to get her husband to watch one of our video teachings concerning the Holy Spirit and after her husband had watched the video teaching he had told his wife that he didn't believe what we were teaching because that was all for the Jews.

Once again... anyone who truly wants to know the truth must indeed commit themselves to study. No one hour teaching is going to give anyone all of the answers that they're looking for concerning the truth (that is... if they're truly seeking the truth). And this is why it is written that these kinds of people keep on hearing but do not understand, and keep on seeing but do not perceive.

Yehovah God our Father told the prophet Isaiah at the end of King Uzziah reign that the people of Israel willfully and intentionally wondered in the wilderness with eyes that could not see and ears that could not hear because they had rejected the knowledge that was given them. Isaiah 6:8-10 (scrn 1)

Isaiah's Commission from the Yehovah

Isa 6:8 And I heard the voice of the Lord saying, “Whom shall I send, and who will go for us?” Then I said, “Here I am! Send me.”

Isa 6:9 And he said, “Go, and say to this people: “Keep on hearing, but do not understand; keep on seeing, but do not perceive.”

Isa 6:10 Make the heart of this people dull, and their ears heavy, and blind their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their hearts, and turn and be healed.”

And this is exactly what happens when we hear the truth and then willfully and intentionally turn from it and flat our reject the truth that we have just heard. It is written “My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge because they have rejected knowledge”. And once again, what we see right here in the book of Isaiah was repeated by our Messiah in Matthew 13:13-15 (scrn 2)

Neither Seeing Nor Hearing...

Mat 13:13 This is why I speak to them in parables, because seeing they do not see, and hearing they do not hear, nor do they understand.

Mat 13:14 Indeed, in their case the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled that says: “““You will indeed hear but never understand, and you will indeed see but never perceive.””

Mat 13:15 For this people's heart has grown dull, and with their ears they can barely hear, and their eyes they have closed, lest they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and turn, and I would heal them.’

It hurts our hearts to know that there are people in the world today who know the truth and are desperately trying to reach their loved ones, but their loved ones will simply not take the time to sit down and study for themselves in order to see the truth or to seek after it. For them... it is much easier to sit in a church pew on the wrong day of the week calling it the Sabbath while listening to a man standing behind a denominational pulpit who has no eyes to see and no ears to hear the truth because he and his man-made denominational charter of men do indeed hear but never understand and see but never truly perceive... because all they ever follow after are their so called “early church fathers, bible commentators” and their man-made “denominational charters of men”.

It is indeed a sad state that we are in this very evening and I tell you the truth my friends... it’s going to get a lot worse before it gets better. Our Messiah did not hold back the truth from us. He told us that a time was coming that would be so bad that it had never been seen before and a time that is so bad that it will never be seen again. He told us that we would have trials and tribulations, he told us that they would even murder us thinking that they do God service. John 16:1-3 (scrn 3)

They Will Kill You Thinking
They Are Offering Service To God..

Joh 16:1 “I have said all these things to you to keep you from falling away.

Joh 16:2 They will put you out of the synagogues. Indeed, the hour is coming when whoever kills you will think he is offering service to God.

Joh 16:3 And they will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me.

And we must remember that this is exactly what the Pastors, Priests, Bishops and Popish leaders of our Messiah did to our Messiah himself! The great deception has already started and although I do believe that an even greater deception shall spring forth from this one as it evolves... we need to know that we were told that this deception would even fool if possible, the very elect. Matthew 24:21-25 (scrn 4)

If Possible Even The Elect...

Mat 24:21 For then there will be great tribulation, such as has not been from the beginning of the world until now, no, and never will be.

Mat 24:22 And if those days had not been cut short, no human being would be saved. But for the sake of the elect those days will be cut short.

Mat 24:23 Then if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Christ!' or 'There he is!' do not believe it.

Mat 24:24 For false christs and false prophets will arise and perform great signs and wonders, so as to lead astray, if possible, even the elect.

Mat 24:25 See, I have told you beforehand.

And so, when we read about how and why our Messiah is our Passover Lamb, and the First Fruit of the resurrection and our High Priest we need to know and understand where these titles are coming from. We need to know and understand why the Apostles saw our Messiah as our Passover Lamb and why they saw him as the First Fruits of the resurrection and why they saw him as our High Priest. They called him these things because just as Pilot had written over the head of our Messiah and had tacked onto his cross... he was, is, and always will be... the king of the Jews. A King put in place by his Father on his holy hill in Zion. Psalms 2 E1

The Reign of the Lord's Anointed

Psa 2:1 Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

Psa 2:2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD and against his Anointed, saying,

Psa 2:3 "Let us burst their bonds apart and cast away their cords from us."

Psa 2:4 He who sits in the heavens laughs; the Lord holds them in derision.

Psa 2:5 Then he will speak to them in his wrath, and terrify them in his fury, saying,

Psa 2:6 "As for me, I have set my King on Zion, my holy hill."

Psa 2:7 I will tell of the decree: The LORD said to me, "You are my Son; today I have begotten you."

Psa 2:8 Ask of me, and I will make the nations your heritage, and the ends of the earth your possession.

Psa 2:9 You shall break them with a rod of iron and dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."

Psa 2:10 Now therefore, O kings, be wise; be warned, O rulers of the earth.

Psa 2:11 Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

Psa 2:12 Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, for his wrath is quickly kindled. Blessed are all who take refuge in him.

I find it rather ironic that a gentile pagan roman ruler knew who our Messiah was more so than did his own people. And how ironic is it today in our time that once again those who call themselves his people still... know nothing about him or who he truly was, is, and always will be, or what he came to fulfill, or what his purpose was in coming in the first place.

We must always remember while reading these precious God breathed Scriptures that the very purpose that our Messiah came and was raised up from among the house of Israel and the very body of David to be the Son of God was to bring us back to his Father who is the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. He did not come to re-create his own Sabbath and to celebrate his own birthday and to kick dirt over his Fathers commanded feast days and appointments... he came so that we would remember them because they all point directly to him and the grace and the mercy of his Father who sent him.

And so... just as we've said so many times before... let us have the eyes to see and the ears to hear the truth of the matter. Let us weigh what these modern-day Pharisees and Scribes today are preaching and teaching. Let us remember that it was they... who could not even recognize their own Messiah when he was standing right before them looking them straight in the eye. And let us not return like a dog to its vomit or like a pig to its mire but let us take heed and pay attention not to what man says... but to what Yehvoah God says within the confines of his God breathed Scripture.

The world will do as the world always does and just as the prophet Hoseah has already told us... God's people are destroyed for lack of knowledge not because they have not been given knowledge... but because they have rejected the knowledge that they have been given.

Keeping that in mind... as we have said in great detail last week during our study into the Fall Fest Days... there is no reason to think that our Messiah will not fulfill his Father's Fall Feast Days just like he fulfilled his Father's spring Fest Days when we returns to us the second and final time.

And just to once again remind us of what we have already made mention of... I'd like to once again expound upon the fact that our Messiah often spoke in parables (scrn 5)

Our Messiah's Parables

The parable of the sower..... Mat 13:3-8
The parable of the weeds.....Mat 13:24-30
The parable of the mustard seed.....Mat 13:31-32
The parable of the yeast .....Mat 13:33
The parable of the hidden treasure .... Mat 13:44
The parable of the pearl.....Mat 13:45-46
The parable of the fishing net.....Mat 13:47-50

And so, once again, we can see that both our Father in heaven and our Messiah often times spoke in riddles and parables. Even Yehovah God told Arron and Miriam that he speaks to his prophets in dreams and riddles in the book of Numbers 12:6-8 (scrn 6)

God Speaks In Visions And Riddles

Num 12:6 And he said, “Hear my words: If there is a prophet among you, I the LORD make myself known to him in a vision; I speak with him in a dream.

Num 12:7 Not so with my servant Moses. He is faithful in all my house.

Num 12:8 With him I speak mouth to mouth, clearly, and not in riddles, and he beholds the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

And this is important for us to remember because just as the Apostle Paul tells us in the New Testament in Romans chapter 7 verse 14, we know that the law is Spiritual. And therefore... it should be understood that only the spiritual would have the eyes to see and the ears to hear what the law... that is spiritual is trying to show us.

Clearly today's modern day "Church" has lost its eyes to see and its ears to hear or they would be doing the Feast Days of Yehvoah God and keeping the appointments of Yehovah God in remembrance of him and honoring him the exact same way that his only begotten Son honored him. But that's not what they're doing. They are teaching and preaching in direct opposition to our Father's word who our Messiah became.

They teach their own man-made charismatic prosperity gospel that not only denies the word of God written in his Torah... his law... his word... but also denies the life that it brings!

And so, once, again, as we journey through these precious God breathed Scripture in Leviticus chapter 23 and we read about his Fall Feast Days and appointments... let us keep these things in mind and let us read them with the guidance of the Sprit that we've been given and not through the lens of mans so called "early church fathers" and denominational empires of dirt.

If the Spring Feast Days and appointments of Yehvoah God were fulfilled by our Messiah during his first coming, then it should be more than obvious to us that he will in like wise fulfill his Father's Fall Feast Days and appointments when he returns and once again... let us go back and understand that our Messiah will not return to us like a thief in the night as the church today often times preaches and teaches. (scrn 7)

But You Are Not In Darkness
For That Day To Surprise You Like A Thief!

1Th 5:1 Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you.

1Th 5:2 For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1Th 5:3 While people are saying, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

1Th 5:4 But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief.

1Th 5:5 For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness.

1Th 5:6 So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober.

And so, it should be understood that our Messiah wants us to be able to interpret the present time and he also does not want us to be in darkness but always walking in the light of the Spirit that we've been given, and this is exactly why it makes perfect sense to once again know what these Fall Feast Days and appointments are all about so that we can have the eyes to see and the ears to hear what it is that he wants us to see and hear. (scrn 8)

The Day of The Return:

Day of Return

- After the Tribulation
- No light from the sun or the moon
- A trumpet call will be sounded
- He will then... gather his elect

Day of Trumpets

- 7th Month (the number 7 = complete)
- No Light from the sun or the moon
- A trumpet call will be sounded

Once again, it's important to understand the similarities between the day of Trumpet and the day of the return of our Messiah according to Scripture. Once again, we are told that our Messiah will return after the tribulation in Matthew chapter 24 verse 29, and in verse 31 he tells us once again about the loud trumpet call that will be heard upon his return.

The day of Trumpets happens in the 7th Month which is a biblical number that points to completion.

The Scripture tells us that neither the moon or the sun will be giving it's light on the day of the return of our Messiah. Neither the moon nor the sun will be giving its light on the first of the Month when a new moon is hanging dark in the sky.

Again, we know that on the return of our Messiah a loud trumpet call will be heard. On the day of Trumpets, we are to sound the trumpets and make a loud noise and this is why it is called "Yom Teruah" or "The Day of Trumpets".

And we are also told that it is at this point in time that he will gather his elect according to our Messiah in Matthew chapter 24 verse 31. All of this lines up rather conveniently with the day of Trumpets not to mention what happens 10 days later which is known as the day of Atonement.

Once our Messiah gathers his elect and the world sees the sign of the Son of man coming on the clouds with power and great glory. And isn't it ironic that the very next thing that happens is the day of Atonement when it was commanded that the house of Israel would be forgiven of it's sin and it's transgressions? Isn't it strange that we are told to afflict ourselves on that day? This day of Atonement is not only for the House of Israel and Yehvoah God's people to be forgiven... but it is also the day when his chosen set apart people will witness his justice upon the world and be afflicted!

I would like us to listen very closely to what is written in the book of Joel concerning the return of our Messiah to the earth. Joel chapter 2 E2

THE DAY OF ATONMENT THE RETURN!

Joe 2:1 Blow a trumpet in Zion; sound an alarm on my holy mountain! Let all the inhabitants of the land tremble, for the day of the LORD is coming; it is near,

Joe 2:2 a day of darkness and gloom, a day of clouds and thick darkness! Like blackness there is spread upon the mountains a great and powerful people; their like has never been before, nor will be again after them through the years of all generations.

Joe 2:3 Fire devours before them, and behind them a flame burns. The land is like the garden of Eden before them, but behind them a desolate wilderness, and nothing escapes them.

Joe 2:4 Their appearance is like the appearance of horses, and like war horses they run.

Joe 2:5 As with the rumbling of chariots, they leap on the tops of the mountains, like the crackling of a flame of fire devouring the stubble, like a powerful army drawn up for battle.

Joe 2:6 Before them peoples are in anguish; all faces grow pale.

Joe 2:7 Like warriors they charge; like soldiers they scale the wall. They march each on his way; they do not swerve from their paths.

Joe 2:8 They do not jostle one another; each marches in his path; they burst through the weapons and are not halted.

Joe 2:9 They leap upon the city, they run upon the walls, they climb up into the houses, they enter through the windows like a thief.

Joe 2:10 The earth quakes before them; the heavens tremble. The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.

Joe 2:11 The LORD utters his voice before his army, for his camp is exceedingly great; he who executes his word is powerful. For the day of the LORD is great and very awesome; who can endure it?

Joe 2:12 "Yet even now," declares the LORD, "return to me with all your heart, with fasting, with weeping, and with mourning;

Joe 2:13 and rend your hearts and not your garments." Return to the LORD your God, for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abounding in steadfast love; and he relents over disaster.

Joe 2:14 Who knows whether he will not turn and relent, and leave a blessing behind him, a grain offering and a drink offering for the LORD your God?

Joe 2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion; consecrate a fast; call a solemn assembly;

Joe 2:16 gather the people. Consecrate the congregation; assemble the elders; gather the children, even nursing infants. Let the bridegroom leave his room, and the bride her chamber.

Joe 2:17 Between the vestibule and the altar let the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep and say, "Spare your people, O LORD, and make not your heritage a reproach, a byword among the nations. Why should they say among the peoples, 'Where is their God?'"

Right here in the book of Joel we can clearly see the return of our Messiah who is the one who executes his word. And we once again see the trumpets being blown and the people being afflicted and the sun nor the moon giving it's light and once again, we see the consecration of the congregation and the assembling of the elders and so my question to you is this...

How can we say that our Messiah will not fulfill his Father's Fall feast days in the same way that he fulfilled his Father's Spring feast days when we can clearly see the layout of his Fall Feast days and appointment falling directly in line with his God breathed Scripture down to the crossing of a "t"?

And I would also like for us to also contrast what we just read in the book of Joel in the Old Testament with what we find in the New Testament in the book of Revelation concerning the return of our Messiah... Revelation 19:11-21 E3

The Rider on a White Horse

Rev 19:11 Then I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse! The one sitting on it is called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he judges and makes war.

Rev 19:12 His eyes are like a flame of fire, and on his head are many diadems, and he has a name written that no one knows but himself.

Rev 19:13 He is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and the name by which he is called is The Word of God.

Rev 19:14 And the armies of heaven, arrayed in fine linen, white and pure, were following him on white horses.

Rev 19:15 From his mouth comes a sharp sword with which to strike down the nations, and he will rule them with a rod of iron. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of God the Almighty.

Rev 19:16 On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords.

Rev 19:17 Then I saw an angel standing in the sun, and with a loud voice he called to all the birds that fly directly overhead, "Come, gather for the great supper of God,

Rev 19:18 to eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, the flesh of horses and their riders, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, both small and great.”

Rev 19:19 And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth with their armies gathered to make war against him who was sitting on the horse and against his army.

Rev 19:20 And the beast was captured, and with it the false prophet who in its presence had done the signs by which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshiped its image. These two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.

Rev 19:21 And the rest were slain by the sword that came from the mouth of him who was sitting on the horse, and all the birds were gorged with their flesh.

The day of Atonement when the world is made to atone for its transgressions will indeed be the day that our Messiah once again will be sent to do his Father’s will upon the earth. And it will be on this great and terrible day that the world will indeed mourn and grieve. Our Messiah’s robe is dipped in the blood of the unrighteous and the wicked. He will tread the winepress of the fury of the wrath of his Father because his is a good and just God that can no longer allow wickedness to claim what is rightfully his and his alone. And just as Moses rescued our people out from under the hand of the Pharaoh of Egypt... so too will this second Moses rescue us out from under the hand of the Pharaoh of this world who is the serpent, the dragon, the devil himself.

And once this happens and all of this has passed... there will be a greater exodus than Moses had ever led out of Egypt. Jeremiah 23:3-8 E4

The Righteous Branch

Jer 23:1 “Woe to the shepherds who destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture!” declares the LORD.

Jer 23:2 Therefore thus says the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning the shepherds who care for my people: “You have scattered my flock and have driven them away, and you have not attended to them. Behold, I will attend to you for your evil deeds, declares the LORD.

Jer 23:3 Then I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries where I have driven them, and I will bring them back to their fold, and they shall be fruitful and multiply.

Jer 23:4 I will set shepherds over them who will care for them, and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be missing, declares the LORD.

Jer 23:5 “Behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when I will raise up for David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.

Jer 23:6 In his days Judah will be saved, and Israel will dwell securely. And this is the name by which he will be called: ‘The LORD is our righteousness.’

Jer 23:7 “Therefore, behold, the days are coming, declares the LORD, when they shall no longer say, ‘As the LORD lives who brought up the people of Israel out of the land of Egypt,’

Jer 23:8 but 'As the LORD lives who brought up and led the offspring of the house of Israel out of the north country and out of all the countries where he had driven them.' Then they shall dwell in their own land."

There will indeed be an even greater exodus that is coming upon us that will be even greater than the exodus of Moses day. An Exodus when Yehvoah God through the second Moses will lead his people back into his promised land from all of the nations on the earth. Isaiah 11:1-16
E5

The Righteous Reign of the Branch

Isa 11:1 There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse, and a branch from his roots shall bear fruit.

Isa 11:2 And the Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of the LORD.

Isa 11:3 And his delight shall be in the fear of the LORD. He shall not judge by what his eyes see, or decide disputes by what his ears hear,

Isa 11:4 but with righteousness he shall judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall strike the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips he shall kill the wicked.

Isa 11:5 Righteousness shall be the belt of his waist, and faithfulness the belt of his loins.

Isa 11:6 The wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the young goat, and the calf and the lion and the fattened calf together; and a little child shall lead them.

Isa 11:7 The cow and the bear shall graze; their young shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.

Isa 11:8 The nursing child shall play over the hole of the cobra, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.

Isa 11:9 They shall not hurt or destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD as the waters cover the sea.

Isa 11:10 In that day the root of Jesse, who shall stand as a signal for the peoples—of him shall the nations inquire, and his resting place shall be glorious.

Isa 11:11 In that day the Lord will extend his hand yet a second time to recover the remnant that remains of his people, from Assyria, from Egypt, from Pathros, from Cush, from Elam, from Shinar, from Hamath, and from the coastlands of the sea.

Isa 11:12 He will raise a signal for the nations and will assemble the banished of Israel, and gather the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.

Isa 11:13 The jealousy of Ephraim shall depart, and those who harass Judah shall be cut off; Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah, and Judah shall not harass Ephraim.

Isa 11:14 But they shall swoop down on the shoulder of the Philistines in the west, and together they shall plunder the people of the east. They shall put out their hand against Edom and Moab, and the Ammonites shall obey them.

Isa 11:15 And the LORD will utterly destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt, and will wave his hand over the River with his scorching breath, and strike it into seven channels, and he will lead people across in sandals.

Isa 11:16 And there will be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that remains of his people, as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt.

The shoot from the stump of Jesse David's earthly father is our Messiah that the modern-day church today rejects. It is on him that the Spirit of Yehvoah God rests, and it is because our Messiah has the Spirit of knowledge and the fear of Yehvoah that his delight is the fear of Yehvoah. Not says I... but says our God breathed Scripture.

And our Father through him just like Moses... will lead the earth back to his Father so that the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Yehovah as the waters cover the sea. And just as it is written... Yehovah will indeed extend his hand yet a second time... to recover the remnant that remains of his people from the four corners of the earth. And just as it is written the jealousy of Ephraim shall depart... and those who harass Judah shall be cut off. Ephraim shall not be jealous of Judah and Judah shall not harass Ephraim, and just as it was prophesied the two sticks of Ezekiel will be joined back into one stick in the Father's hand.

Yehovah will indeed destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt. What does that mean that he will destroy the tongue of the Sea of Egypt? It means that he will destroy the works of the devil and his wicked people. Just as our Messiah tells us in the Parable of the Wheat and the Tares... the Tares will be taken up and destroyed first... and then... after the Tares... the weeds are destroyed... he will gather the wheat that are his people and he will cause there to be seven channels that he will lead his people across in sandals back to his holy promised land, and there will indeed be a highway from Assyria for the remnant that remains of his people as there was for Israel when they came up from the land of Egypt. Assyria was an arch enemy of the house of Israel back in the days of Ephraim and Judah and Yehvoah God used the Assyrians as a thorn in the side of Israel in order to chastise them for their idolatry and whoredom. Once again... he will call his people back even from Assyria.

And all of this can be seen through the Spiritual understanding of our Father's Fall feast days and appointments!

First, we have the blowing of trumpets to announce the return of our Messiah, who will then on the day of Atonement cleans the world of the wicked and gather his elect from the four corners of the heavens and bind the devil and put him in chains and into a pit. And then he will rule and reign on earth as King for 1000 years upon which time the devil will be set loose and the nations of the earth through the spirits of Gog and Magog will come upon Jerusalem for the very last time and it will be at that point in time that the devil and his followers and his minions will be destroyed and our Messiah will at that time return the kingdom to his Father. 1st

Corinthians 15:20-24 (scrn 9)

Yeshua (Jesus) Delivers The Kingdom To His Father...

1Co 15:20 But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the firstfruits of those who have fallen asleep.

1Co 15:21 For as by a man came death, by a man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

1Co 15:22 For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ shall all be made alive.

1Co 15:23 But each in his own order: Christ the firstfruits, then at his coming those who belong to Christ.

1Co 15:24 Then comes the end, when he delivers the kingdom to God the Father after destroying every rule and every authority and power.

And this my friends... is what the Fall feast days and appointments are all about! The day of Trumpets alerts the world to his coming and his elect being gathered. The day of Atonement represents the forgiveness of those who he has gathered as his elect who have picked up their crosses and have been walking as he walked, and the destruction of the wicked from the face of the earth, and then finally after he has taken the earth back he will then turn the kingdom over to his Father and both Father and Son will once again Tabernacle with us just as God had walked with Adam through the garden in the beginning and this is what the feast of Tabernacles also known as Sukkot represents.

Our Father does indeed proclaim the end from the beginning, and there should be no doubt that our Father's will, will indeed be done and just as it was from the beginning of the garden of Eden so shall it be at the end of the age. Yehvoah God's plan for man will indeed come full circle, and just as the Apostle Paul has told us... the promises and gifts of God are irrevocable.

And so let us not sleep as others do. Let us be sober minded and found not weighed and wanting... but waiting and ready. When he returns let him find us on our knees in our prayer closets facing the holy promised land of Jerusalem crying out in his name for his truth to come upon us. Let him find us in a humbled state of worship and honor and dignity. Let him find us wearing the full armor of God being able to stand in the evil day having concurred over the wickedness of this world and the principalities of darkness. Let him find us blowing the trumpets and sounding the alarm. Let him find us with the oil of our lamps full of oil and trimmed and waiting for his return.

And with that... there is so, so much more that we could get into and will get into concerning these Fall feast days and appointments but there is unfortunately no way that we could ever go over all of the Scripture that points to all of these things in just one sitting. And this is why it's important to realize that no one can receive the truth by simply watching one video, or one clip, or one 15 second sound bite.

There simply is no way to see the truth that our Father is trying to give us unless we are taking the time to sit down and read it each and every day. The truth is much bigger and larger in scope than one can even imagine and that is why the truth is likened unto a seed that is meant to grow and nourish and teach and expound and create in us a love and a God given compassion for who our Father is and just how enormous his power and his glory reaches not only in, around, and through the earth itself... but in, around, and through all of creation.

He is the potter... and we are the clay. And we were indeed formed by the very hand of Yehvoah God to be created in his own image that we also would have the power that he wants to give us. And that power is a power much stronger than any nuclear bomb or missile, or jet fighter or aircraft carrier. That power is mightier than the mightiest of men. That power is able to move mountains, and to conquer even over death. And that power has a name. That power is "love".

And all of these things that we have spoken of here this evening will indeed come to pass because... of our Father's love for us. It because of the love that Yehvoah God has for his people that this unfolding plan of salvation was created by him for us.

He has rescued us before... and he will rescue us again. And we will be a nation of priests and a holy people who he makes to lie down in green pastures and who he leads beside still waters. A nation of priests and a holy people whose souls he will restore and who he will lead in paths of righteousness for his name's sake. And we as that nation of priests and as that holy nation will indeed have goodness and mercy follow us all the days of our lives and we will indeed dwell in the house of Yehvoah.

But as for now... in closing this evening... I will once again... as I always do simply ask everyone within the sound of my voice to take what you have heard here this evening to your own prayer closet. Bow your head and bend your knee and face the holy promised land of Jerusalem and ask in the name of Yeshua Hamashiach if what you have heard here this evening be true or not.

Ask, seek, and knock on his door and on his door alone, and the proper door will be opened to you. And if you will do that... and if you will stay the course to the end... you and I will surely walk through the gates of his soon coming kingdom.
